

An Alliance Picnic.

About 1500 people turned out to the alliance picnic in Gillette's grove three miles south of Shelby in Polk county. Music was furnished by the Shelby brass band, and songs by the Apollo glee club of Stromsburg.

Hon. J. V. Wolfe addressed the crowd in a very able speech in the forenoon. After the crowd had made way with a grand picnic dinner, Judge Wheeler spoke. He was followed by I. D. Chamberlain who made one of the best speeches of his life. The county attorney of Polk, and uncle Charley Walker of Butler also made short speeches. All the speeches were received with many signs of approval.

The sale of privileges on the ground netted about $75 for the campaign fund. Much credit is due Mr. Gillette the owner of the grove for his hospitality, and Mr. H. B. Linton president of the organization for his efforts in making the picnic a grand success.

People's Independent State Conventions.

The peoples independent electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to elect and send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at the city of Lincoln, Thursday June 30, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of selecting eight delegates at large to the People's National convention, to be held in Omaha, Neb., July 4, 1892. And also to elect delegates to the state convention to be held at Kearney, Neb., Wednesday, August 3, 1892, at 8 o'clock p. m., to nominate the following state officers, viz: Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, attorney-general, auditor, commissioner of public lands and buildings and superintendent of public instruction. The basis of representation will be the same in both conventions and the same delegates may act for both conventions, or two sets of delegates may be elected as counties may determine at their county conventions.

The basis of representation will be one delegate for every one hundred votes or major fraction thereof cast in 1891 for Hon. J. W. Edgerton for Judge of the supreme court, which gives the following vote by counties:

While the committee do not feel it best to lay down any definite test as to who should be allowed to vote at the primary elections to elect delegates to the various conventions, as any test would not work equally well in all localities, yet we would urge upon county and precinct committeemen, and all having the primaries in charge, to adopt such rules and tests as will best secure a fair expression of the independent voters of the state.

The question of selecting delegates to the National convention to which the congressional districts are entitled is left to the districts themselves, either to call congressional conventions in their respective districts or to select them by districts at Lincoln at the state convention, at the same time the delegates are selected to represent the state at large.

We would recommend that no proxies be allowed at either convention, but that the delegates present cast the full vote to which the state or county is entitled.

We would also recommend that the primaries for electing delegates to the County conventions be held Thursday, June 23, 1892, and that the County conventions be held Saturday, June 25, 1892.

J. V. WOLFE, Chairman.
C. H. FITTLE, Secretary.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

In addition to the above named officers eight presidential electors will be nominated at the Kearney convention; one from each congressional district, and two from the state at large.

The Alliance Plow Boy: If sub-treasury is injurious to labor, why do the non-producing classes oppose it? If it is unconstitutional, who has the power to make it constitutional? If debt and credit is the overshadowing causes of existing evils, what plan is offered in lieu of the sub-treasury to remove the cause.
