It is beginning to dawn on a good many men that if the postal system is to be preserved in this country an attack will have to be made all along the line on the express companies.

The present moment is relief from inequitable and unjust assessments, which have thrown the burden of government almost entirely upon the owners of homes and small properties.

Around Chamberlain, S. D., there has been the greatest rainfall since the weather bureau began reporting it in that country twenty years ago.

The editors of Europe are beginning to ask what Americans have been making so much noise about the unalienable rights of man for the last hundred years.

Roosevelt says: "The most trying need of Omaha and Douglas county at

SHIP DIRECT

There is no way to get full value for your wool except by shipping direct to market. The few hands your wool passes through before reaching the manufacturer, the more profit there is for you.

SUMMERS, BROWN & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS, 195 S. Water St., CHICAGO.

Dubuque, Ia., took up with the populist idea of the public ownership of the waterworks and at the end of the first year's experience everybody held a jubilee.

worth of tin-plate they are exporting and selling in European markets at a lower price than they sell to us here at home, near where the plate is made.

early democratic success than the democrats are sanguine of such a result. It is due to the fact that the republicans see the signs of disintegration and revolt in their own ranks.

In the old days of Cleveland soup houses, cheap corn and dear money, it took one-half of the farmer's corn to pay the freight on the other half to Chicago.

The parable of the unjust steward has been a clog to many a Sunday school teacher. Wherein consisted the injustice? Was the steward unjust to wards the landlord or toward the tenants?

There are more than forty staples of American manufacture backed by capital so enormous and so thoroughly organized that foreign manufacturers stand aghast at the bankruptcy which threatens them.

The American Economist, the organ of the tariff league, says: "The farmers of the United States are getting wealthy. The banks are bulging with their money.

There seem to be three grades of marriageable love: Reason love, money love and lust love.

Those who have watched the progress of matters at Washington know well that the democratic platforms of 1896 and 1900 even though not supported by democratic victories at the polls, have had a most marked effect in modifying republican policies.

Hardy's Column

Death of Ex-Governor Pingree. Bryan and Towne Should Hang. Stick to the Republican Party. Law an Uncertainty. A Ninth Party. City Voting. High Protection. An Unjust Steward. Love and Marriage.

Governor Pingree is dead. Died in London. No true friend of the common people ever lived.

It is claimed by the administration that the free, self-government people of the old states have made all the trouble in the islands.

Why does anybody who has voted for McKinley twice now want to reorganize the democratic party? Why do they not stick to the republican party and let the democratic party go to Bryanism?

Law is an uncertain quantity. Justice is a queer thing. Courts seem to reason their decisions with both right and wrong.

Why do the republicans talk about organizing a third party for Bryan. There are already eight parties in the field with national organizations.

J. Sterling Morton in his address before the old settlers was right in his advocacy of limited suffrage in cities on city questions to taxpayers or stockholders in the corporation.

The high protectionists are now boasting of how many million dollars' worth of tin-plate they are exporting.

Love at first sight is not a safe love to base marriage upon. First impressions may be a favorable starting point, but the real test of compatibility often follows.

The young man or woman who has a taste for flowers, pictures and books, the other must learn to do the same thing or suffer torture.

A BAD INVESTMENT

The New With Russia-Disgusted Republicans of the West Want a Tariff Reform

Washington, D. C., June 22.—There is more or less talk of third party movements and new movements with in the democratic party at the present time, the object of which movements are supposed to be to keep the party faithful to some ideal in the minds of the agitators.
