H. Herpolsheimer & Co

Lincoln, Nebraska.

During the excitement of the week three men have succeeded in making asses of themselves. Senators Platt and Culberson, in speaking of the murderous assault upon the president, turned anarchists themselves by advocating the lynching of the assassin, and Governor Savage by issuing a prayer proclamation into which he thrust a lot of politics. Savage, who does not believe in the efficacy of prayer, issuing a prayer proclamation was ridiculous enough, but the putting into a prayer proclamation a lot of republican politics was worse. In the detestation of the crime attempted there was no difference among the people of the United States. They all looked at the shot at the president as a shot at the government of this republic.

The democratic party was so lax in its discipline that it has been nearly ruined thereby. Men were allowed to call themselves democrats and were given high office who did not believe in a single tenet of the party—not even a tariff for revenue. The republican party has never allowed such things and whenever a prominent member has abandoned the plutocrats and said or done anything against their interests, he has been promptly disciplined. They allow their members to wobble around on everything but the one vital to them—plutocracy. We may therefore look for the ousting of Congressman Littlefield. He will not be allowed to talk about "reorganizing" the republican party on anti-imperialist grounds. He will be heaved over the transom. Mark Hanna will never allow any republican Dave Hills to stay within its folds.

The lack of any ability in editorial writing has never been more glaringly evident in the dailies than during the few days that have elapsed since the president was shot. If there has been one article in any one of them that would attract the attention of a thinking mind, we would like to have it pointed out. For the most part it has been gush, silliness, anarchy, for advocating lynching is anarchy, and fulsome flattery so disgusting that it would turn the stomach of any decent man. This disgust has been openly expressed by many eminent men. Dr. Mann, one of the eminent surgeons who attended the president, said of the dailies: "I am almost ready to declare that I will never allow one of them in my house again." It will be seen that what The Independent has been saying about the daily press is not alone its opinion.

The mistake that was made in the last campaign was not charging from every platform and in every issue of the reform press that while the republican party was denouncing Bryan as a lunatic and repudiating for advocating silver, the administration itself was coining more silver than was ever coined either under the Sherman or Bland act. That was the sort of shell that would have exploded right in the enemy's lines every time. The proof was abundant and furnished by the reports of the mint and the treasurer of the United States, so there could be no denying the assertions. The Independent started off on that line, but it could not get the democratic dailies to follow. That fact of the coinage of the enormous amount of silver should be stated in the populist platform at the next convention and made a prominent part of it.

Hardy's Column

State Fair—Rain—Equal Taxation—Assassination of President McKinley, Speech of McKinley.

The state fair has come and gone. There is a great satisfaction in meeting citizens from all parts of the state, of all classes of producers and all shades of political and religious belief. Then we can learn more from everybody than we can from those only of our occupation, party and church. To see the fine agricultural exhibit one would not think there had been a drouth in the state for a hundred years. The fruit especially looked up equal to any state exhibit we ever witnessed. The live stock, too, of all kinds, exhibited signs of great improvement.

An inch of rain in Lincoln must mean two inches all over the rest of the state, if so, the ground is in order for fall plowing and wheat sowing. A double quantity of wheat should be sown this fall. Small grain of all kinds has always ripened before the drouth and hot winds have put in an appearance.

The republicans in Wisconsin are having the same kind of a fight among themselves that they had four years ago in Michigan. That party of the party that is bought and sold, bribed and threatened by the corporations has met and organized for the purpose of fighting the other party of the party who are in favor of taxing railroads and other corporate property, according to selling value, the same as farms. Governor Pingree came out ahead when his party put up a similar fight on him. He received ten thousand more votes than McKinley. All kinds of property should be taxed according to its selling value. A diamond ring that would sell for five hundred dollars should be taxed the same as a horse and lot that would sell for the same money. In Iowa it is democrats against republicans on the same question. In Chicago they undertook to reduce teachers' wages. Three or four school ma'ams looked up several millions of property in the city that had not been assessed, then went into court and compelled the assessors to put it on their assessment roll. In that way money enough was obtained to continue the same wages of their teachers.

Who can tell what the anarchists want? Do they kill rulers as hunters used to kill buffalo, just for the fun of doing the job? If one of their own men should happen to be elected president of the United States or of France, would they kill him just the same? Have they any object or motive besides the satisfaction of doing the deed? Why don't they take governors and mayors? Who can tell what they are aiming at or what they desire to accomplish? Why has not our secret police wedged their way among them, found out their secret plans and put our open police on their guards? Just a single hanging is too good for such criminals as shot Garfield and McKinley; if a dozen of the gang could be strung up at once the punishment would seem more adequate. If our presidents could be saved by secret betrayal of criminals and then the intending criminals strung up it would seem much more right and just. If it should turn out that President McKinley's assassin was a Filipino, there would be some logic in the deed. It is certainly no more a crime for a Filipino to shoot an American in America than it is for an American to shoot a Filipino in his country. Now they will probably hold McKinley's assassin to see whether the president lives or dies. The punishment should be the same for he is just as much of a criminal whether the president lives or dies.

