POST OFFICE AT LINCOLN, NEB., JUNE 18, 1890.
I hereby certify that the Alliance, a weekly newspaper published at this place, has been determined by the Third Assistant Post Master General to be a publication entitled to admission in the mail at the point rate of postage, and entry of it as such is accordingly made upon the basis of this ruling, while the character of the publication remains unchanged. THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Comments of Men and Papers on the Special Session.

The special to the Bee of Saturday evening says:

"For the past two weeks Governor Thayer has been besieged by certain politicians who with the railroad people are most prominent among whom was Charles Howe, to convene the legislature in special session for the purpose of passing railroad regulation bills and some other legislation which is just now being agitated and called for by anti-monopolists. Incidentally, and way down deep, it is suspected that Charles Howe has a scheme on hand to divide the congressional districts this fall so as to cut off Douglas county and leave him a chance of making the run. This of course has been kept in the background, but knowing politicians here predict that it will be sprung through a supplementary message."

Gov. Thayer, in an interview, says: "I expect a due deference to the voice of the people this time. The Australian system seems to meet the approbation of the anti-monopoly republicans, the Alliance men, the horny handed members of the Knights of Labor and everybody else, who has seriously considered the matter. If it is a good thing, why not adopt it at once and enjoy its beneficial results in the coming election."

Good for the governor.
G. M. Lamberton says:
"I am surprised at the action of Governor Thayer in calling a session of the legislature, and hardly see the necessity for it. I am inclined to think that the result will prove unsatisfactory. The consideration of a maximum freight bill and the abolition of the board of transportation are questions of great moment to the state, but I doubt the advisability of both measures and such action should only be taken after the most careful deliberation."

I fear that when the session is over the discontent will be as wide as ever. The legislature, in my opinion, should not urge upon congress the free and unlimited coinage of silver until silver is brought nearer a par with gold."

That last remark is profoundly wise. It reminds us of the anxious mother who told her darling never to go near the water until he knew how to swim. Judge Cobb would give no opinion as to its policy, but was greatly surprised at the call.

A. E. Hargraves said:
"It is purely political buncombe on the part of the state house officials. There is nothing to be gained by calling the legislature together, and nothing will be accomplished beyond making just so much additional expense for the people. Maximum freight rate laws are a farce as any prudent business man knows. The less freight rates are monkeyed with by the legislature the better it will be for the state and the people."

Senator I. M. Raymond said:
"I think the governor has made a mistake in calling a special session of the legislature at this time. It is a waste of money and until the regular session convenes, and there is no business of such urgent importance as to make necessary a special session or nothing in the call that might not properly come before the session of 1891. Moreover it is a great injustice to the people to make them this extra and uncalled for expense."

He was opposed to a maximum freight law, but favored the Australian ballot system.

Judge O. P. Mason strenuously opposes a maximum freight law, quoting law, precedent and doggerel against it. He also threatens a dire calamity on the people of this state if things do not change for the better soon, viz: he will run for governor himself.

R. H. Oakley was "utterly astounded at the governor's action."

"Fixed rates" will be as disastrous to the local interests of Lincoln as well as to the local interests of every other point in the state. Every city having local industries will be almost ruined."

With a lot more of slush of the same sort. Fidelit.

"So far as I can learn there is little or no complaint or agitation on the part of the farmers and consumers. The politicians are availing themselves of a certain prejudice they feel exists against certain corporations to raise a cry of unjust rates and discrimination as to take advantage of this prejudice."

The Railroad Journal says, (and this is the unkindest cut of all):

"The sentiment of a majority seems to be that the session will be a useless, expensive and troublesome piece of business for the state."

The Sunday Morning Call, in a column of double-leads, discusses the subject ably in its various bearings, its general idea being that the extra session was needless at this late day.

The Omaha World-Herald heartily commends the special session. Young Mr. Hitchcock thinks the governor took his cue from his editorials, and of course deems him wise and sagacious.

The Republican says:
"It is doubtful if the calling of this session will serve the purposes for which the governor has intended it. The time will be too short and the views of the members so unsettled that it is quite improbable that a satisfactory bill can be agreed upon."

The Bee of Monday says editorially:
"The people of Nebraska will naturally ask, has an emergency arisen that would justify the governor in exercising this prerogative?"

