

—what men of taste wear

our lines have been selected with a view to meeting the taste requirements of every man. The plain business suit, the more dressy suit for wear to semi-social functions, the every-day-wear suit for the semi-professional man, the durable knock-about-suit for the man who must get up against work that rubs and wears and soils, the "Sunday-go-to-meeting" suit that is kept for special occasions, the dress suit, the Tuxedo. In short, we have everything necessary to properly outfit any man whose taste may be a bit out of the ordinary.

—the price requirements right

as we have selected lines to suit your taste in dress, so we have selected lines with a view to meeting your purse limitations. At the price you feel you can pay we can supply you with a suit that will give you a bit more than the full value of the money you pay. And as we have never had better lines to select from, so we say with equal emphasis that we have never had an opportunity to offer you better price values. This is indeed a "bargain year" in the best lines of ready-to-wear clothing.

—from ten dollars to forty dollars

within these price ranges you may select anything to suit your taste, knowing that you are getting a bit more than full value for your money. This season's styles are a marked advance over former seasons, permitting the average man of average purse limitations to outfit himself in a manner that would have been the envy of the millionaire of a decade ago. By the way, can you name anything that has made more marked advance along legitimate lines than the ready-to-wear business? So wonderful is this advance that today the average man may outfit himself, at a reasonable outlay, in garments that excel in fit, style, color and fabric, the output of the artistic tailors of a year or two ago. No matter what your weight, or your size, we can fit you equally well with the custom tailor, and at prices that afford you a handsome saving.
