In the matter of the estate of Joseph Meyer, deceased:

Upon reading and filing the petition of Bertha Meyer, showing that said Joseph Meyer departed this life in the city of Omaha on the 26th day of November, A. D. 1891, leaving no last will and testament, as the petitioner is informed, and verily believes that the petitioner is the widow of said deceased; that said deceased was, at and previous to his death, an inhabitant of said city of Omaha, and that he was possessed of real and personal estate in the county of Douglas to be administered, and that the value of the personal property is estimated at $500. The petitioner further shows that the names and residences of the heirs at law of said deceased are as follows: Anna Meyer, aged 18 years; Josephine Meyer, aged 16 years; John Meyer, aged 14 years; Otillia Meyer, aged 13 years; Geo. Meyer, aged 10 years, all residing at 1811 Webster street, Omaha, Nebraska, and praying that all persons interested in said estate may be duly cited as required by law, and as to this court may seem proper, to show cause, if any there be, why administration of said estate may not be granted to the said Bertha Meyer, and praying that such other and further order and proceedings may be had in the premises, as may be required by the statutes in such cases made and provided.

Ordered, that April 2, A. D. 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., be assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at the County court, to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to the persons above named and all other persons interested in said matter, by publishing notice of this proceeding in THE AMERICAN, a newspaper printed in said county, three weeks successively previous to the time appointed.

J. W. ELLER,
[SEAL.] County Judge.

And you will further take notice that unless you appear to contest the petition of Bertha Meyer at the time and place appointed for that purpose, the court may grant said petitioner's prayer in your absence, and may grant the further prayer of said petition.
