Another Batch of Boodlers Among Chicago's Aldermen.

MINNESOTA LAND SCANDAL.

A Jealous Wife Shows Her Husband Head-Schneider, the Canna Friend, Pass the Death Penalty—A Belonging Banker Disappears.

CHICAGO, March 18.—At last the hoodling aldermen of Chicago's city council are to be brought to justice. States Attorney Longenecker and the citizens have begun an investigation which will be completed only when a large number of the aldermen are landed behind the bars at the Joliet penitentiary.

There is plenty of evidence to convict some of the most prominent aldermen, and it has been furnished largely by their colleagues. The evidence is ample to secure conviction. Some of those who have been regarded as the bravest boodlers are now falling over each other in their hurry to reach the state attorney's office.

It is known that aldermen have "squealed." It was impossible to find certain aldermen at their homes last night, and it was whispered that they had already taken flight. The evidence to be presented to the grand jury today is not to be made public at present.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 18.—A big scandal has developed at the state house over the land recently released by the Duluth and Iron Range railway company. CHICAGO, March 18.—Assignee John W. Lanehart began an investigation of the affairs of Michael Schweisthal's private bank which failed Wednesday. Mr. Lanehart says the failure is not a bad one and that the depositors will probably get dollar for dollar, though some of the creditors may not fare quite so well.

CHICAGO, March 18.—There is intense excitement over the murders discovered to have been committed in Denham villa. The body of the woman found under the fireplace was identified as that of Mrs. Denham, who formerly resided at Birkhead. The police are still digging beneath the floors of the villa and further disclosures are looked for.