Our president made a speech in Buffalo the day before his assassination in which it is fair to suppose he reflected the sentiments and purposes of the republican party. He said not a word about coining silver, but held his mouth muzzled as the Cleveland democrats did in the Ohio state convention. But then his actions speak louder than words in the fact that he has coined more silver than any president before him. In so doing he has virtually carried out Bryan's money theory. Now he proposes that his party shall adopt Bryan's tariff or free trade theory. He does not use the term free trade for that would shock a majority of his party beyond endurance. He uses the term "reciprocity" which means to let England and other nations sell their goods in the United States free of tariff just as they let us sell our goods in their country. He made one false statement, that "prices are fixed with mathematical precision by supply and demand." The president knows that the high protective tariff has done more than anything else to fix prices of manufactured goods in this country for years. He seems to be afraid that Bryan may run for president again and his tariff doctrine carry him in, so proposes to take the wind out of his sail by adopting his policy. The grain, meat and dairy products of the Nebraska farms are sold in New York and Boston every day in the year for less than they could be sold the same hour for in Liverpool, London or Paris. Then if the farmer wants to buy New England cloth or Pennsylvania iron he must pay forty to seventy per cent above European prices. Is that justice toward the Nebraska farmer? The farmer has to pay the freight on his produce to New England and Pennsylvania and also on the goods he buys of them back to his farm. The vice president took a bold stand in the last speech he made against trusts. He advocated the doctrine of controlling them by law.

Forcing the Executive
The fame of the "doomed" state convention has gone abroad. The Buffalo, N. Y., Times has the following comments upon it. It heads the article, "A Shameful Spectacle."

"Not in many years has there been enacted a scene at once so singular and so shameful as the one presented at the republican state convention at Lincoln, Neb. Several years ago Joseph S. Bartley, then a republican state official, embezzled a large amount of the public funds. He was imprisoned for a time, but when the republican convention succeeded to power, one of the first acts of the new governor was to release his brother republican on parole! "It was this act which caused the scene in yesterday's convention. It was owing to Bartley's crime that the republicans lost control of Nebraska for four years, and they were fearful that a like consequence would follow the governor's action in paroling Bartley. The convention yesterday passed a platform plank demanding that Bartley's parole be recalled, and the man will be at once returned to prison. "What a confession of maladministration of justice is it when it is necessary for a party convention to pass resolutions to force the chief executive of the state to perform his duty!"

A JUST JUDGE

His Name Should be Honored by all the People—Some Pointed Remarks
The federal courts have so unanimously supported and defended the extortions of railroad companies that it is the common belief among the people that the corporations own them all. It is with gratification that one judge has been found who had the courage to tell the railroad managers that they were a lot of law breakers and could get no relief in his court until they were prepared to do equity themselves.

The Lackawanna railroad appealed to the United States court at Buffalo to forbid sixty-one ticket scalpers from dealing in passenger excursion tickets. Judge Hazel threw it out of court, his decision that it was not entitled to the protection of the laws being based upon the reasons in these two sentences from his opinion: "It appears that the complainant is a party to a combination which is engaged in pooling railroad rates and in fixing fares in order to avoid competition between the several lines constituting the association known and distinguished as the Trunk Line association."

Can the aid of a federal tribunal be invoked to protect the complainant in the issuance of a ticket which is the culmination as well as the evidence of an agreement between railroad corporations specifically forbidden by an act of congress which has been sustained by the supreme court of the United States? Judge Hazel decided that, sitting in equity, he could do nothing for a complainant who "does not come into court with clean hands." This decision has greatly agitated not only the railway lawyers, who thought they had "dodged" the anti-trust law, but also all lawyers for combinations. It flatly declares that the federal courts cannot be invoked to aid in the enforcement of the contracts of combinations where those contracts are on the face proof of the existence of the combination to "regulate" prices.

The Price of Coal
Coal was advanced 25 cents per ton on the 1st of September, making a total increase of 50 cents since the 1st of May, when the price was already above the average.

Last summer's strike of the coal miners was, by the influence of the republican campaign managers, settled by conceding increased wages to the men. These increases, varying slightly by circumstances, raised the average cost of mining coal by about 10 cents a ton.

