Resolutions of Respect to the late Frank Thomas, Passed by Alliance No. 1210 of Willow Creek, Neb.

Whereas, in his wisdom it has pleased God to remove from our midst our Brother Frank Thomas, whose years had but passed to a middle age, yet in whom were found traits of character which proclaimed him one of nature's noblemen, brave, truthful, generous and self sacrificing to a fault, sympathetic and gentle as a woman.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family of Frank Thomas, and pray that they may find consolation in the thought that which separated body and soul did not destroy the soul.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the neighbors and brothers who kindly assisted in Brother Thomas' long continued illness, and no less are our thanks due to the nameless heroine who so ably seconded their efforts by providing the repasts which enabled them to pursue their self imposed high condition.

Resolved, That Willow Creek Alliance be draped in mourning for the time of thirty days; and further be it.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the journal, a copy sent to the Farmers' Alliance, and a copy presented to the family of our deceased brother.

T. W. JOHNSON, JAMES HAYLIK, JOSEPH O'NEILL, Committee.

Grand Gathering in Madison County. MADISON, NEB., Aug. 20, 1890. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—The people's campaign opened here on August 16th with a rousing speech by Hon. O. M. Kem, who won the audience from the beginning with his eloquent and forcible argument, reviewing at length the condition of capital and labor, and showing that the millionaires of the country, as well as the mortgages on the farms and laborers' homes are the result of our system of government.

Resolved, That we endorse without change the platform of the people's party adopted at Lincoln on July 29th, 1890.

Resolved, That we can, and will heartily support each and every candidate on the people's ticket, and especially our own nominee for congress, O. M. Kem, of Custer.

Resolved, That this convention will not support any candidate or nominee for senator who is not in full sympathy with the independent movement, and who will not pledge himself to support the same, and make a canvass of his district.

Whereas, The B. & M. R. Co., has two branch roads now graded, but not completed in counties in this district. Resolved, That if said company does not promptly complete said branches, we will use our influence to induce other roads to occupy the territory.

Good News From Platte County. The independent ticket will win in this county this fall. The republicans have endorsed our candidates for representative and county attorney. So "old Platte" will be represented at Lincoln next winter by genuine "hay-seeds" and good ones, too. We have the advantage of having the best county paper in the state, the Platte Center Argus, championing our cause.

Yours for victory. F. A. MATSON, Ass't Secy Alliance No. 1266.

Democrats and the Independent Ticket. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—I see a good deal about the democrats not sticking to the independent move, and that they will go back to the old party. Now that is an old party lie, for I am a democrat and I have shelled out at that; but I will vote the independent ticket straight. We have fifty democratic votes in our precinct, and forty-six of them will vote the independent ticket. There are three men running for commissioner, Andrews, Rep., will get eight votes, Dauchy, Dem., will get four votes, and Dechant, Ind., will get the balance. Does that look like the democrats were going back on the independent ticket? Nine-tenths of the democrats of Frontier, Gosper and Furnas counties will vote the independent ticket, and an equal proportion of the republicans will do the same. Now I would say to all independents, don't let us listen to their

PROGRAM FOR LABOR DAY.

Order of the Alliances in the Street Parade. The several Alliances in the County will assemble in the southern part of the city, all south of J street and on any streets adjacent to Eleventh street. The procession will be formed at 9 A. M. on Eleventh street, head of column resting on J street, extending south. The several Alliances will fall into line as follows:

Bee Hive No. 425. Rock Creek No. 953. Agnew No. 975. Crounse No. 1016. Cedar Hill No. 1061. Walton No. 1158. Malcolm No. 1185. Davey No. 1260. Waverly No. 1277. Cheney No. 1352. Saltito No. 1353. Oak Valley No. 1354. Camp Creek No. 1382. Raymond No. 1397. Pauama No. 1461. Prairie Flower No. 1491. Pleasant Valley No. 1504. Rock No. 1505. Hickman No. 1531. Nemaha No. 1588. Pleasant Valley No. 1592. Sprague No. 1598. Stockton No. 1601. Yankee Hill No. 1605. Valley Jnion No. 1626. Lake No. 1655. Fifth No. 1688. Union Branch No. 1701.

Central City, Aug. 18, 1890. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—The political campaign has opened all along the line, and three parties now stand before the people on their merits. Each of the old parties appeal to the farmers for support, and try to show us how they would found our politics. Moses to lead us out of the wilderness. Each professes great love for the poor down trodden farmer, and asks for our love in return. They have fed us on husks, and when we wish a change of diet these poor office seekers are astonished.

It is the same old programme over again. The old parties nominate the farmer's worst enemies for office, and do not put one farmer on their tickets, and they expect to elect them as usual. Brother farmers, you may do so if you wish to be ground down still lower; but excuse me, I have got enough. You have good farmers nominated for office independent ticket, and if you don't support them you will regret it. We have tried for years to let the money power make the laws, and you have been the tail of the lion and have wagged just when your boss was wagging. If laws are framed to aid our enemies of every kind, and the moment we wish to frame a few laws for our benefit, then we see our opponents unite to defeat us.

