PRAIRIE GRASS.

Written for THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.
The swaying blue-stem shakes its golden powder down,
And drifts of yellow dust are floating here and there,
A thousand flashing tremors, tawny, red and brown,
Till I wonder prairie grass could ever be so fair.

I listen to the murmurs soft as a silver lute,
Sweet melody that lures me far from the busy crowd;
The waving pointed cones, each like a shepherd's flute,
Re-echo now the summer's harp light as the misty cloud.

On all the emerald billows I find the crown of gold,
Where tiny jewels tremble, so lightly are they hung,
And other beaded sprays their crimson glories hold,
While everywhere this azure morn the mower's song is sung.

—MARY BAIRD FINCH.

HOLD YOUR WHEAT.

The Alliance Call to the Farmers of the Northwest.

SOME STARTLING FIGURES.

Europe's Shortage and America's Surplus in Cereals—At Least $1.50 and Probably $2 Per Bushel Is From Seed Later in the Season.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 15.—Theodore M. Mueller, editor of the State, the Alliance newspaper organ of the northwest, has issued a second circular following upon the suggestions of the first, with figures and arguments in support of the proposition that wheat is bound to advance to $1.50 or $2, and farmers should profit by it. One million copies of this circular are being mailed, besides the 60,000 copies of the current issue of the State, in which the circular is reprinted. The circular opens with the statement that the farmers will be saved millions of dollars if the advice given in the document is followed. Alliance secretaries are instructed to give the circular as wide a distribution as possible, while newspapers are requested to publish the same. Continuing the circular says:

Europe's Shortage. "We do not believe a majority of the farmers are foolish enough to co-operate with the speculators to depress prices further. There is no question but prices will take a turn upward in a few days. The shortage in Europe can not be figured with accuracy. About a week ago a congress of grain-dealers from all parts of Europe met at Vienna, Austria, and computed figures about the crops in Europe. These figures are the highest which well-informed reputable men could furnish, for, if in a famine year like this they should give for the crop of any one country lower figures than circumstances justified, the government of that country would certainly renege. It is surely the policy of Europeans not to exaggerate their disaster. The figures of the Vienna congress show that Europe raised 258,000,000 bushels of wheat and 490,000,000 bushels of rye less than last year. Last year it consumed all of its own wheat crop and at least 50,000,000 of reserves, 100,000,000 bushels imported from America, all the other countries could supply, and all its rye crop. This year it will have from America 120,000,000 bushels more than last if we take the extreme figures which any reputable authority has made for our really splendid crop.

"It will have as usual what other countries supply, which is insignificant, but it will have 748,000,000 bushels less of its own crop and 50,000,000 bushels less to be drawn from reserves. In short, it will have 120,000,000 bushels extra from America to make up a deficiency of 708,000,000, and must consequently eat 678,000,000 bushels less grain.

Higher Prices for Wheat. "Rye being dearer in Europe than wheat, the latter becomes a substitute, and is equally affected by deficiency in rye or wheat supply. When it is entirely certain that Europeans will have to economize in bread to the extent of 678,000,000 bushels, and when the situation is aggravated by the partial failure of the potato crop, it is to be considered what prices they would pay for American wheat. The shortage in Europe being four times as large as the shortage in bread, there is no doubt that the price of wheat will reach the highest figure ever known before this year is up and will exceed it by far before the new crop comes in.

"The talk that for $1 wheat in Chicago is a high price under present circumstances is absolutely idiotic, for the average price in England being $1.41, no one in Europe dares expect to eat wheat 21 cents below an average price this year. Wheat will soon be over $1.50, no matter how much farmers and speculators work together to keep prices down, and we would advise those who can comprehend the situation to hold their wheat for $1.50 and add for every month they keep it say 5 cents to the price. Hold your wheat. You cannot get left."

Jockey Club and Pool Rooms.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The battle between the Brooklyn Jockey club and the city pool rooms began in earnest yesterday. The association erected high fences all around the Gravesend track, so as to shut out the view which was formerly had from the tops of the surrounding houses. The pool room men, however, rose to the occasion, and erected on the top of the highest of these buildings a tower from which they could look over the fences into the track. Mr. Dwyer will play his trump card today, and the pool rooms may as well give up the fight. He intends to withhold all entries from the newspapers. This will hurt the attendance somewhat, but President Dwyer's aim is to break up the pool rooms and this last step will probably prove effective. All of the pool rooms in this city were in full blast the afternoon, being able by means of the tower to get the results. The news from the tracks came in a little slowly, but this did not deter the patrons of the terraces, which had the regular attendance.