In early spring of the present year the "general understanding" hitherto prevailing among coal operators was succeeded by a trust which has three times advanced prices at will. The householder at tide-water will this winter pay nearly a dollar a ton more for coal than the average consumer for ten years past. The men at the mines will get 10 cents of the increase.

They Gather It In
The plutocrats under the favoring wing of republican legislation continue to gather in what labor produces. September is not considered a large month for either interest or dividend disbursements, but the payments scheduled for the present month include $10,583,314 interest on railroad bonds, $12,352,321 dividends on railroad stocks, $20,176,348 dividends on industrials and $2,935,475 interest on miscellaneous bonds. This totals up to the considerable sum of $46,027,458 and is about $9,000,000 in excess of the interest and dividend disbursements of the corresponding month of 1900.

The table above summarized are necessarily incomplete and relate only to the disbursements on account of securities which are of speculative interest on the New York stock exchange or are known and recognized here as acceptable bank collateral. The disbursements on account of stocks and bonds not known or quoted in the market reports would swell the total by a large figure, for under present conditions the payments are by no means limited to the concerns with great capitalizations, upon which public attention is focused by reason of the magnitude of their operations.

PALESTINE THEIR GOAL

Jewish People Look Toward Fulfillment of Prophecy.

EXPECT TO RAISE $20,000,000.

Residents of Chicago Ghetto Contribute From Their Little Stores to Aid the Zionist Movement—Plans of Leaders to Renationalize Jews in the Holy Land.

Poverty, privation, persecution and hardship cannot weaken or shatter the belief of the Jewish people in the old prophecy that they will be reunited in a land of their own, says the Chicago Post. When this idea took tangible shape in the Zionist congress which convened at Basel, Switzerland, in 1897, the men interested were scoffed at and called visionaries. Max Nordau and Theodore Herzl were the prime movers and organizers, although the idea dates back to the time the Jews as a nation became scattered. Today there are Zion organizations throughout the world to the number of about 2,000, and the very comfortable sum of $1,750,000 has not only been subscribed to the cause, but paid.

When it is said that this money has been paid in more often than not in amounts of $5 from one individual, the progress of the work speaks for itself. Over in the ghetto district there are tenements housing a dozen families of this nationality in almost as many rooms. Yet in the midst of this penury and often suffering the desire for a reputed nation burns strong. Families making barely enough to keep body and soul together point to a gilded frame which surrounds a certificate showing that money has been paid for a share in the great work. They are not too poor to support the movement, though too poor to indulge in the commonest pleasures. It is this spirit which has fed the flame first started in Switzerland and which the leaders assert will in another ten years accomplish what was first thought to be the idea of dreamers.

Next October delegates from all over the world will gather at the international convention of Zionists in London. It will be the fifth congress. Already the Jews in Chicago are planning on who will be sent to represent them. By that time it is hoped the fund will have reached the $2,000,000 mark. Last June the American Federation of Zionists met in Philadelphia. Plans have now been completed to hold the next gathering in Boston. Word from eastern headquarters has been sent to the societies in the United States that a money paper will be started in the fall in the interest of American Zionists.

Knights of Zion is the sobriquet of the society which is represented in the middle western states. Headquarters are in Chicago, and Leon Zolotoff, editor of The Jewish Call, is grand master. This district has lodges in Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa and Michigan, and organizers are working as far west as Colorado. Through Mr. Zolotoff 1,500 shares have been sent to headquarters in London.

Many more have been purchased in this district [Chicago], but not through Mr. Zolotoff. Two years ago the Colonial Trust bank was incorporated in London, with a capital stock of $10,000,000. The bank will not be operated until the entire sum is raised. Then it is the plan of the leaders to purchase from the sultan of Turkey the rights to renationalize the Jews in Palestine. The total cost of the venture is estimated as high as $20,000,000, but the work is so huge that nothing nearer than approximate figures can be made.

With the rapid growth of the Zionist movement in the last year it is believed by many of the Jews that the fulfillment of the prophecy that they will again occupy Palestine, the home of their forefathers, will be brought about in another five years.

For twenty years colonies of Israelites have been settling in Palestine until today there are about thirty such settlements. The children are taught Hebrew and converse in this tongue. The mosaic laws have been changed to meet present conditions, and these bodies of Jews are looked upon by the Zionists as the nucleus of the new Palestine. They engage in agriculture and manufacturing, and already their wares are beginning to have a reputation in the commercial world.

In speaking of the movement Mr. Zolotoff said: "When first started, many people looked upon the whole idea as visionary and an attempt to establish a tribal clannishness. Those who thought of the scheme in all its lights pronounced it the only rational solution for the preservation of the Jews. In countries like Russia, where the race is subject to persecution, their individuality is fast killed off, as it were. In other countries, like the United States, for example, where they are treated liberally, the tendency is also to do away with individuality, but through assimilation. It would be impossible to keep the identity of the Jews as a race much longer under present conditions unless some such scheme were worked out.

