

SOME of the World's Fair officials are drawing a salary of $15,000 per year. At the same time in that city, where more work is being done than in any city in the nation on account of the enormous preparations for the fair, between 20,000 and 30,000 working men cannot find employment, and every train that arrives brings new recruits. This estimate of the unemployed is made by the Chicago daily News. It is stated as a fact that hundreds of men apply for almost every place or job which is advertised. "Between 500 and 800 who are out of work have no money and no place to stay and are sleeping in the police station every night." What do these conditions in the world's center of activity indicate?

The democracy of Massachusetts has placed itself on record at a meeting of the Tariff Reform club, the most representative and powerful democratic organization in New England, in favor of Mr. Cleveland for president. The meeting was called to protest against nominating Hill, and such great democrats as Col. Charles R. Codman, Gen. Francis A. Walker, Edward Atkinson, John E. Russell, Massachusetts men, and Gen. Joe Johnson of New Orleans, were among the speakers. Gen. Walker declared he would vote for Harrison, Reed, or even McKinley before he would vote for Hill. Gen. Johnson affirmed most positively that the south was solid for Cleveland. The old confederate, if there were a south, and the Farmers' Alliance will split the south and carry off the best part of it.

DR. KENT of the peoples' church at Washington, D. C., whose only creed is the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, was recently called on by two friends of a dead woman, all three belonging to the outcast class. The living were anxious to commit the dead to the earth with a pitying prayer, but before coming to him had been unable to find a minister to serve or a place to hold the funeral services. After consulting with his wife Dr. Kent offered to hold the services in his own parlors. Mrs. Kent also hastily summoned a few of her lady friends, who met there the undertaker and two outcast women. The parable of the prodigal son was read, the story of the thief on the cross, and the life of the Saviour feelingly set forth; and after earnest prayer the funeral cortege resumed its way through the storm, the mantle of covering "beautiful snow," to the cemetery. Before her fall, a victim to drink and the sins of men, "no one in the city did more for the poor than she" in the way of charity and kindness.

Another Loyal Judge. NORTH PLATTE, NEB., Feb. 15 '92. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—Having noticed in your valuable paper a letter from a correspondent at Beatrice stating that the newly elected judge of that district had declined to accept a pass tendered him by the railway company and assiduous writer asks the question "is there any more like him?" I wish to inform him that Judge William Neville of the 13th district is a man of the same metal. Judge Neville was supplied with a pass by the U. P. Railway Co., as has been their custom, but he returned it with a courteous letter of thanks stating that he wished to keep himself in position to do equal justice to all before him and that the Railway Co. might be interested in and that he could best do so by paying his fare when traveling over their lines. I may be violating confidence in offering this matter to the press, as it is not generally known among the judges friends, but being desirous that such noble examples may be emulated I am willing to risk the Judges displeasure.

And now Mr. Editor if your space will permit I would like to offer some suggestions on this subject which I believe would remove many of the temptations that are now so powerfully and skillfully wielded to debauch our public officers more especially the courts and Legislature, by this same pass business. Would it not be better for the state to furnish all public officers with railway transportation when traveling on public business and report all statistics to provide for the payment of mileage; let the statutes destroy the commercial value of the pass if possible, and then make it a penal offense for an officer of the state, high or low, to accept such a favor from a Railway Co., while he is in the public service. —E. F. FASSETT.

I make these suggestions merely to start a discussion in the hope that some practical remedy may be suggested and generally accepted by the time the next Legislature meets. PLATTE.

An Alliance Patriot Writes. (At a meeting of the Loup City Alliance held at Madison Square February 6, 1892, a motion carried that Wm. Evans be requested to furnish a copy of an address book to him before said meeting to the FARMERS' ALLIANCE with a request that the same be published. We are pleased to publish it.—E. F. FASSETT.) Mr. President, brothers and sisters of the Alliance: It is as needful that we cultivate our minds as our fields, therefore it is proper that we come together often in social intercourse to greet each other and indulge in a friendly interchange of ideas.

It is written that "man shall not live by bread alone" therefore it becomes necessary that we devote a portion of our time to our social and intellectual improvement as well as to our physical being. Duty as well as pleasure and profit enjoins upon farmers that they associate more together in order that they may become more intelligent, more enlightened.

It was the producers of wealth, laboring men and women driven from the old world by the bigotry and intolerance, the injustice and oppression of idle drones—consumers and a horde of wealth—that first settled this country and dedicated it to freedom and tolerance, justice and equality, and it becomes our highest duty to maintain it as the "land of the free and home of the brave."

and herds around us and feed them with our own hands—to protect the birds and make them our friends—to inhale the dew from the glittering fields, as if our path was strewn with diamonds—this is to love our land and make it truly our home.

