

The New York Life Insurance Company.

We desire to call attention to the advertisement of the New York Life Insurance company, found on the last page of this issue. The operations of this great company, organized in 1845, practically cover the whole history of life insurance in this country. Its growth has been phenomenal and more marked than that of any similar institution in the land. Now with assets of over $125,000,000, all of which have been stamped with the great seal of the state of New York, and a surplus exceeding every liability of over $15,000,000, it stands to-day the strongest financial institution in the world. The company is a purely mutual one, its policy holders being its only stock holders, every dollar of profit, after paying necessary expenses, being divided among its members. The splendid results of twenty-year tontine policies now maturing in this company attest the excellence of its conservative and able management. Only one other company has ever matured any of these twenty-year contracts, and their results fall far short of those achieved by the New York Life. In issuing its "New Accumulation Policy" the company has filled a long felt want. It is absolutely without restrictions, as to residence, travel or occupation. Its guaranteed surrender values are larger than those of any other company, and it contains but one condition, that being the payment of premiums. This contract beats anything yet offered to the public by any of the old line companies, for notwithstanding the many advantages offered, the rates remain the same. Every farmer in Nebraska should protect those dependant on him by insuring his life. He can give no valid excuse for not doing so, and the time to insure is right now. Life and health are both uncertain, so do not delay, but provide yourself at once with the only property which will not depreciate at your death, a property that will not only provide a competency for your loved ones in the event of your being called away, but should life be prolonged, your policy will be a source of income in your declining years. An accumulation policy in the New York Life is good in life or death.

Romine's Meetings.

Mr. J. B. Romine will speak at Calloway July 16th. The occasion is that of the representative convention, with a grand mass meeting in connection. This is the third time Mr. Romine has been called to Custer county since June 1st.

He will also speak at Center school house near Beaver Crossing July 9th at 8 p. m.

Wright at Bennett.

Hon. W. F. Wright, on Saturday, June 25, addressed an open meeting of Alliance No. 1588, a short distance south of Bennett. The school house was well filled a number of ladies being present. J. W. Reese presided. They have one of the best glee clubs in the county at this point. Several labor songs were sung, and Miss Ella Hall, the organist, rendered some good instrumental music. Bro. Wright made a lengthy address. The audience would not let him quit short of nearly three hours. It was a very successful meeting.

Favors Gresham.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., June 27, 1892.

Press dispatches announce that Walter Q. Gresham will accept the nomination of the Omaha convention if tendered him. This news takes like wildfire here. With him at our head we can win.

Judge Gresham will command the respect and win the votes of thousands of republicans.

I trust that your paper's influence will be used in his behalf. Not since the days of Lincoln has there been a man mentioned that so universally touches a chord in every true heart as Judge Gresham. A patriot, a statesman, a man who has at heart the welfare of the great industrial classes of America. Respectfully yours,
J. W. OLMSTED.

Fathers.

If your counsel and entreaties have availed nothing with your poor erring son and strong drink is sapping their life blood, destroying their brain, ruining their lives, send them to us. We can cure them.

Tendency of Politics.

The charge that politicians run politics in the interests of capital and that politicians' politics are corrupt is a true charge. But do not let the people suppose that they are blameless in the matter. The people as a whole take no interest in politics. Caucuses, primaries and elections are held without the knowledge of hundreds and with thousands not participating. In time the best political party on earth, under such circumstances, comes under the sole control of place hunters and professional political leaders. If less than a dozen men in Chicago agree that this or that political course shall be followed, or that such and such men shall be nominated, their decision will be ratified. Less than twelve men can thus rule Chicago. In almost every campaign some enthusiastic citizen will be found spending his breath in vain in prophesying that the men whom the ring have settled upon for nominees will not be nominated, and wasting his strength in working for their defeat. But any one who understands the drift of politics knows that the enthusiastic citizen is a political tenderfoot.

The great mass of citizens thus permit the politician to use parties for his own special benefit; and as he is out for what there is in it he naturally gets on the soft side of capital as soon as possible. It may be correct to say that the fellow should be an honest man. All men should be honest. But if the people persist in exposing the politician to temptation they must expect that he will often fall.—Farmers Voice.

Give the Rest a Chance.

We ought to have another big war here so the rest of us can buy three dollar's worth of greenbacks for one dollar's worth of gold, and then buy United States bonds with those greenbacks, at par, and draw 7 per cent interest, like the war millionaires did, so we can become millionaires too. Then it was when it paid to start national banks; then what seemed to be 7 per cent was really 70 per cent. For $100,000 greenbacks taken to Washington would buy $100,000 in 7-30 bonds, and $90,000 paper notes were brought home leaving only $10,000 of our money there. But our $100,000 bonds drew 7 per cent interest in gold—$7,000 per annum, and this on the $10,000 equals 70 per cent. Let's have another war, and all get rich.