There may be some glimmers of common sense in the minds of some farmers to stand by the old parties and vote for just such as might be nominated, but if there is any we cannot find it after a long search. One party puts a money loaner and land speculator on their ticket for governor. How do you like the idea of supporting a man who has taken three and four per cent a month from your brother farmer when he was hard up? Elect him to a high office and he can laugh at you and thank you for not letting him turn the coat. He won't vote for you, but you may go and cringe and sneak up to him and ask for a little aid. Oh yes, at three or four per cent a month. Get your own money and then you can thank him for not letting you turn the coat. He won't vote for you, but you may go and cringe and sneak up to him and ask for a little aid. Oh yes, at three or four per cent a month. Get your own money and then you can thank him for not letting you turn the coat. He won't vote for you, but you may go and cringe and sneak up to him and ask for a little aid. Oh yes, at three or four per cent a month. Get your own money and then you can thank him for not letting you turn the coat.

Blister your hands trying to build a home, and pull off the skin, and the sting is the result of hard times caused by money sharks and their tools, the ones we elect to office. The scariest thought to remind you of the folly you once committed, and as long as the scariest remains you ought to be a free man. The old politicians say that they will not let you turn the coat. He won't vote for you, but you may go and cringe and sneak up to him and ask for a little aid. Oh yes, at three or four per cent a month. Get your own money and then you can thank him for not letting you turn the coat. He won't vote for you, but you may go and cringe and sneak up to him and ask for a little aid. We attended a grove meeting Aug. 15th, in York county, and heard some of the political hash that will be fed to the people this fall. Mr. Harlan the g. o. p. candidate for congress spoke for 40 minutes, and we expected to hear some good political theology, but he spent his entire time telling us what he did while in the house at Lincoln. The people came to hear something better, and were very much displeased to hear so much boasting. Mr. Wolcott, the candidate for treasurer on the independent ticket spoke for 30 minutes, and from beginning to end he spoke of the present feeling of the people and what we must do to bring about a condition. He did not call attention to the great things he had done, but he told us of many things the old parties had promised to do and failed to do. His speech and gentlemanly appearance won for him many friends, and we believe that if he is elected to office that we won't be compelled to take off our hats and kneel when we enter his office. He will meet us as men and treat us as equals. If a vote could have been taken after the meeting, we believe the independents would have won by a large majority, and if the same feeling is shown over the entire county Mr. Harlan will be defeated by 500 majority in his own county. We would like to be settled feeling of distrust for the old parties over the entire state, and when you hear three or four farmers conversing, the entire talk is about politics. The farmers are in a strong feeling that is growing stronger and stronger, seems to prevail, and we hear but very few farmers who wish to be tail any longer. The farmer that does not help himself now ought to be a slave, and if we are defeated, we point to those recreant ones as our worst enemies. Don't let up on the fighting until after election day.

Fraternally, M. M. HALLECK, Fifteenth District in Line.

MANDERSON, NEB., Aug. 22, 1890. At a convention of the 15th senatorial district of Neb., held at Sargent, Custer county, Aug. 20, 1890, the following resolutions were adopted, and secretary requested to send copy of same to the FARMERS' ALLIANCE, and to every party friendly to the independent movement in this district.

Resolved, That we endorse without change the platform of the people's party adopted at Lincoln on July 29th, 1890.

Resolved, That we can, and will heartily support each and every candidate on the people's ticket, and especially our own nominee for congress, O. M. Kem, of Custer.

Crop Reports.

FRANKLIN COUNTY. Corn not one-fourth of a crop. Small grain in the southern part of the county destroyed by hail and drought; north-west part very light. Potatoes and garden truck a total failure. Broom corn not a good quality and very light crop. Hay short; no upland hay at all. Stock in fair condition. Corn 45 cents. S. S. BARNES.

CERYL, NEB., Aug. 20, 1890. The crops around my alliance are very poor. Wheat averages from 1 to 5 bushels per acre. Corn is almost a total failure. Some will have corn, some will not. Potatoes, not any to amount to anything. Only one in my Alliance will have any potatoes. We will have to keep our stock mostly on fodder. Hay is scarce. Yours fraternally, J. H. FURROW, Secretary Alliance 771.

CLAY COUNTY. Wheat one-fourth crop; oats total failure; corn about 3 bushels per acre; potatoes nothing; hay short. People are cutting up most of their fodder for winter food. We will have a hard time to pull through. Furthermore, I think this report will cover the county, excepting wheat, which is better, in some townships, than here. J. W. MORRIS.

PLATTE COUNTY. The crop outlook in this county has not been very favorable. The late rains will help to fill corn that has not already dried up. Average yields may be stated as follows: Wheat from 10 to 30 bushels per acre; oats 10 to 25 bushels per acre; flax 3 to 8 bushels per acre; barley 25 to 50 bushels per acre; corn will probably make 40 per cent of an average crop. Potatoes almost a failure. F. A. MATSON, Ass't Secy Alliance No. 1266.
