Behind the Scenes.

BY HAROLD DEAN.

(Copyright, 1902, by Daily Story Pub. Co.) along very nicely until the third night, stage as long as she could remembersince the first time she was taken to the theater and sat prim and proper between her parents. The lights, the music, the wonderful panorama back of the footlights, the applause, the contagious enthusiasm-all appealed as in a trance until a harsh voice from to her fervent imagination and left an the wings recalled her. indelible mark. She had sought every opportunity to go and had reveled in dreams of one day emerging from these mysterious wings and bowing before an applauding multitude.

At first she kept her ambition secret. but as she grew into young womanhood it slipped out little by little. Her mother frowned, her father laughed. and her brother teased her. But it made no difference, excepting to strengthen her desire.

And now she actually was going to invade that wondrous realm yclept the green room. Oh, bliss! Oh, joy! Of course papa and mamma and brother Ned would be furiously angry if they knew it, but they need not know until she had made her start and then they would be so proud of her that it would be all right. And then there was Tom. She trembled a little as she thought of the effect on Tom. He had given her such emphatic advice to "cut it out" at the mere mention of a stage career, and had pointed out the dangers and hardships of the life so strongly that she scarcely dared to think of what he might say or do if he knew. And Tom loved her so dearly-and she really was very fond of Tom. But one cannot sacrifice a career to girlish sentiment. If he really loved her he would be proud to see her a great actress and she could marry him anyway and he could travel with her-might even be her manager. Yes, on the whole, that would be the very thing.

She was very nervous about it all, though. She rather shuddered at the memory of that nightmare of standing in line in the dirty alley together with a score or more of bedraggled young women who had appeared in answer to an advertisement in the newspaper for "extras." The atmosphere of stale beer and cigarettes still clung to her and had cost her great extravagances in the matter of perfumes and much persistence in the matter of baths. But she had been taken, greatly to the disgust of the shoving, sneering crowd.

"There's a fresh one, better try her," the stage manager had said to his assistant. "She'll be fine in that ballroom scene. Have ye got any good ciothes?"

To be sure she had, and so the bargain was closed. It was for a week's run and she had been stumped at first as to ways and means to get away from home for seven consecutive nights until so late an hour. But ambition conquers all things, and she had arranged it with her dearest friend, who lived in a distant suburb, to spend the entire week with her. She had to tell Ethel all about it, but Ethel was to be trusted. It was a trifle risky. she admitted, but what wouldn't she risk to get on the stage. Then she had taken an apartment in an obscure hotel under an assumed name and was prepared for her debut. Of course it was not what would be deemed proper by the censors of good society, but there was nothing really wrong about it. Still she trembled a little at the thought of what Tom might say or do if he heard of it. But the theater was not one of the more prominent. but rather a cheap stock affair, and there was little chance of Tom's going there. And when she got a regular engagement she would fight it out with him. Then she would tell him he must take her with her art or leave her to pursue it alone. She was a trifle disappointed at the first impression of "behind the scenes."

She dropped her fan and nearly upset the scene.

It was all so confused and dirty and unfinished. It seemed more like an old lumber room than a fairyland. The dressing room to which she was assigned, together with two other "extras." was so little that only one could move at a time where it required the extending of an arm or elbow. The others stood against the wall. It was so squalid and dirty that Fannie insensibly drew up her skirts. One of the girls smoked cigarettes and both used slang and even profanity freely. Their conversation and stories, which were principally about the other sex, nearly nauseated her. But she reflected that this was only the beginning. night school. The men who attend it Soon she would be a real actress and bring their own candles and sit on have a room to herself.

opening night and Fannie was given a intelligence of the Porto Ricans, their word of commendation by the stage teachers say, is as remarkable as is manager for the way she carried her- their thirst after knowledge. No trualf in the ball scene. She was not a ant composite pedad down the ball scene of mercand of mercand and charged him with allning.

bit frightened and was worried only lest somebody in the audience might possible with her make-up. It ran Fannie had dreamed of going on the when as she glanced out at the audience the first face she saw was that of Tom. Yes, Tom, right there in the fourth row in the parquet. In her surprise and consternation she dropped her fan and nearly upset the scene. She stood staring at the familiar face

> "Pick up that fan, you -- lobster. Pick it up quick and come out of that trance or I'll wring your infernal neck. There ain't no ghosts out there."

