

THE CONTEST IN OHIO.

SUCCESS IN '92 POSSIBLE.

The Eastern States are Watching Nebraska.

MIDDLETON, OHIO, Oct. 19, 1891.

EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE: The political race horses in the Ohio campaign are just rounding into the home stretch, and they are raising such a dust that it is almost impossible to form a correct opinion as to the result.

BRAVE, BEAUTIFUL, INSPIRING TRUTHS.

Heroic Blood Still Throbs and Surges in the Pulses of their Descendants.

SHELBY, Oct. 25.

EDITOR ALLIANCE:—That spirit of independence which fired the hearts of the ancient Britons, as with impetuous valor they leapt into the sea to meet the Roman invaders, has always been alive in the hearts of the Anglo Saxon race.

It was this spirit burning in the breasts of the pilgrim fathers which laid the foundation of American history. It was this which led them to launch their frail bark, freighted with the hopes of a nation, on the stormy sea of liberty from the hands of tyrants.

Don't get discouraged if we do not do wonders this fall for we must take into consideration that Ohio has a large illiterate population, and the order of intelligence in this state is not near so high as in the western states.

A PITCHED BATTLE AT PANAMA

Independent and Republican Orators Have a Joint Debate.

EDITOR ALLIANCE:—The independents had their appointment made for a rally at Panama village the eve of the 23d. It seems the republicans had billed the town and sent down their speakers for the same night.

His opponents could not and did not try to answer or refute. Mr. Hull was courteous in his talk, using not a word of abuse of parties or persons.

WE WONDER. We wonder if Fields, Hall and Tibbets will draw their salaries for time occupied next week while on a campaigning tour?

We wonder if the adjournment of court for a week before election is in the interests of the people or in the interests of individuals?

We wonder if Judge Hall should try a case where a Nebraska hen laid her eggs in Missouri, would he decide that the eggs were good in Missouri but bad in Nebraska?

We wonder if church members will honor a man who dishonors the Sabbath?

We wonder if Ike Lansing's talk on the tariff will draw the attention of the voters from the issues in Lancaster county and Nebraska?

We wonder if good crops and plenty of rain will reduce taxation; give a greater volume of currency; increase wages; decrease freight rates; and on account of good crops and rain that the people's independent party should subside?

We wonder why the State Journal doesn't give truthful reports of independent meetings?

We wonder why the daily papers of this city did not publish at least a synopsis of the speeches of two Nebraska congressmen delivered in this city?

We wonder what a democrat expects to gain, politically, by the election of a republican to the supreme bench, and thereby continue three republicans in power?

We wonder if the democrats of the state will endorse the decision of a republican supreme court in the overthrow of their candidate for governor by the substitution of another republican for the retiring one?

We wonder if democrats or independents can strengthen their parties by voting for the party in power?

We wonder why the B. & M. isn't as ready to show its special rate books as its pass books?

We wonder why those Leon Masons did such a terrible injustice to their poor innocent brother Post as to suspend him from 1872 to 1877?

The Omaha Independents.

The independents of Omaha are immensely more numerous than they were a year ago.

There are many inquiries from different parts of the state about insurance law and its requirements, but every one is too busy at present to do anything.

NEBRASKA NEWS.

Items of Interest From All Parts of the State.

The Pueblo and Duluth railroad officials have made Wheeler county a proposition to build their road through the county and the commissioners have submitted a proposition to vote $50,000 in bonds in aid of the line. The special election will be held November 23.

A petition of about 1,300 names has been presented to the county clerk of Butler county, calling for an election on the question of township organization. The sentiment for its repeal and return to the commissioner system is said to be very strong in the county.

A Fairbury man named F. C. Brown slipped a set of braces and saws through a window of the Jefferson county jail to enable Edward Obell, a thief, to escape. Another prisoner gave the snap away and Brown was arrested. He is now spending 100 days in jail, and will pay a fine of $60 besides.

The wall of a brick kiln at the yard of Miller & Egan at Nebraska city, was completely buried by a heavy snow storm. The men were dug out as soon as possible. Quinett was painfully injured and Peterson was somewhat bruised, but both men will live.

About a week ago the Grand Island Board of Underwriters dissolved, and all rates on insurance were declared off. Since then a lively war has been going on among the agents, insurance being written for almost nothing. The agents held a meeting and reorganized the board. All difficulties have been satisfactory adjusted.

The grand lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in session at Lincoln, held its annual election of officers, resulting as follows: Grand master, George L. Loomis, C. O. Bates, set aside. She alleges the divorce was granted without her knowledge. Dates, after he secured his divorce, went to Kansas City where he was married to Mrs. Jennie L. Kirkpatrick, and it is said he has laid himself amenable to the laws of Nebraska by bigamy.

Simpton, a farmer living four miles north of Nebraska, met with a fatal accident while salting cattle in a pasture. His large bull, which had always been considered gentle and safe, approached as if to play. He caught him by the horns, which seemed to enrage the bull, and he was tossed over his back and then pinned to the earth, one horn going through each leg. When rescued both legs were badly gored and one arm was nearly torn from his body. He cannot possibly recover.

The coroner's jury has rendered a verdict of "frightened to death by unknown persons" in the case of the negro Smith hanged at Omaha by a mob a few days ago. The examination of the lynchers began before Judge Helsey. Two policemen testified to seeing John Knight in the jail at the time Smith was taken out, but Knight proved an alibi and was discharged. Hudson, one of the alleged lynchers, was discharged on his own recognition and the case continued to November 5.

Worth One Dollar.

I hereby certify that I am a regular subscriber to THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE, published at Lincoln, Neb., and I recommend as a young person whom I believe will be a good and faithful student.

When the above is properly made out and signed and presented at my office at the Western Normal College, in Shenandoah, Iowa, the person bringing the paper will be given credit for $1, on their tuition, provided he has never been a member of the institution.

The Western Normal College is larger and better this year than ever before. We are better prepared to care for students than ever. Shenandoah has fourteen churches and no saloons.

The above proposition holds good to Nov. 5th, 1891, and any old subscriber or any new one can take advantage of it. The school is in session now and students will be entitled to the above proposition any time before Nov. 5th 1891.
