Carl Brown's Book.

WAYNE, NEB. Sept. 3, 1893.

I desire to call the attention of the populists to the merits of the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of the plutocratic period "Carl Brown's wonderful book"

Pictures speak volumes when capitalized sentences fail to impress. Brown's pictures interest the voter that cannot or will not stop to read of the treason that has enslaved a nation of willing toilers.

Buy the book for your hired man to read. Loan one to that republican neighbor who is kept in ignorance by a hiring press, with instructions to read and loan to his damp, cool democratic friends. The lessons taught are swift and certain. Tariff talk is sickly twaddle to the voter that has read Carl Brown's book of pictured history. The silent teachings of this book will produce a big majority for freedom's candidates.

Students are more than delighted with the handsome new building and elegant furniture. Work has begun in earnest and every 50 Cents on the Dollar.

We have been fortunate enough to secure the entire stock of Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, etc., formerly owned by A. HURLBURT of this city at a very low price and we are selling it now. Every article in the stock at one-half the price at which Mr. Hurlburt sold the same goods, not near wholesale price for it. Never will you have such an opportunity again to purchase fine clothing at such prices. The sizes are regular; lines all full now and you can easily be suited. We would offer this advice to parties wishing to purchase: Come as early as you can, before the assortment gets broken; You will be sorry if you don't. No goods bought; we will simply close out this stock and quit. The bankrupt stock of stationery, inks, school books, paper, pens, cutlery, etc., from the Fremont Department Store of Fremont, Neb., is now on sale here at 50 cents on the dollar.