Federal and State Courts Conflict.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 15.—The state court instructed Sheriff Lewis and Receiver Maroney to hold on to the Texas Trunk railroad and not to turn it over to Receiver Dillingham, as ordered Saturday by the United States court. He also instructed them to apply to the United States court for Dillingham's dismissal. The conflict between the state and federal courts is likely to lead to trouble.

A Bogus Mint in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 15.—A gang of counterfeiters have been arrested in this city. George E. Neel and E. S. Wilson were taken Saturday morning for passing counterfeit coins. Neel lives on a farm near Lawrence, Kan. The sheriff of that county was telegraphed to search the farm house, and doing so he found a complete outfit of dies, furnaces, crucibles, acids, metals, etc., usually used by counterfeiters. Charles Chipwood of Lawrence was also arrested as an accomplice.

FELL BY THE WAYSIDE.

A Romance Growing Out of the Park Place Disaster.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—At the time of the Park Place disaster, Sherman Cummin, a popular "comp" on the Mail and Express disappeared, and as he was known to be a patron of Peterson's restaurant in the ill-fated Taylor building, the conclusion was reached that he had perished. His wife haunted the ruins for days and at length identified one of the recovered bodies as the remains of her husband. The body was taken to her home and buried with due ceremony. Mrs. Cummin received $1,000 from the mayor's relief fund and then moved from the home in which she and her husband dwelt in order to find forgetfulness. Mrs. Cummin received a message which took a load off her heart. It was dated at Halifax and announced that her husband was alive and well there and was coming home as fast as steam could carry him. It also stated that on the day of the disaster he started for Peterson's restaurant, but fell by the wayside and entered a saloon instead. He was soon in a condition in which he neither knew or cared what he was doing, and when he came to his senses he found he had shipped on a sailing vessel bound for Halifax, which place he reached Sunday.

ROBBERS FOILED.

A Fiendish Attempt to Wreck the Pittsburg Cannon Ball Express in Indiana.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A bold attempt was made to wreck the Cannon Ball express on the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad last night. When the train was two miles east of Whiting, Ind., Engineer Pierson saw an obstruction on the track and reversing the lever, the engine came to a stop just as the pilot pushed its nose against a barrier of railroad ties. While the passengers and trainmen were standing about the engine discussing their narrow escape from death, Charles Howard, of Whiting, an employee of the Standard Oil company, came running up and saw the attempt and the attempt to wreck the train. "There were five of them," Howard said, excitedly, "and it was their intention to wreck the train and then rob the express messenger and the passengers." Howard then told how he met the five men at Whiting during the afternoon and that they invited him to walk down the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago tracks after darkness had set in. It was about 7:30 o'clock when the party reached the spot where the ties were placed on the tracks. Howard says that all of the men were armed, and pointing their revolvers at him, they compelled him to aid in putting the timbers across the rails. He attempted to run away and warn the trainmen, when the robbers threatened to shoot him if he moved. His story was not believed until the wreckers and brought to this city. A score of officers from South Chicago are hunting through Indiana marshes after the five men.

A Daring Escape.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 15.—Frederick C. Fitzgibbons, murderer and highway man confined in jail on the charge of murdering Dorothy Gilkinson, escaped about 5 o'clock. He sawed off the bars in his cell in Murderer's row and scaled the walls of the cell room to the window, where he also sawed off the bars standing on the window sill. He risked his life by a daring leap to the roof of the wardens' house. Thence he descended to the street by means of a lightning rod and scaled the high stone wall by means of a rope, which must have been furnished by some one outside. Once on top of the wall he fastened the rope to an iron spike and lowered himself to the street. He was not discovered until 6 o'clock and so far there is no clue to his whereabouts. The escape is considered one of the most skillful and daring known to criminal records.

The Old Lady Stuck.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Sept. 15.—Grandmother Douglas, one of the Rev. J. W. Bristol's flock, made information against her shepherd for assaulting her by chasing her through a barbed wire fence. Several days ago she said she went to call on a sister who resides next door to Mr. Bristol. She strayed over into his pasture and began a lively trade against the preacher when he appeared. She claims he shook his fist at her and scared her so that she tried to crawl back through the fence. Being 70 years old and weighing 200 pounds, she stuck fast and almost broke a leg. Rev. Mr. Bristol will have a jury trial. When asked about the charges, Rev. Mr. Bristol laughed and said there was no truth in them.

Hains-Hannegan Murder Trial.

HAMPTON, Va., Sept. 15.—The sixth day of the Hains-Hannegan murder trial opened here. The prisoner was brought in and Lawyer Lipscomb arose to continue the argument for the prosecution. In his remarks he declared in an impressive manner that Ed Hannegan could not be slaughtered and Hains acquitted of the crime. He enlivened Hannegan and took up the evidence link by link until he had spoken eloquently for two and one-half hours. Mr. Shillington for the defense then spoke Lawyer Goode and Senator Voorhees will close the case, and it will probably be given to the jury this evening.

