

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

Good Tidings From Various States—The New Party Gaining Ground Rapidly.

The Situation in Maine, Georgia, Indiana, Washington, California and Minnesota.

"Tidings of Great Joy."

IN CALIFORNIA.

The reform movement seems to thrive well in the "glorious climate of California." Plans for the organization of the state into people's party clubs have been formed and are being put in operation.

The nominating of Weaver and Field was ratified by a grand meeting at San Francisco. All classes of citizens are falling into line. The new party will elect several congressmen.

IN MAINE.

The People's party is organized and hard at work in the "Pine Tree State." L. C. Bateman, candidate for governor, is in the field, making rousing speeches and working up the people. Maine was the banner state in the old greenback movement and there is no telling what she may do again.

IN GEORGIA

the nominee for governor is William L. Peck a well to do farmer. A full state and electoral ticket is named. In his speech before the state convention the chairman said "If the Alliance should die tomorrow it would have accomplished one grand work if no more, and on its tomb could be written 'It has destroyed all sectionalism.' The people's party has drawn the north and the south together, and has done more than all other agencies combined towards wiping out sectional feeling."

IN INDIANA

the fight was inaugurated at the great Weaver meeting at Vincennes. Throughout the state the new movement is gaining ground. Leroy Templeton the people's candidate for governor is stirring up the animals.

IN WASHINGTON.

Ralph Beaumont has been out stirring up the people on the Pacific coast. He delivered a great speech at Tacoma, Wash., a few days ago. The chances of success in that state are good.

IN MINNESOTA.

That grand "Tribune of the People," Ignatius Donnelly is the standard bearer of the people's party and he will make the grandest campaign ever made in Minnesota. The republicans have induced a small faction of Alliance men headed by two or three self-seeking politicians to nominate a man named Baker on what is called an "Alliance ticket," but it will cut a small figure in the campaign. The republicans have put up their strongest anti-monopoly leader for governor in the hope of checking the rising tide, but it will be in vain.

The Independents Away Ahead.

PALMER, Neb., Aug. 1, '92.

The independents of this vicinity held a grand rally at the opera house here on last Thursday evening. The largest crowd ever seen here assembled and enthusiasm ran high. W. F. Critchfield of Fullerton was the orator of the evening and discussed the issues of the day in a clear and convincing manner.

After the meeting an independent club of 116 voting members was formed and has been increasing considerably since. This was twice over and two to spare what the g. o. p. club had the first evening.

Not over fifteen republicans attended the meeting and several left when the eighty-four counties, and unveiling of the g. o. p.'s record got too warm for them. The republicans have commenced taking in ladies and children to try to equal the independent club here, and more misrepresentation with regards to their numbers may be looked for soon. The correspondent of the B. & M. Journal in his report of the meeting misrepresented facts in every particular, but this does not surprise those who know him as his chief stock in trade consists of an ability to villify and call names. While misrepresentation may do to work a landlord with a board bill it amounts to nothing in reporting a meeting where there were hundreds of good men to bear witness to the truth.

It is admitted there were more than six at the g. o. p. caucus, but one was a visiting republican and one a twelve-year-old boy.

His talk of anarchy and calamity would sound better from a different source or from one whose business methods would stand closer inspection.

The independents are stronger than ever here and their ranks are increasing every day by acquisitions from both old parties.

No Room at the Top.

'Such men as Hatch, and Bland, and Pierce, and Mansur and Lewis, and Senators Morgan and Daniel, need have no aspirations in the Cleveland party. Plutocracy has them marked for destruction. It is only a question of time. They stood for the people, and all such men, and all those who have ever even winked at the Farmer's Alliance, will soon realize that the spirit of intolerance intends to destroy them. These men are among the ablest and most efficient men of the day, but plutocracy has placed the seal of its doom upon them, and they must go. Why? Because there is no "room at the top" in the Cleveland party, every place worth having is filled by a henchman of plutocracy, and patient merit is turned down and required to do drudgery by whipping the discontented into line. The same is true to the same or a greater degree in the Harrison party. (They should no longer be called the democratic and republican parties because they have departed from the principles). Thousands of the best men in both these parties go unrewarded and unrecognized because the top is full and they are crowded down.—National Economist.

"Losses and Lies" shows up where "profits" come from and how they are obtained. It is a scorcher, and don't you forget it. See our list.

THE POLITICAL POOL.

MR. E. P. ROGGEN,

MY DEAR SIR:—Wouldn't it be a good idea for you to write another letter to Johnny Watson about now? You should hustle around and see the "old time machine men" at once for there are "several large-sized breakers ahead." "It will not do to let every one into the secret. Gather a few of the select together," and "make a little medicine" at once or the G. O. P.'s name will be pants.

THE POLITICAL POOL.

Tom Benton & Co., alias the board of transportation:

Dear Sirs:—It is now about time for you to get your show in order for your annual tour through Nebraska. I suggest that you put in Col. Johnson for ringmaster. He is a good one. I suggest also that you send out a trusted agent to select from the railroad henchmen of the state a goodly number to act as "supes." Have them thoroughly "coached" so they won't make any bad breaks. Then advertise your show well, and invite the local "calamity howlers" to be present and air their grievances. I think, however, it will be well for you not to invite "Calamity Bill" Dech. He is "bad medicine." He might write another letter. Don't say anything to Chas. G. Dawes of Lincoln. He is an ugly customer. He knows too much. He might be too much for the ringmaster. Also you'd better get A. J. Gustin out of the state if possible. He is the most "cantankerous cuss" in the state. If he hears your show is on the road, he'll travel a thousand miles to see it. And he'll paralyze somebody sure. Get the U. P. and B. & M. companies to fix up a few new figures for you. Season them well with gall of the same brand used last year.

These suggestions are free, gratis, also private and strictly confidential.

Yours, etc.,

POLITICAL POOL.

P. P.—You ought to have that reduction on green apples from Falls City to Kearney, by way of Omaha, preserved in alcohol and exhibited in a large glass jar. It will prove a drawing card.

N. B.—Get Boyd to loan you the original copy of his famous veto. Have it framed for exhibition. It will be a great "hit" sure. Also look out for Johnson—not the King Bee, but that other Johnson up at Norfolk. He's a crank of the first water.

Where's the man that said that technical points have been raised by Benton and Geo. Bowerman when bonds have been taken there for registration and that the payment of a small sum on the side has removed all obstructions?
