In the beauty of the hills
 Christ was born across the sea,
 With a glory in his bosom
 That transfigures you and me.
 As he strove to make men holy
 Let us strive to make them free,
 Since God is marching on.
 —Julia Ward Howe.

This department will be under the direction of J. M. Thompson, state secretary. Short items from Alliances on matters of general interest, questions when disputes have arisen, and any news bearing upon the great work of our organization will be welcomed by the editor. Write plainly, on one side of the paper only, and address "Alliance Department" ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT, Lincoln, Neb.

We would be glad to get items from every county in the state on condition of the Alliance work.

Are You Ready?

Are you ready for the question? We have argued pro and con.
 We've turned it up, we've turned it down, we've turned it off and on;
 We've looked at it in earnest faith, sometimes with darkest doubt;
 We've turned it outside in, and then we've turned it inside out.
 We have laid it on the table, we have had it on the floor;
 And as for the amendments, we've had them by the score;
 To leave it to the state, or to the church or to the city,
 Or to the tender mercies of a compromise committee.
 Are you ready for the question? A radiant youth that stands
 Before the fairest form on earth, and held with gentle hands,
 Peering into her soulful eyes and seeing them aglow,
 Never asks her such a question—she was ready long ago.
 And we're ready for the question; we are waiting to reply—
 The obstructives grumble "no," but all true souls grumble "ay."
 The day of speech is over, the hour for work has come,
 The heroes win the victory and the coward crowd is dumb.
 —Rev. J. P. Hutchinson in National Economist.

Notice to Alliances.

I wish to remind many of our Alliances that while the interest in the work of the organization is well maintained all over the state, Alliances have not made their reports as promptly as I would like to see. Remember that your last annual meeting mapped out a big year's work and placed three lecturers in the field, largely increasing our necessary expenses. I hope that every Alliance that has not already done so will instruct its secretary to make out and forward its report, with state dues without delay, and see that your business affairs are conducted in a business way. If you have no blanks on hand a postal card request will bring them to you. Let me hear from you promptly. Very sincerely your brother in the work.
 J. M. THOMPSON,
 State Secretary.

Hitchcock County.

CULBERTSON, NEB Sept. 5, 1892.
 Judge Woolman and his son W. O. Woolman opened the independent campaign in Hitchcock county by speaking at the sod church in Logan precinct on Saturday evening September 3rd. After the speaking steps were taken to organize an independent club, preparations are being made to give Hon. McKeighan and Van Wyck a right royal reception when they come here. Hitchcock will get to the front on November 8th.

Homes and Irrigated Farms, Gardens and Orchards in the Celebrated Bear River Valley on the Main Lines of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific R. R. near Corinne and Ogden, Utah.

Splendid location for business and industries of all kinds in the well known city of Corinne, situated in the middle of the valley on the Central Pacific R. R. The lands of the Bear River valley are now thrown open to settlement by the construction of the mammoth system of irrigation from the Bear lake and river, just completed by the Bear River Canal Co., at a cost of $3,000,000. The company controls 100,000 acres of these fine lands and owns many lots and business locations in the city of Corinne, and is now prepared to sell on easy terms to settlers and colonies. The climate, soil, and irrigating facilities are pronounced unsurpassed by competent judges who declare the valley to be the Paradise of the Farmer, Fruit Grower and Stock Raiser. Nice social surroundings, good schools and churches at Corinne City, and Home Markets exist for every kind of farm and garden produce in the neighboring cities of Ogden and Salt Lake, and in the great mining camps. Lands will be shown from the local office of the Company at Corinne. 15tf