We must also instill into the minds of our children the same love of country, remembering that they are to follow after us and perpetuate our institutions. But if we would encourage them to love rural life we must make its labor both cheerful and profitable. We may tell them that the pleasure and convenience of the farmer's life, but if their daily intercourse with it proves it to be tedious, irksome and laborious without remuneration or recreation of body or mind—if they see idlers, speculators and usurers reaping the profits of the labor expended upon the farm, they will soon lose all interest in it and seek fascinations and rewards elsewhere.

It behooves us then to educate both ourselves and our sons and daughters, not only in books, but in that higher and broader education which takes in the relation of one business to another, the relation of the farmer to all the great industrial interests, the true character and functions of money and its relation to and effects upon labor, in a word that education which takes in all of the human characters and enters into every just human relation. Nowhere else can this be so well done as in the Alliance and kindred societies. Here the soundest and most correct business principles are taught, the highest and broadest moral sentiments inculcated. The highest and noblest attributes of the human character are here brought to bear upon the farmer, and the mind is expanded and the mind expanded.

As a result of the educational features of the Alliance and other labor organizations I look for the time to come when from the farms and workshops of the country will go forth the men and women who will fit in our legislative and executive halls—when intelligence will become so broad and universal, and justice and equality so firmly and deeply grounded in our laws that we shall hear no more of vengeful legislators or corrupt public servants. Then will this work of organization and education be the most important work of our times.

Let us then with clean hands and pure hearts consecrate all that is best and noblest in us to the success of this work, which is the grandest, most sublime and far-reaching in character of any ever before undertaken.

Let each one of us then lay upon the altars of our noble order whatever we may have of selfish ambition or mercenary motive, and joining let us covenant with each other that our best and highest talents and actions shall be dedicated to the cause of justice and humanity.

Let us pledge ourselves to labor faithfully, patiently, earnestly and persistently to purify and build up ourselves, our calling, our state and our nation. Let our every wish and constant prayer be:

"May kind Heaven the glad day hasten When in one fraternal band, We may number in our order All who till the smiling land." Then sir,

"As a mighty host with banners, Peaceful victories we will gain, Moved by right's resistless purpose, Held by love's electric chain. Serfs and vassals then no longer Chained to senseless labor's oar, Deaf to Heaven's highest teaching, Blind to nature's grandest lore; But with minds that honor freedom, Strong in strength that shields the weak, With the free man's peaceful weapons, We'll enforce the rights we seek."

Lancaster Co. Beet Sugar Convention Called. HICKMAN, NEB., Feb. 23, 1892.

EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE:—At a meeting of the Lancaster County Agricultural Society, held Saturday, Feb. 20, 1892, after conferring with members of the Real Estate Exchange and Board of Trade of Lincoln, it was decided to issue a call for a county Beet Sugar convention to be held in Lincoln on Friday, March 11, 1892. Following is a copy of the call and you are requested to give it as wide publication as possible between this time and the date of holding the convention. An occasional editorial mention might help the cause along.

Respectfully, E. F. FASSETT, Sec. Lancaster County Fair Association. LINCOLN, NEB., Feb. 22, 1892. Owing to the great interest that is being taken in the Beet Sugar industry of this state, in general and by county associations in particular, and in order that the residents of Lancaster county may exhibit their customary zeal in all such matters, the undersigned by special request of the citizens and organizations that they represent, issue this call for a delegate convention to be held at Lincoln, on Friday, the 11th day of March, 1892, at the state capital, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The objects of this convention are to encourage the experimental growing of sugar beets among the farmers, and the organization of the Lancaster county Beet Sugar Association; and to elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer; also vice-presidents for each precinct and assistant secretaries for each town.

Representation at the convention will be as follows: Three delegates from each county precinct, to be appointed by the President of the society. Each Local Farmers' Alliance in Lancaster county will be entitled to three delegates. The Board of County Commissioners are requested to appoint one delegate from each precinct in the county. The Board of Trade, Real Estate Exchange, County Farmers Institute and the Southern Lancaster County Fair Association will each be allowed fifteen delegates.