The only answer the Governor Thayer would make is that in his judgment the emergency is imperative. How or by what method of reasoning Governor Thayer has reached this conclusion the Bee is at a loss to divine. With the exception of a paper that has pandered to the sensational and played the political clown to attract attention, a paper that moreover is inimical to Governor Thayer personally and politically, nobody that claims to speak for any considerable number of citizens has ventured to advocate an extra session of the legislature."

We fear that the governor has made a very serious mistake. We doubt very much whether the legislature will be able to formulate a carefully matured maximum rate bill at a special session that must necessarily be limited. We doubt whether the benefit which the producers may derive from the passage of such a bill at this time of the year will offset the expense which the session will involve. It may be safely predicted that the railroads will exert all their ingenuity and influence to make the maximum rate law obnoxious within the next few months, so as to bring pressure upon the next legislature for its repeal."

"Do figs grow from thistles?" This is what the Bee asked when the extra session was first suggested, or rather demanded, by the blustering scoundrel, for which Church Howe has been acting as guide, philosopher, friend and prompter. And the Bee again repeats, "Do figs grow from thistles?" What may we expect from a legislature galvanized into life by a proclamation to do now what it neglected to do during the regular session?"

"Blowing soap-bubbles is good. It means the Omaha World-Herald. Does Church Howe run that, too? He is about as multifarious a man as we know."

Brother Beecher of New York Greets the People's Independent Movement.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 21, 1890.
EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE—I send greeting to the People's Independent Party, child of the people's necessities, born on the free prairies, nursed by lovers of liberty, cared for by men who dare. Its coming cheers the despairing, strengthens the weak, and gives hope to the weary reformers. It casts the shadow of defeat over the tents of monopoly, and rouses the venom of the "Money Changers."

The double track road to perdition, traveled by the demagogue republicans, ballasted with broken pledges, and managed by demagogues and millionaires, is strewn with wrecked homes, deserted hearth-stones, bankruptcies, and suicide's graves. The people of one young sister state, Nebraska, have set the stakes for a New People's Line, whose terminus is the White House. Balasted by just principles, and managed by true representatives of those who have heretofore mistakenly made millionaires the inevitable outgrowth of sham democracy and bogus republicanism; but to all are henceforth determined to secure to every worthy citizen equal opportunity for equal intelligence, ability, industry and economy.

In conclusion I would warn the members of the new party against the danger of fusion. Instantly brand every one who whispers fusion to himself, in his dreams at night, as a fool by birth-right and force of habit, as a paid emissary of one of those twin tools of monopoly old sectional parties.

Give us your hand! Brothers of the Pioneer Reform State, and sponsors of THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT PARTY.

GEORGE C. BEECHER.

Alliance Shipments of Live Stock.

Instructions from the Stock Agent.

EDITOR ALLIANCE—The American Live Stock Commission Company is a co-operative association, whereby the owner and shipper sell their own stock as nearly as possible under the present condition of things pertaining to the sale of live stock. The change to this company was made for two reasons: 1st to get better terms; 2d to aggregate and control the largest amount of stock for sale while in the hands of the owner and shipper.

When the owners of one-third or one-half of the stock will consign the whole to the buyers will no longer be able to dictate the price, but the seller will have a word to say. All Alliance men should ship to one company if possible. Where several owners desire to make up a car load, when they can weigh the stock at home and divide the proceeds according to home weight, do so. When not convenient to weigh at home they will be weighed in lots here. Bill to Allen Root, care of A. S. C. Co. When once billed to this Co. the same returns will be made to the shipper whether sold in South Omaha or Chicago.

ALLEN ROOT, Live Stock Agent.

Good Words from Cuming County.

WINNER, NEB., May 17, 1890.

EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE—I will drop you a few lines to say that Alliance No. 914 is getting stronger all the time. We have from two to five to initiate every meeting, and the members are getting their eyes opened, and taking a lively interest in the work. The German Alliance, assisted by the constitution and ritual in German, and organize a German Alliance. We received the Declaration of Principles and Popular call for a People's Independent state convention, and while some of the members favor it, it is some doubt. But all are willing to vote and work for the interest of the farmers and the order of the Alliance. Long may it live and always be found at the front.

I like our paper THE ALLIANCE very much and think every good farmer should read it and support it and help the good cause along. The World-Herald calls our Editor Mr. B. a crank. I would say I wish there was a few hundred more just such cranks in Nebraska as Mr. B. Yours respectfully, GEO. E. TIMBLIN.

The writer of the above sends us Frank Morrissey's letter to the World-Herald, and says a coat of tar and feathers is too good for the writer of it, in which he is eminently correct.

