

IT NEVER... A Government... Destroyed but...

The shallow minded men in powder at Washington, inspired by greed...

A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally fully recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health."

question. Such non-partisan debates are the best educators of the people...

The very old, but most perplexing and important problem which the people have to solve is the so-called labor question...

As I live too far out from Lincoln to participate in the debates, I hope that the Independent will give me space for expressing my opinion...

On February 17, 1878, Thomas Jefferson, the drawer of the declaration of independence, wrote to Edw. Carrington: "The basis of our government being the opinion of the people..."

What Might Have Been

Editor Independent: You ask the opinion of voters on fusion. You gave the vote of the republican and fusion parties for the last few years. Let us go back a little farther, when the populist party was first formed.

Can Depend on Him

Editor Independent: A short time back I saw in Bryan's Commoner that you would send the Independent free for six weeks if the name was sent in. I did so, requesting that I might get acquainted with it, and it has been coming since.

ADOPTING POPULISM

Republicans Introduce Bills for the Public Ownership of the Telegraphs. Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—(Special Correspondence.)—A leading official of one of the greatest of the country's railroad systems declares that within the next few years one of three things is bound to happen in the railroad world.

After the Trusts

Congressman Shallenberger of the Fifth Nebraska district has introduced an anti-trust, anti-monopoly bill in congress that is attracting considerable attention. The principal features of the bill are: A commission to be appointed by the president to conduct investigations of all corporations, combinations and associations of individuals; that all such monopolies shall make public reports; the suspension of import duties upon articles entering into trust-made goods; the regulation of railroads and transportation lines engaged as common carriers; a federal charter must be secured prior to commencement of business by any combination; violations of the act are punishable by heavy fines.