The secretaries of these organizations will please send the list of delegates, when appointed, to: E. F. FASSETT, Secretary of the Lancaster County Agricultural Society, Hickman, Neb. [Signed.] W. B. MORRISON, Pres. Lancaster Co. Agricultural Society. A. M. THURMBLE, Vice Pres. Lancaster Co. Ag'l Society. H. W. SCOTT, H. W. SCOTT, M. T. PECK, Directors Lancaster Co. Ag'l Society. R. H. OAKLEY, President Board of Trade. C. A. ATKINSON, Secretary of Board of Trade. J. H. McCLEAY, President Real Estate Exchange. JOHN J. GILLILAN, Secretary Real Estate Exchange.

Errors of Rosewater.

COOK, NEB., Feb. 15. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—For twelve years I have been a close observer of Mr. Rosewater's facts and figures, as he terms them, and in no instance have I known him to be correct in all of his statements and on an average I do not think his facts and figures will prove to be true more than once in every ten times.

In his last article on the silver question he gives the price of wheat in Chicago for the following years: 1892.....$1.55 1893.....1.50 1894.....1.45 1895.....1.40 1896.....1.35 1897.....1.30 1898.....1.25 1899.....1.20 1900.....1.15 1901.....1.10 1902.....1.05

The facts are that on the first day of January the Chicago price of wheat for the following years was: 1892.....$1.97 1893.....1.92 1894.....1.87 1895.....1.82 1896.....1.77 1897.....1.72 1898.....1.67 1899.....1.62 1900.....1.57 1901.....1.52 1902.....1.47

Now mark, these prices were given when wheat was about as low as at any time in the year except perhaps in November and December and in May and June it was much higher than on the first day of January of each year. Then he says 1895 was the difference between the price of silver and greenbacks was all the way from $2.00 to $2.40. Now the greatest difference between paper money and silver were the same in 1895 was $1.36 and in the same month was down to $0.97 and it ran as low as $0.38 in the course of the year, and only twice in the year did it go above $1.00 difference after the fall from $1.36.

Here you see are eight statements of figures by Mr. Rosewater and not one of them anywhere near the truth. Respectfully, W. P. BROOKS.

Another Heard From. EDITOR ALLIANCE:—An article in ALLIANCE of Feb. 4th entitled "A Judicial Curiosity," and an enquiry "are there any more of the same sort?" inspires me to say that there is. D. T. Welty, judge of this the 14th judicial district is another of that sort. Mr. Welty ruled for years that any man taking a pass was under obligation to pay a certain extent to the giver, and that a pass given not only as a matter of courtesy but as an indirect attempt to gain favor, hence he never asked for or received one as an attorney, or in any other capacity. At our judicial convention of this district an official nomination was assured Mr. Welty voluntarily pledged himself that he would not accept a pass under any conditions.

Hang up the roll of honor that all may see, that others who are honorable may be enabled to have their names entered thereon. Yours truly, H. ALLEN, Cambridge, Neb., Feb. 12.

A Fairbury Farmers Idea. FAIRBURY, NEB., Feb. 19th, '92.

EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE:—I wish some one would please tell me why farmers can't hire money direct from the government as well as railroad men can. Congress has let railroad monopolies have it on long time and when they ask for still longer time, 75 or a 100 years, they never pay, or intend to pay. The government has let them credit but gave them millions of acres of land besides. And now they aren't satisfied, but are trying to rob the people of one third of their produce by imposing on them unjust freight rates.

They have however gone a little too far. The people are waking up to resist their encroachments and are moving in the direction to buy and help them selves. We can build our own railroads and run them too. So much snark is expressed about silver money. They say if we coin a lot of silver it wouldn't be worth more than 65 or 75 cents on the dollar, but we don't believe it. One silver dollar will buy as much as one gold dollar. They say too that paper money is not good, that it will make business worse as it is 25 or 37 years ago. Give us greenbacks and stop making them full legal tender, and issue enough for all business needs. We never had better times than we had after the war when greenbacks were plenty, and had it not been for contraction of the currency the good times would have continued.

Give us what money we need, loaning it on good security at 3 to 4 per cent, and force the railroads to charge just reasonable rates, and the hardworking will be comfortable and contented. G. L. A. State Lecturer Wright in Sherman Co.

