

FARMER'S OPINIONS.

OLE MAN KANE.

Reckon you knowed ole man Kane, mease over there, himse his plain, sheds on barn on win' mill high;

Kane toled the stamps for Bob on Jennie, he they seed the show with livin' teams, he is they st. Kane he loved.

It was remarkin' Kane how 'bout, on Iowa them kids 'nd 'raver Joub, on 'trod be right smart strong-like prison

Now lookin' across thro' the willer trees, what's rookin' ever was elotter the bees, what he utter read wen the sun was low,

FIAT MONEY.
LINCOLN, Dec. 26, 1890.
EDITOR ALLIANCE:—Fiat money! It seems to me that I have heard that cry before, and it is the same old cry. This started by the gold bugs, the Wall street clique, whenever relief is needed by the people at the hands of the government.