McCord, Brady & Co., Wholesale Grocers, Refuse to Sell to Alliance Stores.

OMAHA, NEB., May 10, 1890.
E. M. PEARSON, LEBANON, NEBRASKA.

DEAR SIR:—Enclosed please find our check for $15, the amount received from you with order. We have refused to sell goods to Farmers' Alliances on account of its conflicting with the merchants we sell. We are sorry we have to take this stand, but we are compelled to do so to protect ourselves.

Yours Respectfully, McCORD, BRADY & CO.

Resolutions of Lebanon Alliance No. 822.

Whereas, McCord, Brady & Co., Wholesale grocers of Omaha, Neb., have refused to sell goods to the Lebanon Alliance Business Association, therefore be it,

Resolved, That we boycott said firm by not buying goods from said house, nor from any retail merchant who patronizes the aforesaid firm.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE, and the Red Willow County Times for publication.

E. M. PEARSON, Pres. E. M. REMINGTON, Sec'y.

THE DECLARATION AND OTHER MATTERS.

Spirit of the State Press.

Shadron Advocate.

A call for a People's Independent State Convention has been sent out from the Alliance headquarters in Lincoln, and will be circulated for signatures in every county in the state. It asks the state secretary of the Farmers' Alliance and the state secretary of the Knights of Labor to select two men who shall fix a ratio of representation and issue the call for said convention. This will no doubt be a disappointment to a good many industrious fellows who have been running the Alliance movement—from the outside.

House Journal.
"Attorney General Leese has made the same mistake many other men in the republican party have. He thinks that he can reform the republican party and make it a party of the people. When the next republican state convention meets Mr. Leese will notice his political death. Like Judge Reese he will discontinue John M. Thurston and a few other railroad hirelings are the republican party of Nebraska. The idea of reforming a party that is under such leadership is extremely ridiculous to say the least."

Blaine Co. News.
The Alliance has already done a great thing. It has stimulated a number of farmers and laborers to inquire into the financial depression and frame bills that will at least partly relieve them. It also acts as a standing menace to politicians whose desire for office is not to serve the people but their own pockets.

Township Republican.
The official organ of the Nebraska Farmers' Alliance says editorially in so many words, that a people's state convention will be held. Now watch the action of the old time party leaders, and note the awful silliness of the straight (railroad) republican organs.

Home Rule.
From now until the first Tuesday in November the Alliance will be "coaxed and petted" by all the ringsters far and near. Gentlemen farmers, for once let them know that you are capable of doing your own thinking and voting. In short tell them to be "gitting."

Scine Co. Democrat.
The widely advertised conference of so-called anti-monopoly republicans held at Leeward, Neb., has served the purpose of creating very severely the "dominant party." Leading republican organs ridicule the little band of one hundred or less who signed the convention pledge and helped to give birth to the rottenness of the grand old party. They are given the horse laugh and hoodooed, but at the same time the fact of that convention is a startling reality and menace to the republican party of this state, and that fact is illy concealed by the levity of certain party papers. It at least indicates a strong element of discord in the party and the utter hopelessness with which some members view the prospect of reform along the party lines. It was a virtuous admission that the republican party of Nebraska is controlled by corporations.

Souix City Journal.

The republicans of Nebraska have a considerable job before them if they succeed in uniting the party in the election in that state this year. The farmers of Nebraska are tired of corporate dictation. If the old parties cannot divorce themselves from railroad control, the farmers will divorce themselves from the parties. They demand railroad legislation in that state as radical and effective as the legislation that has been provided in this state; and they want officers of the state as loyal to the interests of the people as the guard as Gov. Larrabee proved himself to be, and as a majority of the Iowa board of railroad commissioners are.

Lincoln Herald.
That mortgages are a sign of prosperity is proven by the Falls City News, which has fifteen advertisements for notices of foreclosure of mortgage. The prosperity is the editor's, however, and doesn't pertain to the men who gave the mortgages. In fact the editor is so prosperous that he gets out a supplement every week. The spring crop of sheriff sales is the biggest ever known in the state.

The Farmers' Voice, of Chicago, publishes the declaration, gives its promoters good words, and wishes the movement God-speed.