EDITOR ALLIANCE:—I want to tell you of the work here. W. F. Wright has been doing in Sherman Co. He has been conducting meetings on this plan called the educational bureau in this county, and his meetings have been just like the good old fashioned Methodist revivals. Everybody seems to enjoy them, and to want to take a part, and when the hat is passed each puts in his mite. Bro. Wright is a fine organizer, and the plan of his selling the reform literature is gaining friends to the independent cause here every day—though Sherman county cannot be complained of, it was the banner county of the state last fall—it elected every independent candidate in the county, and gave large majorities for the state and district candidates. We pushed the right along from the start. We elected a central committee and an advisory committee, and the banner of unity came up, these last being older men, and everything worked like a charm. We made no compromise with either the republican or democratic party but "kept in the middle of the road." Our light is one of principle, and when compromises are made with the old parties, either by endorsing their candidates or swapping off at the election, we compromise principle. We have shown in this county that it is a successful as well as an honest plan to "keep in the middle of the road." If this is done by the nation we are advocating. Yours for success in '92. J. W. ZINK, Loup City, Feb. 20.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Leeds Importing company of Adrian, Minn., in this issue. This firm has one of the finest stock farms in the west as well as one of the most extensive. Three thousand acres of land are used by them, while three large house barns and numerous other buildings are necessary to accommodate their large and increasing business. Mr. Goodenough, the senior member of the firm, has been in this business since 1880 and is a very careful buyer and an excellent judge as to the merit of the stock handled. He will be found by our readers courteous and obliging and one that it is a real pleasure to meet.

This firm also handles Galloway cattle and Shropshire sheep. Write them for catalogue and mention THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE. A. J. Rigby & Co., have twenty-one one-quarter sections in Wheeler and Garfield counties that must be sold. For a cheap home address them, 1025 O St. 35-1.

Lincoln is a better place for dentistry than Omaha. Mrs. F. of Fremont, who had an irregular shaped mouth, tried repeatedly to get teeth that she could wear at Fremont without success. The teeth hurt her mouth, made it so sore that she could not wear them, and would fall out of her mouth when she attempted to talk or sing. She went to Omaha and tried the dentists there with no better success. A few days ago she came to Lincoln and got a set of Dr. Burrows at 1208 O street that gives entire satisfaction. She can talk, sing and eat with them now all right. 37-2.

Fairies desiring German millet seed should write the Farmers' Exchange company of Adams, Neb., for prices at once. Beef and Butter. Everybody wants beef and butter and if the readers of this paper wish to know how to start right to obtain these much needed commodities, read the advertisement elsewhere of the public sale of Hereford and Jersey cattle at Seward, Neb., Saturday, March 5, 1892, by E. E. Day, then write him for a catalogue and send the sale agent by some one of your stock, and you will start right. Mr. Day has nothing but the choicest representatives of both breeds of cattle and he has been very successful in winning many of the best prizes offered at the different western state fairs where he has shown the past four or five years.

Wanted. A good broom-maker can get a job with good pay by applying immediately to E. E. LYNN, Albion, Neb. (3012) For Sale. An improved farm of 160 acres, in Webster Co. all fenced, 125 acres broke, 35 acre pasture, 13 acres of this is fenced for hogs. Of short-hand, type-writing and telegraphy is offering superior facilities for acquiring a found practical training in these arts. If you are contemplating attending a school of this kind it will be to your interest to call on or address them at 1196 O street, Lincoln, Neb. 32-2.

The Population of Lincoln is about 60,000, and we would say that, unless one-half are troubled with some ailment of the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others, we would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottles 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists. 27-2m

He Loved His Fellow-Men. Cardinal Manning was a learned and good man. He labored all his life to elevate the people. His work, like that of Christ, was among the poor and lowly. Even after becoming a cardinal, it was not an uncommon thing to see him in the slums of London, in an ordinary people's garb, studying the condition of the masses, which he attributed to a defiance of God's laws by the laws of man. He is dead; but the world will be better because he lived.—San Francisco Star.

Alliance Meetings.

President Powers will visit the following counties on dates named. Places where meetings are to be held will be announced later: Johnson county, February 29 and March 1. Nemaha county, March 2 and 3. Richardson county, March 4 and 5. Pawnee county, March 7. Gage county, March 8 and 9. Jefferson county, March 10 and 11. Thayer county, March 12 and 14. Nuckolls county, March 15 and 16. Webster county, March 17. Franklin county, March 18 and 19. Harlan county, March 21. Furness county, March 22 and 23. Red Willow county, March 24 and 25.

Box Butte County Alliance. All delegates to the Box Butte County Alliance are urged to attend the next meeting of the County Alliance to be held at the court house Saturday, March 26, at 10 a. m. Some important matters will be presented. CLARK OLDS, President.

Madison County Alliance. The next meeting of the Madison County Alliance will be held at Battle Creek, Neb., on Saturday, March 12, 1892. As business of importance will be brought before the meeting a full attendance is desired. NANCY HANKS, Secretary.

