

THE TENTH CALL.

Having exposed the blasphemous assumptions, and the libidinous communication of AURICULAR CONFESSION AS NOW AUTHORIZED AND REQUIRED, by the church of Rome in the United States, and on both continents. And having made these disclosures in most of the large cities on this continent, and recently in Omaha, Lincoln and Nebraska City, Nebraska, and at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and having been denounced, and cursed by the priests of Rome, for so doing, we hereby DEFIANTLY challenge any accredited Roman priest, bishop or cardinal on the continent of America to disprove the books and facts disclosed in our private lectures to men. Now let this issue be accepted, or for guilt and shame, let the Roman clergy cease their slanderous communications, and let penal enactments suppress the Romish confessional as a prolific source of crime and debauchery.

J. G. WHITE.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Nov. 26, 1891.

What You Want.

You want a solid road-bed, over which trains may run safely at high speed; you want comfortable day-coaches, elegant reclining chair cars, or magnificent Pullman sleepers; you want dining cars in which you may obtain excellent meals at a reasonable price, you want civil, attentive, well-trained employees; you want close connections and union depots.

All these you want; and—if you travel by the Burlington Route—all these you will have.

The Burlington is the short line between Omaha, Chicago, Peoria, St. Louis, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Lincoln, Denver, Cheyenne and Deadwood, and its facilities for reaching almost every town in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota are unequalled.