It was the stage manager, and she ecovered herself instantly, picked up the fan gracefully, and went on with her business. When the scene was over she went to the dressing room all atremble. Had he seen her and what would he do and say? Well, anyway, there was no backing out now. Still she really loved Tom and she knew she would be heartbroken if he eft her. So perturbed was she that she scarcely noticed that the call boy brought a note for "Jen," the roommate who smoked cigarettes and was a "drug store blonde."

"Fannie!" "Tom!"

nice little supper after the show. Has a friend with him and wants to know if I can't bring along one of the other irls. Well, won't I? Freddie is a rum suy and always does it right. Wine and all that sort of thing. Want to 50, Mag?"

"Do I? Swell supper and wine intead of ham sandwich and beer. Well. guess."

"All right," responded "Jen:" 'they'll be around on the stage after it's over. Freddie's a friend of the press agent."

Fannie had only one more scene on. the last, and her disguise was more complete in that. She eyed Tom narrowly and decided that he had not As Shown by Its Semi-Annual Report recognized her. He was laughing and hatting with a companion-a sporty ooking character, and looked not at all perturbed.

After the last scene she gave the ther two girls the right of way in he dressing room, as they were in a jurry to keep their engagement. She neard the introductions on the outside and overheard the discussion between was still going on she completed her iressing, opened the door and walked out-and directly into Tom.

"Fannie!" "Tom!"

The exclamations were identical as to time and inflection. Which was the alking with that horrible "Mag," and and mailed vidently was the friend of "Freddie's" who was to take her to the little wine

It was a case for mutual explanaions and they withdrew to an obscure orner and had them. As a result Tom withdrew from the supper party and Fannie finally and forever gave up her istrionic ambition. Both swore to Total insurance in force ternal secrecy regarding the entire fair and fully forgave each other Which was about the best way out of t-wasn't it? .

Porto Eleans Eager for Schooling. James Preston, the artist, returned scently from Porto Rico, where he was deeply impressed by the natives' ager desire to get an education. Premiums collected first six There are about fifty American school couses in Porto Rico now-the Washinston, the Lincoln, the Penn, the Mc-Cinley, the Jefferson, the Irving, the Hamilton, and so on-and about 1,300 pupils are attending them," said Mr. Preston, "One of the principals pointly all her food, she was so poor. This was one of his best students. A boy had on a shirt so much too big for him that his whole person could have slipped easily through the opening at the neck, 'What's the trouble with your shirt, my lad?' the principal asked. The boy answered: "This ain't mine; it's father's. Mine's in the wash.' That boy would have come naked rather than have missed a lesson. In a town I visited there is a the schoolroom floor in groups of Everything went off nicely on the three, one candle to each group. The recognize her. But that would be im- FROM NYE AND BUCHANAN CO. LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MER-CHANTS, SOUTH OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

SPECIAL MARKET LETTER

Last week cows and helfers were 25c to 30e lower, but feeders were 25c higher. Three days of this week, however, see both feeders and she cattle 10c to 30c lower. Steers fat enough for killers in strong demand at $5.99 to $6.99. Corn-fed beeves are goes. The people who bathe themstrong. We quote best 1250 to 1500-1b. beeves at $7.40 to $8.25; 1050 to 1250lb., $6.40 to $7.40; 900 to 1050-lb., $5.50 to $6.40; choice corn-fed cows and heifers up to $6.00; grassers and canners, $2.00 to $4.00.