Lancaster County Alliance. The next regular meeting of the Lancaster County Alliance will be held in K. of L. Hall, Lincoln, Neb., on Friday the 4th day of March, 1892. This meeting will be one of special importance to the Alliance, and it is necessary that every Alliance in the county has a full representation. Alliances who have not reported names of their delegates should send the list at once to the secretary at Sallitilo and also see that your dues are all paid up. A special meeting of the presidents of all subordinate Alliances in the county will also be held at the close of the meeting for instruction in the unwritten work. I. N. LEONARD, President, Wm. Foster, Secretary.

A Grand Alliance Meeting. LITCHFIELD, NEB., Feb. 13. One of the largest and most enthusiastic open meetings of this Alliance was held here on the above date, Bro. Wright, assistant state lecturer spoke over two hours. Bro. Wright is creating great enthusiasm. Independentism is stronger here than ever before. The plan of taking up collections and selling reform literature to sustain our lecturers in the field is enthusiastically received. We are in splendid fighting trim for next fall. I will send in some names for THE ALLIANCE after our next Alliance meeting. JAMES SLONE.

The Alliance Dying. EDITOR FARMERS' ALLIANCE:—I hear remarks made by persons who would be glad to believe it, that the Alliance is dying. I don't know how it is in other communities, but our Sub-Alliance No. 888 at its last meeting received seven new members. We are holding meetings every week, mostly public, and discussing questions of interest to the masses, and we always have a crowded house. I think another way to do much good is to hand around Alliance and independent papers after we have read them, as many people will subscribe for a reform paper after they become interested. I give the list of names of our political opponents, and I think I have done some good work in that way. THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE should be in every reading room in Nebraska. Yours for reform, W. A. BATES, JR., Fremont, Neb.

A New Song Book. We have received a simple copy of "Songs of Industry," words and music by Charles S. Howe of Michigan. It is a choice collection of songs for farmers' Alliance and industrial labor reform organizations, temperance meetings and the home. Alliances and others getting up entertainments will find it valuable as the music is new and the words well adapted to the inspiration so desirable in songs of this character. The book can be ordered from this office or the author, Charles S. Howe, South Allen, Mich. Price 25 cents per copy, or 20 cents a copy by the dozen.

Three Months for Ten Cents. It has been over a year since the close of our last offer to send the Missouri World three months (thirteen weeks) for ten cents. Now we make the offer again to give our friends a chance to go down in their jeans and do a little missionary work and also to get trial subscribers.

This offer will remain open until the capacity of our press is reached. This may be in two weeks or it may not be for several weeks. Take all you can get until we give notice of the withdrawal of the offer. We have made this offer three times before and each time we had to "cry nuff." Papers ordered before St. Louis conference will do most good as a correct report of the proceedings of that great event will appear in the World and will not likely appear in any old party paper. Sample copy free. Missouri World, Chillicothe, Missouri.

Do you want city property? If so, A. J. Rigby & Co., have it, 1025 O St. 35-1

Barred Plymouth Rocks AT WALNUT GROVE. Eggs for hatching $2.00 per 100. Also Month-old broiler chicks, 50c per 100. Nothing but choice, high scoring birds used. Pure and clean, eggs guaranteed. 37-1m Mrs. Z. S. BRANSON, Waverly, Neb.

It Pays to Trade at the Leader the Cheapest Store in Nebraska. THE LEADER, 1211 O Street, Lincoln, Neb. Always visit us when in Lincoln, you will find it to your interest. OBTAIN CHICAGO PRICES FOR YOUR PRODUCE.

The way to do this is to ship your Butter, Poultry, Eggs, Veal, Hay, Grain, Wool, Hides, Beans, Broom Corn, Green and Dried Fruits, Vegetables, or anything you have to us. The fact that you may have been selling these articles at home for years, is no reason that you should continue to do so, if you can find a better market. We make a specialty of receiving shipments direct from FARMERS AND PRODUCERS, and probably have the largest trade in this way in this market. Whilst you are looking around for the cheapest market in which to buy your goods, and thus economizing in that way, it will certainly pay you to give some attention to the best and most profitable way of disposing of your produce. We invite correspondence from INDIVIDUALS, ALLIANCES, CLUBS, and all organizations who desire to ship their produce direct to this market. If requested, we will send you free of charge our daily market report, shipping directions and such information as will be of service to you, if you contemplate shipping. When so requested proceeds for shipments will be deposited to the credit of the shipper with any wholesale house in Chicago. Let us hear from you. 11-3m
