THE LANCASTER COUNTY INSTITUTE. Too late for insertion this week we received an account of The Lancaster County Teacher's Institute.

MARRIED. At Lincoln, Monday, June 22, Mr. J. W. Sherwood and Miss Ada Mosher, all of Lincoln.

ANOTHER JOURNAL SLANDER. The editor of the Wahoc Express complains because when riding on the train he had to pay his fare.

THE SUNDAY STATE-RECORD has the largest circulation of any paper in this section of the state.

SENATOR CARLISLE AND GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS.

Some delegates of the Cincinnati convention went over to Kentucky and had an interview with Senator Carlisle.

Our government debt at the close of the war was more than two thousand millions, and we have been almost thirty years in paying half of it.

Mr. Carlisle's parenthesis about the public debt is provocative of discussion, but we pass it.

Now Mr. Carlisle says this bonded debt must be paid. Very good. He asks, 'are you willing to tax yourselves to pay it?'

At Lincoln, Monday, June 22, Mr. J. W. Sherwood and Miss Ada Mosher, all of Lincoln.

Now, under the present private ownership at least 10 per cent of the cost of operating the roads are chargeable to the competitive systems.

THE G. O. P. IN NEBRASKA.

Opinions from Two Very High Authorities. William Leese and E. Rosewater Frankly State Their Honest Convictions.

We give below extracts from articles on the present political situation from two very high authorities, viz: Hon. Wm. Leese and Hon. E. Rosewater.

In the case of Mr. Rosewater it is different. He, too, has long known all about the corporate control of Nebraska politics.

THE DRAIN OF GOLD. The recent drain of gold from this country is exciting much comment in commercial circles.

What was the cause of the gold drain? It is known to all Nebraskans that the confederated monopolies have had absolute control of the machinery of the republican party for more than fifteen years.

THE SUPREME JUDGESHIP.

The Bee of the 20th has the following item on this subject.

Unless the independents call an early convention they will find as many candidates for associate justice of the supreme court as there are counties in the state.
