THE WEAVER RALLY.

This will be the most important meeting of the campaign, and coming as it does just before the election, will have a decided effect. Hence no effort should be spared to insure its success. Independents should learn right now, if they haven't already learned it, that a political rally of this kind can be made a success only by great labor and some expense. If the independents of this county are resting quietly, each depending on somebody else to do the work, the parade on next Wednesday will be a failure. To prevent this let every independent farmer in the county prepare to do his part at once. There is one thing that every farmer can do, and that is to be in line with himself and his wagon.

Another thing that independents should do is to urge old party neighbors to attend and hear General Weaver. No man can hear him without learning to admire and respect him.

Let every patriotic independent in Lancaster county transform himself at once into a rallying committee and go to work, and next Wednesday Lincoln will have the grandest rally ever held in Nebraska.

THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

Excellent Meetings Held in all Parts of the County--Voters Falling Into Line.

The independent candidates and workers have done a good week's work during the past week. Day after day they have rushed out to the various parts of the county to gather in the harvest of voters.

Leonard and McNERNEY, candidates for the senate, Howe, Chambers and Griffin, candidates for the house, and Rose the coming county attorney have all been doing faithful and effective work. They carry with them maps showing the concentration of wealth in the New England states, and charts showing the asylum steals, etc. They are discussing mainly state issues, and appealing to the voters to stand up for Nebraska this fall, and give the people's party a trial. They are winning voters all along the line.

Mr. Schweizer, candidate for commissioner, and Uncle George Roos of Kearney are speaking to the German voters, and doing most effective work.

The candidates are being ably assisted by Judge Cromwell, Duncan Youngs, F. L. Leighton, B. F. Stevens and others who are taking an active part in the campaign.

Mr. J. M. Meddins, our printer candidate, is not an orator, but he is doing a great deal of quiet effective work especially among the laboring men of Lincoln.

LANCASTER PRECINCT.

In Leavitt's school house the 20th, there was a good meeting held, although the crowd was not large. B. F. Stevens, J. C. McNERNEY and Duncan Youngs addressed the people.

In Garfield Precinct.

McNERNEY and Youngs addressed a small but very attentive crowd on the 22nd.

At Highland,

The evening of the 22nd, Roos and Schweizer, both Germans, addressed a good crowd of Germans.

At Emerald.

General Leese, "Judge" Cromwell, and O. E. Goodell addressed a rousing meeting at Emerald, October 15.

At Jamaica,

October 21st, there was an overflow meeting, and immense enthusiasm. Howe, Leighton and Griffin were the speakers.

At Firth,

October 22nd, there was a great meeting. The crowd consisted largely of republicans who gave close attention. The speakers were Rose, Cromwell, Chambers and Griffin. A number of republicans were won over on state issues.

In Stevens Creek Precinct.

At Jacobi school house, I. N. Leonard and S. Edwin Thornton addressed a fair crowd of voters. Mr. Leonard talked general issues, and Mr. Thornton spoke on state issues, making a special appeal to the railroad workers present.

At Havelock,

On the evening of the 21st, Richard Trevelick addressed the railroad hands at Havelock. The meeting was moderately successful although held in an unfinished store-room which was very cold. Prof. E. W. Craze furnished the vocal music.

Other Meetings.

Rousing meetings were also held at Waverly, at Bird's school house, in Little Salt, at Yankee Hill, at Cheney, at Malcom and at Gar Creek school house.

Next Week,

There will be meetings held in all the wards of Lincoln. Good speakers will address the meetings, and there will be a torchlight procession every night.

Can't Vote for Woodward.

STOCKTON PRECINCT, Lancaster Co., Neb., Oct. 22, 1892.—MR. EDITOR:—Permit me to give you my reason, as a republican, why I cannot support and vote for the would-be county attorney, Woodward:

Any man that uses such mean and contemptible tactics to get the nomination as Mr. Woodward did, is not worthy of the support of an honest republican, and I hope everyone will give him the G. B.

Before the republican primaries were held in this county he found out that I was a candidate for delegate, from Stockton, and that I was in favor of Mr. Hamilton for county attorney. Now what did the Honorable Mr. Woodward do?

He just hired Mr. Moses Oppenheimer, Snyder and Jesse Moore to fix up the matter in his favor by bringing beer and whisky into this precinct to bribe the voters with, and fixed up a delegation for him.

This was on July 14th and 15th and the primaries were held on July 16th, and of course he carried his point.

And furthermore these and other parties circulated the most infamous lies about me that any man ever conceived. Any man that will bow so low to use such contemptible means ought to be defeated. I do not propose to be set upon by any such unprincipled men.

Any man that gets his nomination through the use of whisky, cannot be trusted to fill a position of that kind. I make these charges boldly, openly, and above board, and they dare not deny them, as I have more in store for them.

I shall work and vote for Mr. Rose. Yours; a republican,
OTTO R. BOESWETTER.

AFTER LAND THIEVES.

Tuesday's World-Herald advises County Attorney Snell of Lancaster county to get after some of the thieves that have been operating in and around Lincoln, particularly Frank Hubbard and Dan Lauer. The following is an extract from the article:

A mile and a half southwest of the asylum was a piece of school land, which the state lost. The law requires that all school lands shall first be advertised for sale, after being first offered for sale, shall be subject to lease. In this case, however, they advertised this land for lease contrary to law.

The county commissioners were the parties appointed to appraise this land, they appraised it by the direction of the land commissioner for leasing purposes at $20 an acre; but suspicious that all was not right the county clerk telephoned to Land Commissioner Humphrey if this appraisal was for sale or lease, and he replied, "For leasing purposes only." Still suspicious that all was not right the commissioners insisted that the clerks write over their signatures these words, "This land is appraised for leasing purposes only."

The land was appraised in forty-acre tracts. They divided the forty acres into two lots, which on January 12, 1890, the date which the land was advertised for leasing purposes, the commissioner offered the land for sale.

It is alleged that Dan Laur had his hired girl disguised as a poor old widow. This "poor old widow" bid off lot 1 containing eighteen acres, and again lot 2 containing eighteen acres; J. Dan Lauer, jr., bid off lot 3, and F. O. Hubbard, the missing foreman, obtained lot 4; William Robinson bought lot 6, and Joe Burns, the nominee on the republican ticket for representative, secured lot 7, making 120 acres only being sold. At the time this land was sold it was worth $100 per acre. The county commissioners, however, were directed to appraise it for leasing purposes only, and appraised it at $20 an acre.

If Mr. Snell can arrive at the bottom facts in this transaction, he will probably find that in this deal the state lost $9,600.

There is a great work before the county attorney of Lancaster, and the people of the state watch his conduct of the fight with great interest.