Rain and Cyclone.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 15.—A heavy rain and hail storm fell. It is estimated that thousands of dollars of damage has been done to crops throughout the district. A heavy wind prevailed and several boats on the bay were capsized. No lives were lost.

Four Men Drowned.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—Four laborers employed by a junk dealer were drowned in the Delaware river opposite the navy yard, by the upsetting of their boat. They were in a small skiff when the frail craft upset. They were unable to swim and as they were long rubber boots not one of them rose to the surface.

EMPIRE DEMOCRATS

Flower's Nomination on the First Ballot Claimed.

CALLED TO ORDER AT NOON.

An Address by Temporary Chairman Raines—After the Appointment of Committees the Convention Adjourns Until 10 a. m.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Chairman Murphy of the state committee called the Democratic state convention to order at noon and introduced George Raines as temporary chairman. Raines addressed the house at considerable length.

After the appointment of committees the convention took a recess until 10 a. m.

The state committee by a vote of 24 to 8 decided not to admit representation from the County Democracy in the convention.

The resignation of Voorhees of New York as a member of the state committee has been accepted and he has been re-elected to fill a vacancy.

There is no doubt of the nomination of Flower for governor on the first ballot. D. J. Griffin, who is Mr. Flower's personal representative, said to a correspondent of the United Press last evening that Mr. Flower would have every vote on the first ballot except the thirty-six from Kings county. Mr. Griffin puts no faith in the threat of a second convention. He says it is a bluff. "When men are beaten they must take their medicine," he said. The Chapin men would like to see a second convention organized. They were feeling very blue yesterday. No one outside Chapin's headquarters would talk anything but Flower. Hugh McLaughlin, the leader of the Kings county delegation, who had come to a convention for the first time in years to give a personal supervision to Mr. Chapin's campaign, was especially disgruntled. The Chapin men gained some spirits when the Kings county Democratic club, 700 strong, marched down Broadway, five abreast, headed by a big band and wheeled into the Grand Union hotel. The arrival of this delegation of Chapin shorthairs did not give them any new courage or deceive them about the prospects, but it gave them company in their miserable condition, and was very welcome. It was 5 o'clock when the King county people came in.

The Sheehan Controversy.

The Hon. Wilson S. Bissell of Buffalo, in discussing the trouble in Erie county with a United Press man, said: "We are in very bad shape in Erie." "Do you refer to the Sheehan controversy?" "Yes, that is the trouble." "What effect will Sheehan's nomination have?" "If he is nominated for lieutenant governor it will mean a loss of 5,000 votes in the state." "Do you do you prefer for the second place?" "Anybody who can help the ticket to victory; anybody but Sheehan. With Sheehan on the ticket we will suffer terribly. We are here as Democrats, and in the interest of the party, and we hope to prevent what in our judgment would be a great mistake." "There has been some talk about the withdrawal of the Cleveland delegates from the convention in the event of Sheehan's nomination. What is there in that story?" "I don't think that can be done. There will be no second convention."

Augusta Exposition Missionaries.

LOWELL, Mass., Sept. 15.—The Augusta exposition delegation arrived in this city and were welcomed by a committee of prominent citizens. They were driven about the city and shown points of interest, after which there was a banquet at Mechanics hall. The mayor welcomed the visitors and addresses were made by President Walsh, of the Augusta exposition, Hon. John C. Davidson and Editor Stovell, of the Augusta Chronicle. The latter, in behalf of the representatives of Georgia, repudiated the "New Heresy" in its last phase, which seals coalition of the south and west in an absurd and wild cat policy, and declares Georgia to be heart and soul with New England for a sound financial policy and solid business reciprocity.

Anti-Prize Fighting Legislation.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 15.—The lower house of the general assembly passed the anti-prize fighting bill. There was a red-hot discussion, but it went through by a large majority. The senate bill making it a misdemeanor was substituted for the house bill making it a felony. Senator Stroud's bill prohibiting the whipping of convicts was killed. In the senate the reappointment bill passed its first reading.

Maryland Politics.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15.—Frank Brown, the Democratic candidate for governor, had a conference with Senator Gorman and Congressman Compton. Mr. Brown says he will have 50,000 majority. It is understood that Senator Gorman does not intend to take an active part in the canvass, as the Democrats expect to win without putting Mr. Gorman to the weariness of a hard campaign.

Alliance Men Capture a Convention.

