SENATOR TOWNE

By Appointment of Governor Lind He Goes to Washington to Fill the Vaccancy Caused by the Death of Senator Davis.

The difference in the spirit of the opposing political forces in the United States had a demonstration in Minnesota last week. Governor Lind sent a communication to the republican authorities saving as the state had gone strongly republican, he would appoint any member of that party to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Davis that the republicans would recommend. The reply was tht any republican who would accept an appointment from a fusion governor would be considered too low to receive a single republican vote. That answer contained an epitome of the malignity, hatred and vileness of the republican leadership of the United States. It seems that the republican deprayed sort that we are so well acquainted with in this state. Upon receiving this answer. Governor Lind appointed Charles A. Towne, who is now in Washington. of danger. "For one, I have no hope that any mechanism of legislation, any system of socialism, any scheme of agrarian distribution or taxation will in the remotest degree remove them. The church of God must go up, must stay up upon a much higher plane than conditions of our national life, and in that.'

The situation that Bishop Potter deplores has been brought about more by the church than any other one agency. When the religious press was subsidized by valuable advertising. mostly from banks and trusts, when it became the advocate of plutocracy when it stopped its reform work and spent millions in building costly ten ples of worship, when its high-priced ministers began to fear for their postlaid in society the leaven of corrupwhole lump.

It is true that no "mechanism of legislation" will ever remove the evils of which the Bishop complains, not because we could not do it, but because there is no possibility of obtaining such legislation until the voting population is brought up to a "much high er plane" than it now occupies.
