RAILEOADS IN POLITICS.

Either of the Old Party Canididates Was Acceptable to the Nebraska Railroads.

The Railroad Circular.

(The Chadron Signal.)

The final stroke of the state campaign by the railroads of Nebraska was held back until the day before election perience we know that sentiment do when the following circular was sent if by our votes the sources of our living to every railroad center in the state. is weakened or destroyed by vicio The copy now in possession of the Signal was nailed to the door of the bagage room in Chadron the evening beelection.

The object in holding back this cirgrlar was to reach the railroad employees the very last minute before they voted and at the same time prevent its being circulated among the farmers where it would instantly betray its origin and unite them in opposition.

The mask is torn off. The door is open. The screen is down. And every voter in Nebraska can now plainly see the people's party is coming in ise, the democratic and republiose the people:

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5, 1892. the Railway and Express Employes of Nebraska:

The executive committee of the Railay Employe's Club of this state have n the discharge of their duties interiewed Hon. J. Sterling Morton and Judge Lorenzo Crounse, democratic and republican candidates for governor, espectively, with perfectly satisfactory results. On the other hand the committee have twice courteously requested an interview with Hon. C. H. Van Wyck, the populist candidate for governor, regarding matters of vital mportance to every railway employe, many different occasions his readiness Therefore we, as railway and express this fall and winter tour, via Union Pacific and Southern Pacific systems, are perfect. the journey being made DIDACY. Under these circumstances it with the greatest case and comfort.

is highly important that every employe should use his influence in all | The Official Vote in the Six Congress honorable ways, among his friends an acquaintances, to secure votes for candidates who have expressed ther selves as being favorable to our i terests. It is a well known fact that the populist partys hould obtain power we as a class, together with our familie must suffer financial loss both by r duction of wages and want of emplo

This is no mere theory; every thin ing employee knows that such a rest would be inevitable. We should self protection, do everything in c power which, as good citizens of t state, we can do, to prevent such police from being carried out.

No candidate who subscribes to sudoctrine, and agrees if elected to he carry it out should receive the vote a single employe, if he is true to h home and his family. From bitter of not purchase the necessities of life: a legislation, we have ourselves whol to blame. It lies within our power, standing together upon the comm platform of "self protection." to pr serve our living, and harm no sing class. Your committee has sound the alarm: you must now work at the

Advancing Fast Enough.

With all the winds blowing our wa from first to last Morton and complete power as fast as true friends should desire. It is ate managers, worked in unison normal, substantial, intelligent grow otect the the corporations and which we want. A mush-room par is not the kind needed to take contr of our great state and nation. The principles of our party are national principles and we can do but little in the way of reform legislation until our cause has advanced farther in many other states. It is not state laws regulating money, transportation and land that we need, but national laws. We are strong enough in this and many other states to prevent any laws from being passed which conflict with our principles.-Cedar Rapids Republican.

"Our Italy," So Charles Dudley Warner happily out he utterly ignored such requests, and terms California, and for a winter renowing that he has publicly stated on sort that glorious state is without a prove my measures that might be peer.
