The collections this week are the lightest received since the work began. Nothing of more than passing interest occurred during the week, except the contribution of Cornell precinct, Hitchcock county, where Committeeman Hay collected $3.50 and sent it in. Now, that is in the very heart of the drouth-sticken region last year, and that $3.50 is greater, in view of all the circumstances, than several times the amount collected in a rich precinct. Long ago Mr. Hay was advised to make no attempt at collecting, but he insisted that he must do
