"The Commoner" HON. W. J. BRYAN thear "The Independent" 3 Months BOTH FOR ONLY $$ 1.00$

Send in your order without delay and we will begin your subscription with the FIRST ISSUE. Several thousand EXTRA COPIES have been printed FOR OUR FSPECIAL USE in filling back orders. Back numbers are mailed the same The is received.
The above offer is open alike to old and new subscribers.
Present Readers $\begin{aligned} & \text { of The Independent who wish to subscribe for "The } \\ & \text { Commoner," should send } $ 1 \text { direct to the Indepen }\end{aligned}$ dent Peb. Co., Lincoln, Nebraska, and we will have "The Commoner" sent to your ad To New Subscribers $\begin{aligned} & \text { For } $ 1 \text { we will send "The Commoner" for } 1 \\ & \text { year and The Independent three months }\end{aligned}$ Theregular subscription price of "The Commoner" is $1 a year. By taking advant age of our clubbing offer you will get Three Months Subscription to The Independent Absolutely Free
This is the most liben, foffer made by any publisher. Call your neighbor's atten tion to this opportunity and in 5 or 10 and in that way sho 5 or 10 and in that way show your interest in the cause of the people? The n after we commenced this offer last week Mr. Johnathan Higgins, of Cambridge, sent in a list ce 22 subscribers that he had secured in his immediate neighborhood. Hun dreds of others have sent in clubs since that. Education is the first essential to the suc cess of the cause of the people. The weekly paper delivered regularly at the home i the most effective means of education that can be found. Why not take advantage of our liberal offer and help to increase the circulation and educational influence of the greatest reform papers in the  \section*{Thdependent Pub. Co.,  \section*{Thdependent Pub. Co.,   Lincoln, Nebraska}   Lincoln, Nebraska}

Littie by little, but stead the old for the new faith. are created equal; but, now, from principles cannot stand to ensether. They are a "opposite as God self.government." Thes principies cannot stand together. III., October 16, 1854

In those days our Declaration of Independence was held sacred by all, and thought o include all; but now to aid in making the bondage of the negro universal and eterna it is assailed and sneered at and, could rise from their graves, the.
Speech at Springfield, Ill., June

ARE YOU DOING YOUR

|  |
| :---: |
|  |
|  |

 der blank in this page. Add

Current Comment

 S
?
?

Catraph inkuve
 COTARARH CURED PERMMNEITIY.

Sweeten the Broath

USE THIS ORDER BLANK
Tndependent Pub. © Linsoln, neb.
Gentlemen: Enclosed find $ for which send "The Commoner" for one year and, Nebraska Independent for three months to each of the following names and addresses;
SMMES