Hog receipts have been light the past week, but feeling has been weaker, prices declining 10c. Range, $7.60 to Feeder sheep are 30 to 40c and fat sheep 25 to 30c higher for past week. Demand good. We quote prices as foilows: Yearlings, $3.50 to $4.00; wethers, $3.10 to $3.75; ewes, $2.20 to $3.00, and lambs, $4.75 to $5.75. Feeding wethers, $2.65 to $3.10; ewes, $1.00 to

Committee Meeting

Lincoln, Neb., July 10, 1902.-The populist state central committee, of Nebraska, is hereby called to meet at 2 p. m., July 18, 1902, at the Lindell hotel, in Lincoln, Neb., for the purpose of forming a permanent organization and to transact such other business as may properly come before it. C. B. MANUEL, H. E. DAWES, Temp. Chairman.

Ample Reason.

The committee was ushered into the room occupied by Senator Grabball and warml- welcomed. "What can I do for you, my friends," asked the senator. "We have come to ask you why you voted against the bill providing for the popular election of senators after being convinced that your constituents desired the adoption of that measure," replied the spokesman of the "Gentlemen, I am truly glad of this opportunity to explain my position. I voted against the bill because I did not think it best. I have many measures in view calculated to benefit the people, all of which I shall endeavor to enact into law after my re-election."

"But why did you not support this one measure which the people want?" "Because, gentlemen, I fear that if "Here's a go," remarked that young I had to depend upon the people woman. "Freddie Holmes is out there would not be returned to the senate, in the audience and wants to put up a thus depriving the people of an earnest champion.

Realizing that Senator Graball doubtless knew his own record better than they, the committee thoughtfully retired.

$4,670,500 IN FORCE

$1,336,500 WRITTEN IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS-THIS IS THE MAGNIFICENT RECORD OF THE

BANKERS RESERVE LIFE

to Stockholders-All Death Losses Paid.

When a Nebraska institution makes a record, Nebraskans are naturally pleased and proud.

The Bankers' Reserve Life Association, the youngest, most aggressive and best life insurance company n 'Jen" and "Freddie" as to which res- Nebraska, is a Nebraska institution. aurant they would go to. While it It has been writing its present forms of policies only two and one-half years and in that period has proved to its loyal western patrons that here in the center of the union a great life company can be created and built up. Just look at the marvelous record for the most surprised is a matter of conjec- first six months of 1902, as shown by ture to this day. Yes, there was Tom the semi-annual report—as published

TO ITS POLICY HOLDERS. Total insurance in force,

December 31, 1901.....$3,421,500 Insurance written and revived January 1 to June 30, 1902.$1,336,500 Insurance gained January 1 to June 30, 1902.....$1,249,000

June 30, 1902.....$4,670,500 Amount of re-insured in other companies June 30, 1902..$2,372,550 Insurance written first six months of 1902, over same period in 1901.....$608.500 Premiums collected first six months, 1901.....$40,758.08 months, 1902.....$81,465.97 Gains in 1902 over 1901.....$40,707.89

These figures show that the BANKERS' RESERVE LIFE has over $5.00 in assets with which to meet every dollar of liability figured ed out to me a young girl of 17, very on the usual actuarial basis. All polpretty, who walked, he explained icy holders will receive detailed twenty miles to and from school daily, statements, all other interested will be slept on a bare floor and begged near- sent such statements by mail on appli-

B. H. ROBISON, President. Omaha, Neb.

Modern Definitions. Reciprocity—Keeping the good things for ourselves and giving the other fellows everything they don't Protective Tariff-A license to rob without fear of punishment. Strenuous-Wig-wagging with the inferior maxillary. Shackles-Part of a conjurer's out-

Charity-A good thing for the slughead writers on the daily newspapers. Justice-Something usually strenuously demanded by interests that do

