NATIONAL CONVENTION

Outline of the Order of Business for the People's National Convention at Omaha, July 2-4.

Preliminary Work on Saturday - Memorial Services on Sunday, and Nominations on Monday.

The following is the general plan of the work of the convention adopted by the national committee:

The various state delegations will meet on the morning of July 2d and choose for each state three members of the national committee and one member for each of the following committees: (1) credentials, (2) rules and order of business, (3) permanent organization, (4) resolutions.

At 10 a. m., July 2d the national convention will be called to order by Chairman Taubeneck in the Coliseum building. Temporary organization will be formed and committee on credentials will be appointed. A season of speeches, songs, etc., will then follow.

When the committee on credentials report, permanent organization will be formed and reports from committee on resolutions heard. If possible all the work except nominations will be completed on Saturday.

Saturday evening the grand reunion of the "blue and the gray" will be held in the Coliseum building. All ex-soldiers, regardless of politics, will be made welcome at this meeting. Speeches will be made by prominent ex-union and ex-confederate soldiers.

On Sunday afternoon memorial services will be held in memory of Colonel L. L. Polk and Rev. Gilbert De Lamatyr.

On Monday nominations for president and vice-president will be made.

Monday evening a grand ratification meeting and parade will probably occur.

Tickets of admission to the convention are under control of the national committee, and will be distributed among the state delegations on the most equitable plan that can be devised.

N. I. P. A. MEETING.

The Nebraska Independent Press association will meet at the Delone hotel (Nebraska headquarters) July 1st at 9 p. m. All editors of reform papers in Nebraska are urged to be present.

S. EDWIN THORNTON, Secretary.

"I am standing now just behind the curtain, and in full glow of the coming sunset. Behind me are the shadows on the track, before me lies the dark valley and the river. When I mingle with its dark waters I want to cast one lingering look upon a country whose government is of the people, for the people, and by the people."—L. L. Polk, July 4, 1890.

HON. L. L. POLK, Died June 11, 1892.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mourn for the foremost gone,
Polk, of immortal name,
Worthiest to lead us on,
Wielding truth's sword of flame,—
Honored by honest men,
Hope of the humblest man,
Millions commanding when
God called him home.

Tyrants rejoice o'er thee,
Struck in thy manly prime—
Working men weep for thee,
Leader of love sublime,
Fighting to disenthral,
Brother, endeared to all,—
Earth felt a giant fall
When the blow came.

Philip of Macedon,
Hero of phalanx fame,
And his yet greater son,
Joining the spears became
Captains invincible—
Greater thy work we tell,
Felt in the gates of hell,
Kings to cast down.

Phalanxes leader of,
Millions with ballots blest,
Wise as the Greeks, shall move,
Spirit of thine impressed,
Joined against tyranny,
Fighting till all are free—
Thee from thy heights, shalt see
In justice enthroned.

GEORGE HOWARD GIBSON,

TWENTY FIVE CENTS

The Greatest Political Newspaper in the West 'Till After the Election For Only Twenty-Five Cents.

Fifty Thousand Subscribers Wanted—An Appeal to Reformers to Help us Spread the Light.

In order to secure 50,000 subscribers to THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, and correspondingly increase its power for good in the coming campaign, we have decided to offer the paper from now until after the November election for 25 cents to new subscribers in clubs of five or more.

We make this offer in the hope and belief that the reform workers of the west will take advantage of it to send us in new names by the thousand.

People's party organizations should arrange for a systematic canvass of every precinct and thus put THE ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT in the hands of every man who will read it.

We appeal to every believer in the truth of our principles, to every lover of liberty, to help us spread the light. Can YOU spare an hour in this cause? Almost any independent can get up a club of five in an hour. Try it. Now is the time to act.
