As He Understood It.
A Chinese boy, who was learning English, came across the passage in his Testament, "We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced," rendered it thus: "We have toot, toot to you, what the matter you no jump."

Avoid All Evasion.
Evasions are employed either to avoid speaking the truth or performing a good action. Hence, a lover of the real and true, as well as the tender-hearted and benevolent, hold them in direct and unspeakable abhorrence.

Uncle Eben.
"De man who is allus talkin' about ingratitude," said Uncle Eben, "is ginerly one o' dem folks dat can't lend a helpin' hand wifout lookin' foh interest."

Fate of Majority.
One million patents have been issued in this country, most of which have served no other purpose than to put the inventors' money in circulation.—Chicago Tribune.

Something All Have Noticed.
The only people with whom it is a joy to sit silent, are the people with whom it is at a joy to talk.

Knows Not Wisdom.
A man who does not know how to learn from his mistakes turns the best schoolmaster out of his life.—Beecher.

Unwise Extremities.
Avoid such extremes as a hot head and cold feet.—Brains.

JUDGE P. JAMES COSGRAVE.
Judge Cosgrave, after serving a bit more than two terms as county judge, is asking promotion to the district bench. Will Maupin's Weekly moves to make it unanimous, and it is going help make it so. Judge Cosgrave has made good as county judge, and he will make good as district judge, because he has the ability, the energy and the desire. He is asking election to the district bench on his record as county judge, and that record is an open book which all voters are invited to read.

Utica's Labor Temple.
A big labor demonstration at Utica on July 4 included the laying of the cornerstone of a labor temple, the only one in New York state owned by organized labor, and a parade of 5,000 union men, including many from out of town. State Senator Ferris and D. M. Harris of New York, president of the State Federation of Labor, and State Commissioner of Labor John Williams were among the speakers. The cornerstone was laid by Patrick Murray of Albany, treasurer of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' International union.

United Kingdom Labor Disputes.
The number of labor disputes in the United Kingdom in 1910 was 506 (not including twenty-six carried over from 1909), involving 508,538 working people. The controversies were largely in the coal, cotton and shipping industries. A more friendly feeling was shown during last year on the part of trades union organizations toward the labor exchanges. The percentage of unemployed among 700,000 members of trade unions at the end of each month in 1910 was 4.7 compared with 7.7 in 1909.

Wages of Farm Laborers.
Higher wages were paid to American farm laborers during 1910 than at any time in the last forty-five years, according to the latest government statistics, which give $27.50 as the average monthly wage of farm laborers.

GUS HYERS.
When Gus Hyers first announced his candidacy for the nomination for sheriff he made the mistake of having his name printed on his cards as "Augustus A. Hyers"—and nobody knew who he was. It took Gus about a day to get wise, and then he threw those cards in the fire and had another batch printed, this time bearing the name "Gus A. Hyers." And lo! everybody knew who he was. And that everybody thought well of Gus is evidenced by the fact that he was nominated by an overwhelming vote in a field of unusually well qualified candidates. It is going to be a pleasure for us to vote for Gus Hyers, although we would have hesitated about voting for Augustus A. Hyers. But Gus isn't to be blamed because his fond parents handicapped him with that cognomen. As soon as he could do so he removed the handicap. He is going to be elected sheriff if the voters are wise, and after he is elected he is going to make an all-fired good public official. He's chock full of energy, always determined to do the right thing by everybody, able to handle any job he undertakes, and one of those self-made young men who has no reason at all to be ashamed of the job he has made. We confidently expect to see Gus elected by a majority of more than 3,000—and that's some republican majority, even for old Lancaster.

LOOKS GOOD TO HUGH.
Hugh J. Nichols, lieutenant governor of Ohio, was in Lincoln the first of the week, having been sent out by the Harmon boosters to "spy out the land." While in Lincoln he was the guest of Col. John C. Maher, and if things didn't look bright for Harmon it was the colonel's fault. Lieutenant Governor Nichols wasn't elected to that office. He was made lieutenant governor after Atlee Pomerene was promoted from that office to the United States senate. We are glad that the situation looks good to Hugh. We hate to have any of our noted visitors meet up with disappointment when they come to Nebraska. We'll promise any of 'em any old thing they want while they are with us—then we'll do as we jolly well please when the time comes.

A STERLING CANDIDATE.
Judge Albert J. Cornish is a candidate for re-election to the office of judge of the district court. We're for him because he has amply made good in that important office. No district judge in the state has a better or cleaner record. There is no squarer man sitting on the bench anywhere in America. Learned in the law, of a judicial temperament, and in sympathy with the people, Judge Cornish is an ideal man for the position. His re-election is assured, but it would be a deserved compliment if his election were made unanimous.

GEORGE H. RISSER.

George H. Risser, republican candidate for county judge, has earned a promotion to the county judgeship. As police magistrate of Lincoln for two terms he has demonstrated his fitness for judicial office. As a citizen he has demonstrated his reliability and his unswerving honesty. The office of county judge is one of vast importance, as it is charged with probate duties and handles thousands of dollars every year belonging to widows and orphans. The man who occupies that office is charged with grave responsibility. George H. Risser is competent to meet every test imposed upon him. It has been the custom to promote the police judge to the county bench, and there are more than the usual number of reasons why this precedent should remain unbroken this time, for Judge Risser is capable of adding unusual dignity and force to the county judgeship. The voters of Lancaster county will be honoring themselves by honoring George H. Risser with election to the county bench.

THE SAVING HABIT

That's all saving is—a habit. A habit easily cultivated, too. And we make it easier for you to cultivate by making it easier for you to save. We double the incentive for saving.

The dollars you save are idle dollars unless they are put to work. Idle dollars amount to little—it is the working dollar that counts. Save a bit of your salary each week and deposit with us. We'll put the dollars to work and they'll make you 4 per cent.

Come in and let us explain our system—a successful system for more than a dozen years.