STAUNTON, Va., Sept. 15.—Alliance men captured the Democratic convention and nominated H. J. Williams and C. W. Koiner for the legislature to represent Augusta county. The contest was prolonged and exciting. The nominations were made unanimously.

Young Men's Institute.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 15.—The second grand council of the Young Men's Institute was held here. Delegates coming from various places east of the Rocky mountains were present. The day was given up to the hearing of reports and appointment of committees.

Southern Press Association.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 15.—The first annual session of the Southern Afternoon Press association was held here. The business was conducted with closed doors. Officers were elected.

RICHMOND TERMINAL COMPANY.

Plans to Arrange Its Floating Debt Being Discussed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The officers of the Richmond Terminal company were at work all day on the plan to extend its floating debt, but at the end of the day it was stated that nothing definite had been accomplished. Among those present at the meeting of the executive committee were George J. Gould, John H. Hinman, A. V. S. Hewitt, John A. Rutherford and Samuel Thomas. It was reported after the meeting that no decision had been reached, that $6,000,000 could be continued at once if the committee should agree on the plan to extend the floating debt of the various companies in the system similar to that adopted by the Union Pacific. President Inman says he thinks that $10,000,000 collateral trust notes will be issued, guaranteed by the Richmond Terminal company, each of the allied companies depositing collateral to secure its own floating debt. It is officially stated that the floating debt of the Richmond Terminal company is $350,000, the Georgia Central $1,800,000, Richmond and Danville $3,200,000 and East Tennessee $1,400,000.

NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

Filtering Cloth for Beet Sugar Factories Admitted Free of Duty—The Bond Statement.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Acting Secretary Nettleton has instructed the surveyor of customs at Omaha to admit filtering cloth for beet sugar machinery free of duty, under paragraph 237 of the act of Oct. 1, 1890.

An Important Case.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—A very important case will be heard before Justice Field of the United States supreme court, on the 20th inst. It is the first hearing in a suit brought by the United States government in California, involving the question whether the Southern Pacific company of Kentucky can exercise the general corporate power and especially hold leases of railroad corporations in other states. As is well known, the charter of the Southern Pacific company of Kentucky was secured by C. P. Huntington for the purpose of taking leases on the Central Pacific, the California and Oregon, the Southern Pacific of California and other railroads forming the so-called Huntington system. As the leases involve guarantees of interest and dividends on hundreds of millions of securities, the great importance of the case will at once be seen. It is considered by lawyers a dangerous suit for the defendant company.

Bond Statement.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The 41 per cent. bonds received at the treasury department for continuance at 4 per cent. amounted to $2,900,000, making the total thus far continued $24,654,700. The 41 per cent. bonds received at the treasury for redemption amounted to $373,700. The redemptions at the New York sub-treasury Saturday were $76,100, making the total redemptions to date $15,900,700. The heavy drain upon the treasury balance since the first of the month in redeeming 41 per cent. bonds has reduced the net balance in the treasury which, on Sept. 1 was $60,000,000, to $48,000,000. Included in this latter sum is $17,830,000 of subsidiary silver, and $15,560,000 in government bank deposits.

Sioux Falls' Public Building.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The treasury department, after examination, has found that the act passed by the legislature of South Dakota, ceding jurisdiction over public building sites in that state to the United States is ample, and as Secretary Nettleton has approved it, he said that the work on the Sioux Falls building, which has been delayed pending the examination, will be at once resumed and pushed to completion.

Death of Messenger Coleman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Henry Coleman, colored, a messenger at the door of the attorney general's office, died here, aged 80 years. Prior to 1880 Coleman purchased his freedom and after wards the freedom of his wife. He had been messenger at the door of the attorney general's office for 26 years and probably knew more public men at the time of his death than any man in the United States.

Denver Claims the Pennant.

DENVER, Sept. 15.—President Packard, of the Denver Base Ball club, was seen in regard to the disbanding of the Western Association. President Packard said that Denver would claim the Western Association pennant. He had reserved all the players for next year. Arrangements are being made by which the Denver club will play a series of exhibition games in western and Pacific coast cities with a club made up from the best players of the National League and American Association, captained by Captain Comiskey, of the St. Louis Browns, after the championship season is over. President Packard says he will try to organize a six-club league for next year, to be composed of clubs from Kansas City, Omaha, Sioux City, St. Joseph, Denver and Pueblo.

A White League Monument.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—The most important celebration of the 14th of September anniversary that has yet taken place occurred yesterday. The monument will be erected on Liberty Place, Canal street, near the scene of the conflict.

He says the English syndicate has taken at least $1,000,000 in the company to the amount of $3,040,000 of the $15,000,000 at which the company is stocked. Fowler says the company will have tin on the market in large quantities within a year.
