

EIGHT HOURS FOR WOMEN.

California Legislature Enacts Shorter Workday for Women.

The legislature of California has just passed a stringent eight hour workday law for women and Governor Johnson has signed it. The provisions of the new statute cover all occupations, save the exception that the law shall not affect the harvesting, curing, canning or drying of any variety of perishable fruit or vegetable. The penalty attached for violation cannot be less than $50 for each offense, and may reach $200, with a jail sentence of from five to thirty days, the latter discretionary with trial court.

Another bill was approved which provides for the manufacture of supplies by prison labor to be used exclusively by the institution conducted by the state. Safeguards are provided that convict labor will not come into competition

LABOR'S BEST WEAPON.

Much of the success of the union movement in this and future years will depend upon the use the labor men make of their purchasing power. To employ union labor by purchasing union label goods is the most effective weapon of organized labor. It can change the commerce and manufactures of the land. Start right in this respect and keep up the good work and the future is ours.

There's the Rub.

"Well," said the optimistic boarder, "there's one thing about our boarding house—you can eat as much as you like there."

"Of course; same as ours," replied the pessimistic one. "You can eat as much as you like, but there's never anything you could possibly like."—Catholic Standard and Times.

She Should Be Tied.

"He's a dangerous man for the community."

"Does he steal?"

"No, indeed."

"Does he intox?"

"No, but he goes round among the married women telling how much he helps his wife out with the housework."—Boston Herald.

The Inevitable.

"You don't resent that successful candidate's proud and haughty manner?"

"Nope," rejoined Farmer Cornstossel. "The fact that he's in politics is all the guarantee I want that sooner or later he'll meet with some kind of a terrible finish."—Washington Star.

THE UNIONIST'S DUTY.

Mr. Union Man, what are you doing with your portion of the $1,500,000,000 received each year by the members of labor unions as wages and expended for the necessities of life?

The purchase of union label goods by each member of all unions would work a commercial revolution. John Mitchell says that if each member of organized labor would do his duty in this respect there would not be an unfair article on the market. Use your purchasing power.

The "Bradford" Brand

The label of "Bradford" on clothing bears the same relation to clothing that the "hall mark" of Britain does to ware made of precious metals. It is an absolute guarantee of the best there is in the clothing line. It is with especial pride that we announce to the buying public that we have secured the selling agency in this territory for this remarkably fine brand of clothing. Nothing better is made for men's wear, and the prices are such as to appeal to economical buyers who desire to practice economy while securing the best in style, fit, durability and fabric.