The Phelps county Herald publishes the declaration, and endorses it in a vigorous editorial. It says:
"The independent movement is not inaugurated to redress imaginary wrongs, nor to cure imaginary ills, but to fight real evils, which have been their origin and derived their main support from corrupt politicians. The people have asked relief through party agencies, but a deaf ear has been turned to all their entreaties. It is now time for them to take the matter in their own hands, shed their dependence, and show the politicians to seats by the door."

The Alliance Motor, of Broken Bow, endorses the movement, and says:
"Let every man into whose hands these petitions fall do his duty. One of the most momentous struggles in the history of the political affairs of any state is before us. Lines of league and misunderstanding are obliterated, and we are agreed upon the course."

The story of Custer county's struggle will be told again and again while the work of redeeming the state is going on, and when the grand object is consummated, the story of Nebraska's redemption will be retold to nerve the patriotic forces who will retake the Union, and restore the government to the people for whom it was originally instituted."

The Kearney Enterprise says:
"The Alliance is a colossal fact in the politics of Nebraska at this time. It stands as a protest against the recent record of the republican party, and as a menace to its future. It is profoundly determined to attain this year the reforms at which it aims, those at least that can be compassed by state legislation and administration. It has the power to attain them, and will do so through the republican party, or over its prostrate body."

Omaha Republican.
Church Howe enjoys the distinction of being about the only republican in the state who unqualifiedly endorses Gov. Thayer's special session, and even Church himself is loth to commend it publicly. But in private he upholds it lustily. It is natural for one to like one's own children.

Marbles for Balloting.

There have been many inquiries for the above, and I am now prepared to furnish these to Alliances, 30 white and 10 black sent to any address, post-paid.

J. M. THOMPSON, State Sec'y.

Resolutions of Garfield Alliance No. 789.

Whereas, Under the present laws of the state the cities get the exclusive benefit of the liquor license tax, let them pay for the prosecution of criminals committed by intoxicated persons in murder cases in the district courts; therefore,

Resolved, That we favor a law compelling each incorporated city which sells intoxicating liquors under the license law to pay for the prosecution of all persons charged with crime who are in the least intoxicated at the time of committing the crime.

That if cities are not willing to pay for the prosecution of intoxicated murder cases, we favor the equalization and apportionment of the liquor license, and the school funds derived from fines for crimes in cities to each school district in the county, by the county superintendent of each county, in the same manner and in the same proportion as the state apportionment is by the state superintendent.

That we believe transportation rates charged in this state are such as to favor a reduction to correspond with rates charged in Iowa.

Resolved, That we will support no man who in our judgment does not favor a radical reduction in transportation rates, and in the expenditure of the public money of the county and state.

That we favor the Australian system of voting.

That we demand that the legal rate of interest be made 6 per cent per annum, and not to exceed 8 per cent on contract, with a foreclosure penalty forfeiture both interest and principal for violation of the law.

That we favor a redemption law giving 5 years to redeem all lands sold under foreclosure of farm mortgages.

That we favor a division of the R. R. school tax to each school district in each county having a R. R. or R. R. lands in the county.

That we favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the volume of currency to the amount double the present circulation, and that the government loan money to the farmers at the same rate of interest on land security as to the national banks.

That in our belief the farmers of this state who are in the majority will never be fairly represented in our government until state officers are filled by men selected from among the farmers themselves. Each industry must look out for itself. We cannot expect the banker, the lawyer, or the merchant to look out for our welfare. Agriculture ranks first in all industries, let her rank first in the halls of legislation.

That we favor the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

That we favor ownership of the R. R. by the government, that they may be run at cost for the benefit of the people.

J. M. ALEXANDER, Pres. W. J. CAMPBELL, Sec'y.

Resolutions of Hackberry Alliance No. 1379.

Resolved, That we view with alarm the rapid increase of farm mortgages by which our homes will soon become the property of greedy landlords. And in order to check the coming of that horrible system which for ages has filled Europe with misery and has transformed the greater part of the population to mere slaves of habit, we demand that five years from date, persons or corporations of any kind shall not be allowed to own, control or occupy any greater tract of arable land than 320 acres, and that all land held in excess thereof shall be sold to the homestead.

That congress shall create legal tender money to the amount of $50 per capita, and keep the same in circulation as far as possible by loaning it direct to the people on land security, and to such co-operative manufacturing as may be erected from time to time—the interest on such loans not to exceed 2 per cent per annum.

That railroad and telegraph lines shall be owned and controlled by the government, and that the money for such purchases shall be raised by a direct tax levied equally upon all the wealth of the nation, and that no more interest bearing bonds shall be issued upon any condition whatsoever.

