News of the Week

Since the Philippine bill has been before the senate the censor in the islands has cut off all news of the fighting. But last Sunday a little was allowed to come.

Imperialism demands and will effect an entire change in our form of government. Steps are being taken one by one to bring it about.

His brown children, will the flag 'stay put' on the blood-soaked soil of the Philippines. Eternal shame on such ignoble warfare!

The war waged on a quiet and religious negro settlement in Illinois is attracting a good deal of attention. It seems to have been for mercenary purposes.

These are mere outlines. However, if proper care is used in filling out the outlines here presented, good, average republican campaign speeches will be the result.

Other Candidates Who shall be the fusion candidate for governor, has been the all-absorbing question with democratic and populist papers for the past two months.

The "let well enough alone" republican senators have organized to fight the reduction of 20 per cent on Cuban sugar.

The senate committee on naval affairs struck out the provision for constructing some of the war ships in the government navy yards.

Our Oratorical Bureau. The campaign of 1902 is upon us, fellow citizens. Soon the campaign orator will be abroad in the land.

One Washington correspondent gives the name of 17 republican senators who, he says, have agreed to fight Roosevelt's plan of reciprocity with Cuba.

Mrs. Rebecca J. Taylor, a clerk in the war office and protected by the civil service law, has been dismissed for attacking the Philippine policy of the administration.

But so far the republican national committee has discriminated against the republican spell-binders. While providing editors with ready-made editorials it has not established a bureau for the purpose of providing ready-made campaign speeches.

has established a republican campaign speech bureau. Below will be found the skeleton framework of a few campaign speeches suitable for republican orators.

SPEECH UPHOLDING THE PHILIPPINE POLICY OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND THROWING THE HARPOON INTO THOSE WHO OPPOSE IT.

Fellow Citizens. (Never forget that introductory.) We are offering the Philippines to the people of the United States.

SPEECH UPHOLDING THE NATIONAL HONOR AND ROASTING THE REPUDIATORS AND ASSAILANTS OF THE NATION'S CREDIT.

Friends and Fellow Citizens. (Company introductory with wave of right hand.) Honor of the nation—Money good all over the world—Soiled hands of those who would attack nation's credit—Insane repudiators—Mountains have melted up their store of yellow metal—Covidence—Channels of commerce congested with—Nation's credit—Gold the money of the world—Rock of our national honor—Wild-eyed silver fanatics—Crazy theorists—Blessings of Providence—Credit of the nation—Those who would Mexicanize our republic—Par with China—Fifty-cent dollars—Fiat money—Silver mine owners—Stores of gold unlocked by far-seeing eyes of republican statesmanship—Uncle Sam the banker of the world—(Carefully avoid reference to the Fowler bill, and if interrupted by an opponent have some reply handy to hold them off.)

SPEECH ADVOCATING PROTECTION TO AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND SCALPING THOSE WHO ADVOCATE UNRESTRICTED TRADE WITH THE WORLD.

My Fellow Countrymen. (That will hit 'em hard if used with the right emphasis.) Let well enough alone—Full dinner pail—Pauper labor of Europe—Soup houses—Market of the world—Reaching out to capture the trade of the world—Busy hum of industry—The smoke from a thousand furnaces—Full dinner pail again—Days of panic and disaster—Friends of the workingman—Ignis fatuus of free trade—Pauper made goods of Europe (play that strong)—Flag flutters over happiest workingmen—Banner of the free—Grand old republican party—True friend of the wage-worker—Let well enough alone—Four years more of the full dinner pail—(Bear in mind that this speech must not be aimed at the heads of the people. Its billet is the stomach. Work up a good sweat and weep hot, scalding tears at the thought that American workingmen should be forced to the level of the pauper laborers of Europe.)

The little child takes up the task. As soon as consciousness begins, His tiny hands uncertain act. As merrily he heedless spins. The youth, with pride and confidence, Loudly vaunts the deeds he will achieve.
