An Alliance Revived.

GARFIELD TOWNSHIP, Custer Co. EDITOR ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT:

As I have not seen any news from this part of the country, I will drop a few words.

Good Hope Alliance has revived and elected officers, Wm. Stewart, presi dent and James Ho comb, secretary. We are going to try hard to keep it up from this on. Ours is the first Alii ance that was organized in Custer county. We have got to dig along another four years, then the independents will try their hands at running the government awhile. If every farmer would take your paper we would be sure of their votes. D. W. LAUTERMAN.

State Lecture's Meetings.

A LETTER WORTH READING,

A Firm of Horsemen Tell What They Think of the Alliance-Independent as an Advertising Medium.

Below we publish a letter from W. J. Wroughton and company of Cambridge Nebraska, who are among the best and most extensive importers and dealers in horses in the west:

CAMBRIDGE, NEB., Feb. 13, 1893. Editor ALLIANCE-INDEPENDENT:

Enclosed please find check to balance last statement. Please continue my advertisement through March and

In regard to our stick, we have a very fine selection of horses on hand consisting of all the fashionable draft and coach breeds. We have sold the present season about 40 head of stallions of the various br. e ls. They have gone into Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming. Our horses are in fine health and condition, and intending buyers cannot afford to pass us by without inspecting our horses. We have no cheap horses in the general acceptation of the term. They are cheap only in the sense of "the best is the cheapest." We cannot sell a first class horse for $800 or $1,000, but we guarantee to give buyers m we horse and quality combined for the money than any other similar concern in the business. Our borses are all imported by ourselves, therefore we offer no one the refuse of some other mans stock. We offer any firm $500, premium that ean show 30 horses in one string of the different breeds equal to 30 that we can show together. Our horses are all vo ng, all sound and all in good heart. We give the most liberal onarance of any firm in the state and the fart that or rold customers are returning to us to buy again is evidence conclusive that they are pleased with our stock and our manner of doing business. We feel weil repaid for advertising in the ALLIANCE-INDEPENDE IT, as it has brought us many customers. Wishing you success I am

OUR ILLUSTRATION.

The two English Shire stallions shown in the above cut are King Fashlon (3777) and Ducalion (7106) owned by Joseph Watson & Company of Beatrice, Ner. This firm we believe has the finest stud of English Shire horses in Nebraska. They have won an enviable reputation among the horsemen of the entire west. Their horses have uniformly won the highest honors at the fair associations, hence the very appropriate, familiar title of "Grand Sweepstakes Stud" as applied to them. Joseph Watson & Co. were one of the few importers who imported a bunch of stallions in 1892. These were selected by Mr. Watson in person, and the selections were made wholly upon the merits of the animals without reference to price. It was one of the best importations made during 1892. The firm has now located a branch establishment at Lincoln with A. L. Sullivan, the well known horseman, in charge. The stud can be seen at

A. L. Sullivan's barn We anticipate this firm will receive a very large amount of business in the next two months. We advise all our readers who can to call and see these prize winning stallions. They are sure to please