RULES FOR THE BATH. Suggestions to Those Who Are Suffering

from Poor Circulation An invigorating tonic bath is prepared by soaking several slices of lemon or limes in the both water for an hour, then adding a bandful of bran. Bath bags of oatmeal and orris, or of shaved soap and almond flour, are also pleasant additions to the wath. The bath is one of the best agencies in preventing old age, so far as appearance selves properly are few in number. The great unwashed are not found among the poverty-stricken, but in every class in life. The person who talks about his "plunge" that he takes daily, is not the person who has a proper bath any more than is he who takes a "sponge." The cold plunge and the cold sponge are tonics, and good for those with whom they agree. For the morning sponge warm salt water is delightful and very invigorating. The water is easily and cheaply prepared by dissolving a cupful of rock salt in a pint of warm water, then adding it to the bath water. After the sponge rub briskly with a Turkish towel. Roughness of the skin and chapping in winter are often caused by the skin being imperfectly dried. For persons suffering from poor circulation bran baths are recommended, and as they require only a tub of warm water, a peck of bran, and a rough towel or so, surely they are within the reach of everyone. The bran costs only a few cents, and should be emptied into the warm water. The surface of the body must be well rubbed with the mixture, and after the bath one will be found to be not only beautifully cleansed, but warmed and invigorated. Oatmeal may be used instead of the bran, but of course is more expensive, although with some skins, especially delicate ones, it agrees much better. It must not be forgotten, however, that the cold plunge or the morning sponge is not enough to keep the skin in good condition. They bring the blood to the surface, but do not keep the outer layer of the skin, sweat-glands and the oil follicles healthy.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

PURIFICATION OF WATER. Nikola Tesla Believes It Can Be Done

by an Electrical Process. Nikola Tesla, who is here arranging for the manufacture of apparatus for his wireless telegraph system, has in- the floor and piling them all into the daily to all summer resorts. Stopdoubtedly he is a brilliant electrician, or when they thought Mr. du Pont capable of much useful achievement, might be around. One day the chief He is highly imaginative as all original drawer was ill and young Johnson, the investigators are of necessity, for there office boy was sent by Mr. du Pont tive mind. It does not follow that his to Fourth and Main streets to help out. Passenger Dept., Omaha, Neb. maginings are all vain, not by any Johnson read the rules and in drawing means, though it is natural that his the bag of money from the first car, LOW Round Trip Rates Via Union fancy might take unwarranted flights he bounded up the steps to the room, to Mars or other objects in remote space. Mr. Tesla is especially interested in an electrical process for purifying water, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. The project is feasible-at least from a scientific point of view-and it is to be hoped he will be able to make it practicable in both the mechanical and economical senses. If the thing can be done on a large scale as cheaply as water can be filtered it will prove a boon to all mankind. In respect to the water supply of Pittsburg, however, Mr. Tesla's idea is not of immediate import. He is engrossed in perfecting the wireless telegraph—an undertaking that will tax his resources, material and mental, for some time. Pittsburg must be content with filtration for the present. It will be glad to get rid of 98 per cent of impurities after a long experience in taking its water unrefined.

though the people will live in the hope that some day Mr. Tesla will take away the other 2 per cent of microbes and give them water pure and vivified. The Japanese Geisha Girl. Of course we are all wrong in our views of the geisha, based as they are on an English opera bearing her name and traducing her character, and it is on this point. Etymologically a geisha is an accomplished person; socially she is an entertainer who has been trained road.—Utica Globe. from the age of 7 or 8 to dance or ient of masculine homage. It depends a better heat than soft coal. upon herself how she lives, but she is times makes a brilliant match. Czar's Habits About Home, newspapers regularly, and seldom as a dumping ground for American looks at a book. While attending to surplus productions, and great alerthis official work in the morning he sips ness of mind. Americans have the one cup of tea after another, and oc- insight to scrap their machinery when casionally eats a caviare sandwich, it goes out of date, and to use every poses, and constituents? Send one The nours from 1 to 4 p. m. he gives labor saving contrivance. The trade dollar for a year's subscription to the to his family and family affairs. From 4 he works again till dinner time, at His typhoid fever has left him stronger than he was before. His face is full and round, and he has had none of the headaches and epileptic fits that used to attack him before him recent illness.-New York Post.

undoubtedly much courted and some-

About 5.000 horses are annually killed in Spain in bull fights. At these contests from 1,000 to 1,200 bulls are annually sacrificed.

HOW TOM JOHNSON STARTED ON ROAD TO FORTUNE.

