SENATOR STEPHENSON, WHO DEFIES AGE

Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, the oldest member of either branch of congress, is standing the scorching hot weather of the national capital better than any of his colleagues. In Wisconsin Mr. Stephenson is known as "Uncle Ike," but among his senate associates he is familiarly hailed as "Dr. Ike."

Although Mr. Stephenson makes no pretensions to a knowledge of medicine as laid down in the books, and frequently admits that he is not abreast of the modern medical science, he has had a practical experience which he thinks fits him to give advice to the ailing. As far back as the early fifties, Mr. Stephenson was healing the sick. He was then in charge of various lumber camps in the Lake Superior region of northern Wisconsin.

"For fifteen years," said Mr. Stephenson, "we were without a doctor, lawyer, or preacher. We did not need a doctor, for I looked after the sick, and as for a lawyer we got along pretty well, because we fought out with our fists the troubles that arose among us. We had some pretty rough and hard men in the camps, and maybe we did suffer for want of a preacher. In the logging season we had hundreds of men, and my principal job was to keep our crews in good shape. The saw and the axe make trouble in the woods, not only for trees, but for men, and I have been called on to bind and sew hundreds of wounds."

Mr. Stephenson says that a long life and a simple life go hand in hand. "As a young man, I traveled across the snow twenty odd miles a day," he said. "I swung a five-pound axe from dawn till dark. I slept in a blanket in the snow, ate crackers and pork and drank snow water, and was as healthy as a bear."

CASTRO MAY DESCEND UPON VENEZUELA

Information received in this country by adherents of Cipriano Castro, deposed president of Venezuela, not only indicate that he is in the Canary Islands, but that he is completing arrangements for another descent upon Venezuela. That this project may prove successful this time, because of the open hostility to President Gomez, now dangerously approaching revolution, is considered to be almost certain by Venezuelans who have made New York city their headquarters for several months.

It was not generally known that Castro had left Germany, where, five weeks ago, he submitted to an operation. He spent several days in Berlin while recuperating and then disappeared.

Despite the efforts of agents of President Gomez to locate the irrepresible agitator, his whereabouts were not discovered until a few days ago, when his supporters in New York, all of whom have been exiled by President Gomez, received letters from the erstwhile president revealing his purpose to return to South America incognito at the earliest opportunity.

According to Antonio Jose Sanchez, for many years the private secretary of Castro, and who lives in New York, Gen. A. Pimentel, who was minister of finance under President Gomez, is en route to that city to join the Venezuelan junta now operating there, not so much in the interest of Castro, but to overthrow President Gomez, who, it is now declared, has developed into a far more dangerous dictator than Castro was accused of being.

POPE PIUS X NINE YEARS A RULER

Shattering the widely accepted belief, in which he himself shared, that he would not live to celebrate nine anniversaries of his elevation to the Vatican throne, Pope Pius X completed the other day the ninth year of his pontificate.

The odd superstition that he would die before was based on the manner in which his holiness' entire life has been divided into nine-year periods. A plain Giuseppe Sarto he was ordained a priest in 1853 and served as a curate for nine years. Then followed his promotion to the post of parish priest, at Salzano, where he remained for nine years more. Next came nine years as chancellor of his diocese, nine as Bishop of Tarsus and nine as cardinal and patriarch of Venice.

So firmly was he convinced that this division of his life would continue to the end that he frequently expressed to friends the certainty he felt that nine years would terminate his pontificate, a termination possible only with his death.

The pope was deluged with telegrams congratulating him on having survived the supposedly fatal period. In honor of his anniversary he also received a large number of cardinals, Vatican officials and personal friends.

YOSHIHITO, NEW JAPANESE EMPEROR

The new emperor of Japan, the Mikado Yoshihito, faces a gigantic task as he steps into the place made vacant by his remarkable father, the Emperor Mutsuhito, who died recently after a prolonged illness.

Yoshihito is the third son of the deceased ruler and was proclaimed crown prince in 1888. He is a man of strong character and enviable attainments in war and statecraft. He is an officer in the army and in the navy and has seen severe service in both branches. He was married in 1900 and has three children. With all the advantages of a modern education and in full accord with the advanced ideas of the late emperor, he should prove a worthy successor to his father, who, though an oriental, was one of the truly great men of the age. He is the one hundred and twenty-second ruler of Japan in his line, which, according to Japanese legend, is descended from the gods.

The belief in the divine right of kings, which so long was used as an excuse for the tyranny of the rulers of Europe, is still prevalent in Japan. There the person of the mikado is held sacred.
