The exposure of the commissary fraud in the Philippines got started by a private letter sent to Hong Kong, mailed there and published in the papers as a special dispatch with a Manila date of the day before.

Nearly all the world believes that Jackson was the author of the phrase: "To the victor belongs the spoils," as applied to politics.

One place to economize was not seen by Thompson's choice when he started out on his veto raid, and that was that appropriation allowing one of the state house boards to pay $75 an acre for 150 acres of farming land down at Beatrice where there is the worst nest of republican boodlers to be found in the state.

The inexcusable extravagance of the last legislature in its appropriations to all the institutions under control of the republicans was only equalled by the governor in his attack upon all the educational institutions of the state.

During the first forty years of our national life covering ten presidential elections, the total removals from political office were only 74.

The Cuban constitutional convention has rejected almost unanimously the Platt resolutions and sent a committee to Washington to protest against them.

The inhumanity to man which has characterized the powers in China is not wholly on the part of the mandarins. The conduct of the diplomatic representatives of the various governments is heartless in the extreme.

Nothing practicable towards a settlement has been reached. Russia makes the most positive statements to the effect that she has no desire to have Chinese territory and the rest of the powers refuse to believe her.

Considerable excitement and disgust has been occasioned in that section of people known as Christian soldiers during the last two or three years. These people have all been great admirers of Prof. Herron.

McLaurin, senator from South Carolina, has notified Senator Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee, that he will not enter the democratic caucus.

There was a general belief in Washington that the supreme court would hand down a decision last Monday on the Porto Rico cases, but everybody was again disappointed.

Our Noble Governor—Opium Fiends—Average Prices—Stingy—Starving and Death.

Our noble republican governor has cut a great shine with his veto ax. He must have chopped off the university repair and improvement appropriation for one of two reasons—ignorance or cupidity.

Six opium fiends, taken from an opium saloon on Seventh street, were fined ten dollars each. Why not take the whisky fiends out of the whisky saloons and serve them the same way?

As a rule two or three farm products are higher than the average price for several years at the same time, while bread stuff is rather low.

The queerest character of our boyhood days was one Hale Buncey, a man who appeared seventy years old when we first saw him.