His Rapid Rise in Louisville, Kr., from Office Boy to Superintendent of a Street Railway-Sketch of Cleveland's Millionnire Mayon

They tell stories in Louisville about the start which Tom Johnson, recently elected mayor of Cleveland, made there on his road to fortune. He went there at the age of 14 and secured employment as an office boy at $2 a week in a foundry. His duties consisted of keeping the office clean, running errands and picking up odd scraps that got into other people's way. B. du Pont, who was part owner of the foundry, saw the industrious office boy rush one day into the street, pick up a bit of fron and, returning throw it on the scrap heap inside. When the boy reentered the office, Mr. du Pont said to Human Nature. Having the Oppor-

"Why did you do that, my son?" "Why, sir," said Tom, a bit embarrassed, "there was no use wasting it. They can put it in the furnace and use it over again."

"Well, I just think I can use you, How would you like to come at $7 a Young Johnson accepted the $5 raise with alacrity. Mr. du Pont controlled the Fourth avenue and Walnut street lines. One barn was at Eighteenth and Walnut streets and at Fourth avenue and Main streets was the drawing station. All the cars of the system had to pass there, and it was there that the money was drawn from the big, clumsy boxes into which the fares were dropped. One of the rules of the company was that as each bag of money was drawn, the drawer must carry it into the office, put it into the safe and close the door. To this rule Johnson owed his promotion from office boy. Mr. du Pont was seldom at the drawing station during the day, and in time the drawers grew careless. No one had access to the room but the drawopened the safe, threw in the money and slammed the door.

for?" demanded the bookkeeper. "The rules say so," answered the sub-drawer over his shoulder as he ran down the steps to meet another car. The same thing was repeated a dozen times. Then the bookkeeper wheeled around and demanded:

"Don't you think I'm honest? Do you think I want to steal any of that d-d money?"

"Dunno," answered Johnson, "but the rule says, 'Put the bag in the safe and shut the door,' and that's what I'm going to do whether you like it or

The bookkeeper jumped off his stool just as Mr. du Pont stepped in. "What's all this row about?" he

"This young fool is acting as if he thought I was trying to steal your money," the bookkeeper replied. "I was just obeying the rule, Mr. du Pont," spoke up young Johnson. "Here it is," and he showed the president of the company the rule."

pleasant to have our mistakes set right I'll make you chief drawer right now." Lincoln, Nebraska. Two years later, when he was 17, Johnson was superintendent of the Notice of Intention to Refund Funding from the age of 7 or 8 to dance or sing for the amusement of guests at a dinner party. Probably her parents have leased her for a number of years to a teacher who undertakes to board and train her, to procure engagements and to chaperon her, to pay a fixed sum to her femily as and such like fuels have been forced.

Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of a resolution duly adopted by the City Council of the City of University Place, Lancaster Courty, Nebraska, on the 12th day of July, A. D. 1902, said City Council will take up and pay off the Dakotas as fuel. On the prairies of those states wood is comparatively unknown and coal is a luxury. Hay sum to her family as well as a tax and such like fuels have been forced of Seven (7) percentum per annum, and for which no sinking fund exists to meet said liato the government, in return for all of into use, being consumed with fairly which a sufficient recompense is as- good results in specially designed sured by the fees which a talented stoves. Experiments recently made, artist is able to earn. Less frequently however, will revolutionize all this. It only a percentage of her gains. Her social position is explained by the fact that inasmuch as convention has banished the actress from the Japanese stage—the celebrated Mr. Danjuro, for instance, is renowned for his enactment of female characters—the geisha takes her place as the natural recipient of masculine homage. It depends ture of straw fuel can be erected for about $15,000, which will have a capacity for making fifty tons a day. The fuel will be in the shape of round at the celebrated Mr. Danjuro, for eter and two, four and six feet in length. The material will be as hard length as wood and will last longer and make any taxpayer of said City may file objection or objections to such proposed action, with the America Through English Eyes. The real causes of America's success may be summed up in the words-a tariff, securing the home market and The Czar of Russia dees not read enabling foreign countries to be us unions do not limit output and frown on the machine tool. But with us methods, machinery and organization. which are so conservative that they are ten years behind the times, find favor. In this world of change and progress and pitiless competition it is not well to be behind the times-a fact which England is slowly discovering.-London Daily Mail.