That we demand the adoption of the Australian ballot system.

That we demand a law making all conspiracies for the controlling of the prices of products by a gambling operation and trusts a criminal offense.

That we request the county officers to fully investigate the records of real estate and chattel mortgages in Polk county, and publish the result together with the assessed values of the county.

HENRY STAMM, Pres. MISS CLARA COLEMAN, Sec. OLE BREDESON, JAS. COLEMAN, MAT STIRUP, J. BRADY, SIMON MILLER, JOHN CRAIG, Committee.

From Pleasant View Alliance No. 1086.

We are with you. Brothers of Benedict Alliance No. 516, greeting.

We, the undersigned being members of Pleasant View Alliance No. 1086, do heartily endorse your move toward the lowering of freight rates. We have also sent a copy of your letter to the state board of transportation.

Let the other fifteen or sixteen hundred Alliances follow the example at their next meeting, and those members of the board who have been faithful to us will feel greatly encouraged and the others will begin to count our votes.

We desire only our rights, but as we have stated, those we are going to have. We are tired of carrying watered stock with heavy dividends.

We do not intend another year to give two bushel of corn to the railroads to take one bushel to the market. We have stated, those we are going to have. We are tired of carrying watered stock with heavy dividends.

Let that crop of legislators that is to be harvested next fall be horny handed, sun-burned, browed, with solid farm sense; then we will get what we want. Brother Alliances step to the front and show your grit.

Very respectfully yours, ADAM ARMSTRONG, Pres. E. H. CANNON, Sec'y.

Farmer's Alliance Picnic.

An Alliance picnic will be held at G. Taylor's grove, in Saunders County, 6 miles north east of Valparaiso, on Saturday, June 7th, 1890. Speakers from all over will be present, and a good good time is expected. Everybody come. By order of committee.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and sister, Mrs. L. M. Monroe, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who are nearest and dearest to her, therefore be it,

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting her removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant for mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimony of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the County paper and the THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE for publication, and to the husband of the departed friend, by the Secretary of Lebanon Alliance No. 822.

E. M. REMINGTON, Sec. Pres.

Resolutions of Hamilton Co. Alliance.

AURORA, NEB., May 20, 1890.
Whereas, Breckenridge & Breckenridge, lawyers of Omaha, have been engaged for months past in the disreputable practice of beginning foreclosure suits in the state courts, and then removing them to the United States courts upon false affidavits, charging local prejudice against one of their clients, for the sole purpose of obtaining a large attorney's fee from the farmer upon whose farm they are foreclosing the mortgage; and,

Whereas, By this means they have robbed the farmers of this state, who are unable to stand such treatment, of thousands of dollars; and,

Whereas, Proceedings have been commenced in the supreme court of the United States by H. A. Music to disbar said Breckenridge & Breckenridge from practicing in the state courts on account of their fraudulent practice in removing said cases; therefore be it, Resolved, First, That we fully endorse the action of said Music and his attorney, A. W. Agee Esq., in this city in bringing said proceedings, and we believe it is the duty of every honest man, no matter of what occupation or profession, to lend his aid to this effort to break up this outrageous practice on the part of a few unprincipled lawyers.

Second, That said Breckenridge & Breckenridge having virtually admitted the falsity of said affidavits, charging local prejudices, and that the sole object of removing cases to the federal courts is to obtain attorney's fees from the unfortunate mortgagor, we confidently look to the supreme court to protect the people from these outrages by disbaring attorneys who have so little regard for truth and justice as to make such infamous affidavits.

Third, We appeal to our senators and representatives in congress to do all in their power to secure the enactment of laws that will make it impossible for disreputable attorneys to fraudulently secure the removal of cases from the state to the federal courts.

M. F. STANLEY, G. B. BRAHIN, F. M. HOWARD, Committee.

Resolutions of Blue Valley Alliance, Nuckolls County.

Resolved, That we do hereby heartily endorse the proposition made in the United States senate by the Hon. Senator Stanford to loan money on real estate from 1 to 2 percent per annum, and we respectfully ask him to push this proposition to a vote.

Resolved, That we will not support any man for congress or the legislature who will not support Senator Stanford's proposition, and who does not fearlessly advocate the principles of the Alliance and labor organizations.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to THE ALLIANCE for publication, also one to the Nuckolls County Herald, and one to the Hon. Senator Stanford.