"It is not the idea to transport all Jews to Palestine. There would not be room enough for them. Only those who desire to go will be asked, and even these will be given a strict examination to see that they are desirable. By uniting modern ideas and improvements with the stable laws of the Jews, which are even recognized by the gentiles, it is the hope of every one interested in the movement to renationalize the race, making it a power for good in commercial and religious circles of the world."

THE WHOLE SYSTEM

May Become Invaded by Catarrh—Manager Plan's Case.

J. Louis Pfau, Jr., Chicago, Ill.

J. Louis Pfau, Jr., Manager Central Trust Co., writes from suite 201, Times-Herald Building, Chicago, Ill., as follows: "Last June I had a severe attack of nasal catarrh which was very annoying and debilitated my system. Seeing your advertisement I wrote you for advice. I used Peruna constantly until last November, when the symptoms disappeared entirely."

Hon. James Lewis, Surveyor General of Louisiana, says: "I have used Peruna for a short time and can cheerfully recommend it as being all you represent and wish every man who is suffering with catarrh could know of its great value."

James Lewis. Wherever the catarrh is, there is sure to be a waste of mucus. The mucus is as precious as blood. It is blood, in fact. It is blood plasma—blood with the corpuscles removed. To stop this waste, you must stop this catarrh. A course of treatment with Peruna never fails to do this.

Hon. W. E. Schneider, proprietor of the Baltic Hotel, of Washington, D. C., speaks of Peruna as follows: "I desire to say that I have found Peruna a most wonderful remedy. I have only used one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied as to its merits. I cannot find words to express my gratification for the results obtained."

Send for free catarrh book. Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Some Farmers

think that the place to get bargains is in some store where everything is topsy-turvy—that if there is any style or neatness in the store that they have to pay for the display. We have changed all this. We cater to every class of trade—high and low, rich and poor, and we not only cater to this trade, but we get it. Our store is where the banker and the poor laboring man bump elbows with each other, where the prosperous farmer meets his less fortunate brother. They are all looking for the place that gives the most good goods for the money, and that's our store. We are the cheapest drug house in the west. We know this because we receive orders from every county in this state. Instead of buying our drugs in small quantities, we buy them in large quantities, large enough to put us on the same basis as the jobber and by paying cash and getting the benefit of the discount we are able to sell most drugs cheaper than the ordinary drug store can buy them. We have a line of household remedies that are the best in the world and save many doctor bills. We sell our $1 patents for 69 and 79 cents, and if you ever buy anything here and it is not as we represent it, your money back. Nothing could be more fair. We have a complete line of stock food, and no matter what you need—stamps, oil, in fact anything in the drug line—you will find it here at prices that are always lower than the lowest.

The Texas American Oil Co.

Has just been incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois. The company owns and controls 10 acres of land in the Beaumont oil district, one tract on Spindletop Heights, within 200 yards of six gushers, which produce more oil than all the other oil fields in the United States.

Since January 10, 1901, 250 acres on Spindletop Heights have produced 35 Gushers, each with a capacity of 70,000 barrels per day.

WE ARE SURE TO GET A GUSHER AND A GUSHER IS WORTH $5,000,000.

Texas oil will supply fuel for the world. The scarcity of coal in the older countries, and the economy of using oil, makes oil the fuel of the future; and Beaumont has the advantage over any other oil field, inasmuch that each of its gushers will produce a larger daily output than 2,000 ordinary oil wells, added to the fact that it is within 18 miles of the seaport, and can be delivered at any port at so low a cost that no other fuel can be used in competition with it.

Those who get rich out of oil are the ones who get in at the start. Thousands have become rich out of small investments in Texas Oil Stocks since January 1st.

The Texas American Oil Company is being financed by the following Board of Directors:

HON. THOMAS C. POWELL, Ex-Lieut. Gov. and Congressman for Wisconsin—Chippewa Falls, Wis.
JUDGE WM. PRENTISS, Ashland Block, Chicago, Ill.
MR. L. KEM, Manager Seigel, Cooper & Co., Chicago, Ill.
MR. CLARENCE H. HOWARD, Pres. and Manager of the Shickel, Harrison & Howard Iron Co., St. Louis, Mo.
MR. AUGUST J. JUNG, Pres. of Hetscher & Jung Banking Co., Chicago.
J. NEWTON HATHAWAY, M. D., Atlanta, Georgia.

A small block of Treasury Stock is now offered at 25c on the dollar. When we strike oil each dollar invested will be worth twenty. Write or call for particulars on