There are 72,000,000 cubic miles of OBEYED THE RULES. A Little Fable.

> ING THE BACK: Roadside.

A Railway Merger, while meandering down the public Highway, met a Citizen sitting disconsolately by the

METHOD BY WHICH THE PUB-

LIC IS ALWAYS FOUND HOLD-

"Why so Sad?" queried the Railway Merger.

"I have been Thinking," replied the Citizen. "Ah, that proves what I have often contended, that Citizens who pay the freight have no Right to Think," exclaimed the Railway Merger. "But I was thinking of how you told us that when you were Fully Grown we would receive vast Benefits by reason of Decreased Operating Expenses, and now we behold that when you have Everything your own way you put the Screws to us and squeeze out all the Traffic will bear."

"It is true that I so Declared," replied the Railway Merger, "but you neglected to consider the element of tunity I would be Criminally Negligent to pass it by."

Moral: Private Monopolies are always short on Conscience and long on Human Nature when they Get Next.

young man, in the street car business. Special Bargain in Real Estate THIS IS A GOOD ONE 160 acres 5 miles from two good markets, U. P. Ry. and B. & M. Ry., good roads to each, & mile from school. 120 acres cultivated, balance in pasture. Land is all fenced and cross fenced. in pasture. Land is all fenced and cross fenced, good black soil, good frame house, barn with wide cattle shed, 2 granaries, 2 corn cribs, 2 hog houses with lots fenced hog tight, chicken house, tool house, cow barn, well, windmill, nice box elder grove. Price $3200,00. Write at once if you want it; it is a good one and will not be on the market long. Write to us for our general list of Farm Land, Hay Land and Ranch Properties; we have a good one.

VAN DE CAR & BRADLEY st. Paul, Nebraska, or Wolbach, Nebraska.

REDUCED RATES VIA

and return-$18.00. Tickets on sale ers, and knowing one another to be July 17 and 31, August 7 and 14. Stophonest, they formed the habit of care- over privileges allowed at Detroit and lessly throwing the bags of money on Niagara Falls. Special rates on sale safe in a heap at the end of the day overs allowed on all tickets at Detroit and Niagara Falls. Ask your nearest ticket agent to route you via the Wabash Railroad. For rates, lake trips, and all information, call at Wabash new city office, 1601 Farnam st., could be no creation without the crea- from Eighteenth and Walnut streets or address Harry E. Moores, Gen. Agt.

Pacific, From Missouri Pacific.

23 to 24, and 30 to 31, inclusive. To Denver, Colorado Springs, 9.00 and Pueblo, Colo., July 11 to 22, and Pueblo, Colo., July 14 to and 25 to 29, inclusive.

$25.00 To Salt Lake City, and Ogden, Utah, August 1 to 14, inclusive To Glenwood Springs, Colo.,

25.00 July 1 to 13, inclusive, Aug. 1 to 14, 23 to 24 and 30 to 31 inc. To Salt Lake City and Ogden, $30.00 Utah, July 1 to 13, inclusive, August 23 to 24, and 30 to 31, inclusive. To Glenwood Springs, Colo. $3 ,00 July 14 to 31, inclusive, Aug. 15 to 22 and 25 to 29, inclusive

To Salt Lake City and Ogden Utah, July 14 to 31, inclusive $32.00 August 15 to 22, and 25 to 29, Steel inclusive.

$45.00 To San Francisco, or Los Angust 2 to 10, inclusive. $45.00 To Portland, Oregon, Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., July 11 to Exclusively

21, inclusive. "All right, my boy," said Mr. du Full information cheerfully furnished on Pont, "since you obey the rules so well application to E. B. SLOSSEN, Agent,

NOTICE.

she lives at home and obtains engagements through an agent, who receives only a percentage of her gains. Her ture of straw fuel can be erected for or objections to such proposed action, with the City Clerk of the City of University Place, at his office, in said City, on or before the 3ist day of July, A. D. 1902, at 6 o'clock, p. m.

