ONE DOLLAR THE YEAR

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE.

I am a candidate for republican nomination for district judge at the coming primaries.
Your support will be appreciated.

GEORGE A. ADAMS.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

I am a candidate for county judge at the coming primaries as a republican. I pledge my best services to the public if nominated and elected. Your support solicited, and will be appreciated.

GEORGE H. RISSER.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

I am a candidate for the nomination for county judge as a republican, subject to the action of the forthcoming primary. If nominated and elected, I pledge my best services to the public. I solicit your consideration fo my candidacy.

JOHN S. BISHOP.

GUS HYERS

I am a candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff. I solicit your support.

GUS HYERS

FOR SHERIFF.

F. William Osthoff, the only German-American candidate for the nomination for sheriff, subject to the Republican primaries, respectfully solicits your support.
If nominated and elected he pledges to the public his best services.

FOR POLICE JUDGE.

I am a candidate for the nomination for police judge, subject to the Republican primaries. Your support is respectfully solicited, and if successful in my candidateship I pledge to the people my best services.

BRUCE FULLERTON.

SHORT ARM JABS.

The circuses are bigger than they were forty years ago, but they are not half so good.

John Mitchell at the Auditorium July 27 should address an audience filling that structure to capacity.

Speaking of Canadian reciprocity—when we raise enough potatoes to export the tariff doesn't benefit the producer a

For a town so newly wet Lincoln is awfully short on water.

Chief of Police Donahue of Omaha is probably muttering to himself.

Beverly is now the capital of the United States. Oyster Bay is a spoiled mollusk.

Lincoln has so few open street cars that we are not much bothered by the end-seat hog.

Don't it beat Hades what a wonderful interest the tariff protected trusts are taking in the welfare of the western farmer?

Word comes that a New York concern is to build a skyscraper 10 stories high.
We opine that about seventy of the stories will be plain lies.

penny. When we have a shortage of potatoes the tariff is a tax on consumption.
A tariff on foodstuffs is a crime. A tax on consumption is folly.

Every time we hear of an "Honest John" or an "Honest Bill" running for office we holler for help and look around for a policeman.

Trust Secretary Mellor of the state fair board always has something new to entertain the state fair visitors. Last year it was the airship. This year it will be a naval exhibit. By next year he will have something else.

Merely with a view to suggesting something that will expedite the business of the city council, we submit the wisdom of allowing Mr. Pratt to be "it" at one meeting and allowing Dr. Leonhardt to be "it" at the next, alternating thus throughout the year.

Wherever you see things doing, there you will find one or more Nebraskans.
That's an immortal cinch. The head of the "new thought" propaganda is James Arthur Edgerton. We are not wholly wise to this "new thought" business, but it sounds good. And James Arthur Edgerton, poet, dreamer, philosopher and journalist, is a Nebraska product to the manor born. By the way, another Nebraskan, Alfred Tomson of Omaha, is assistant secretary of the "new thought-ers." As before remarked, we are not wise to this "new thought" business, but with a couple of Nebraskans so promi-nently connected with it, it must be all to the good.

F'r ev'ry scarlet woman dere is a man dat's lackin' a whole lot o' bein' white.

De guys dat t'ink de season's style o' dresses shows off de forms uv de wim-men sirtinly ain't never seen deir sis-ters's fixin's layin' around after she's gone t' bed.
