LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FEBRUARY 17, 1911

Number 48

This Paper and Its Editor

Will Maupin's Weekly, edited by himself, is a Journal of Good Cheer, published at One Dollar the year---and worth more. Its mission is not to reform the world, but to do its small part in the work of making life happier, boosting Nebraska and saying Good Things about People who Deserve it. It loves everything except Shams and Hypocrits; hates nothing. Its flowers are for the living---the dead have no sense of smell or eyes for color. It will say its good words of men while they live; the tombstone makers can attend to the dead ones.

Will Maupin's Weekly is for People who Enjoy Life. Pessimists and Grouches will not like it until it gets into their systems. Then they will cease to be Pessimists and Grouches.

Now is the time to subscribe. A Dollar in Maupin's hand now is worth Two Dollars in the Sweet Afterwhile.