By order of the City Council, City of University Place, Nebraska.

E. G. INGRAHAM,

The Allied Party.

Do you want to know what it is, what it teaches, its platform, pur-

Southern Mercury the eldest and most widely circulated

"middle-of-the-road" advocate of reform in the nation, Edited by Milton Park chairman of the mid-road populist state executive committee of the mid-road populist national exe-Las Poller Mon

WHEREIN IS RELATED THE EASY PIANOS AND ORGANS

Best line of Pianos and Organs in the west. Product of largest factories in the world.

Every instrument fully warranted. Big Cut for Sample

Instruments In Each County. In order to introduce our fine instruments into every county in the state, we are making a big discount on first sample instruments sold in each county. Every instrument we sell helps sell other instruments in same locality.

> Write today for illustrated catalogue and special prices. EASY TERMS.

-ARTHUR BETZ-208-212 South 11th St., Lincoln, Neb.

ROY'S DRUG 104 North 10th St.

We say "Roy's" drug store-as a matter of fact it is EVERYBODY'S drug store almost. Roy only conducts it, buys and keeps to sell the goods, and meet and force competition. Our patrons do the rest. We want to remind you of seasonable goods, viz: Garden Seeds, Conditi - Powders, Lice Killers, B. B. Poison, Kalsomine, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc.

We make a specialty of all kinds of Stock and Poultry Foods, etc. Don't miss us.

Roys' 104 No 10th

Save Money Prudent people buy their drugs and patents here and save money. Here are a few prices: $1.00 Peruna65c $1.00 Pierce's Remedies......65c $1.00 Hood's Sarsaparilla......65c $1.00 Paine's Celery Compound 65c $1.00 Pinkham's Compound......65c

$1.00 Kilmer's Swamp Root......65c Castoria, Dr. Pitcher's Formula....13e To each purchaser of $1 worth of goods we give a substantial present -there is no prescription too difficult > money. Come in and get acquainted. Add 25c for boxing where goods are shi ped.

> for us to fill and we'll save you

12th and O STS., Lincoln, Neb. Your Summer Outing.

Unite health, rest, pleasure and comfort on the handsome, luxurious Steamship MANITOU

Week. Between Chicago, Frankfort, Charlevoiz Petoskey, Harbor Springs, Bay View, Mackinson Island, etc., connecting with all Steamship Lines for Eastern, Canadian and Lake Superior Points.

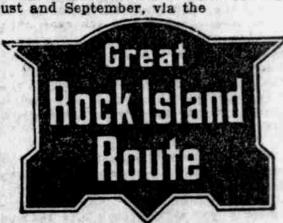

Three

Sailings

Each

Descriptive reading matter, giving particulars about the voyage, terms and reservations can be secured by asking local Ratiroad agent or addressing JOS. BEROLZHEIM, G. P. A.

Maniton Steamship Company, CHICAGO. COOL COLORADO THE PLACE TO GO. Think of a round-trip rate of only $15.00 to Denver, Colorado Springs (Manitou) and Pueblo. On certain dates in June, July, Aug-

Write for books entitled "Camping in Colorado,"
"Fishing in Colorado," and "Under the Turquoise Sky." The Camping book tells how, where and at what cost parties of two, four and six can enjoy an inexpensive vaca-tion in that delightful climate. E. W. THOMPSON, A. G. P. A., Topeka, Kas. JNO. SEBASTIAN, G. P. A.,

Chicago, Ill.

The readers of The Independent are invited to read the advertising of H. Herpolsheimer Co., which appears with considerable regularity in its columns. This firm is one of the largest Texas, and Jo A. Parker, chairman of mail order houses in the state and has one of the largest and finest stores in Lincoln. It is as safe to buy goods cutive committee. Address all orders from them by mail as over the coun-