The Company Dissatisfied with the Faitare to Arrest Strikers-Two Will Not Surrender - The Laurenceville Mills 17. to He Started.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 22 - Yesterday was the quietest day in Homestoad since the 6th inst. The arrests of Hugh D'Donnell and Hugh Ross created no exsitement among the working people, and the absence of inflammatory talk shows a lethargy that looks like the beginning of the end. The leaders say that the rest of the battle must be sight in the courts.

Messrs. Weihe and Brennan, president and legal advisor respectively of the Amalgamated association, were closeted with Governor Pattison for an hour in the afternoon. Governor Pattison refused to disclose the nature of the conference and Messrs. Weihe and Brennan were equally reticent. Mr. Brennan said, however, that the object of the visit had seemingly been accomplished and that as it has been successful the present trouble would be brought to an immediate conclusion. But the statement made by Governor Pattison to a United Press reporter directly after the conference that he did not know how much longer he would remain in Homestead, would seem to indicate that he does not take a peaceful view of the sit-uation, and would not leave until matters had assumed a more definite phase. The militia received

Rations for Five Days, and it is almost certain they will remain in Homestead for that period and probably longer. It is the general belief among persons interested here that Messrs. Weine and Brennan failed to accomplish the object of their mission. They went directly from headquarters to the railroad station and took a train for Pittsburg. They did not see any of the local leaders either before or after the conference. Samuel Burkett, James Flavnagan, Bylvester Critchlow and Anthony Fla-herty, the four accused of murdering

Buskett and Critchlow say they will surrender themselves if Hugh O'Dounell and Hugh Ross are admitted to bail, Flannagan A Flaherty are said to have deterribed not to give themselve up or Fver, themselves to be arrested undergines circumstances. It is believed the warrants for the arrest of Homestern pople for complicity in the Pinkerton repulse will be brought to Homestead for service within a few

The Lawrenceville Mills.

There is every indication that the Carnegle company proposes to start up its two mills at Lawrenceville before many days. The natural gas is burning in the furnaces and several carloads of billets are being daily received and stacked in the mill grounds. The strikers have doubled their pickets and both the land and river entrances to the mills are being watched. Half a dozen strangers attempted to reach the gates yesterday with the view of applying for work, but they were intercepted by the strikers and after a brief parley agreed not to persist in their intentions for the They claimed to have come from Baltimore of their own volition. The Carnegie company is said to have a large number of applications for positions from men now employed at the Black Diamond Steel works and Clark's Solar Iron works.

O'Donnell and Ross.

Application for the release on bail of Hugh O'Donnell and Ross will be made before Judge Magee. If, however, before Judge Magee. If, however, District Attorney Buleigh is inclined to be less good natured in case of Burgess McLuckie, he can demand his legal right to twenty-tour hours grace in orer to examine the evidence against the two men. in this event they will be compelled to remain in the county jail until Saturday at least. No additional informations were sworn by Secretary Lovejoy, despite his statement early in the week that he intended to take such steps day after day until every one of the hundreds of men against whom the company claims to have evidence is nuder arrest. The officials of the company are understood to be cosniderably chagrined over the failure of the constables to arrest several prominent strikers named in the warrants and to be of the opinion that any move in the direction of at tempting wholesale arrests of the rank and file would be little better than far-

O'Donnell Went to New York.

Pittsburg, July 22.-Hugh O'Donnell says his destination on his recent mysterious mission was New York. What he accomplished he believes will tend toward settling the strike. He will not deny the suggestion that he consulted with members of the national Republican committee.

At noon today Hugh O'Donnell, ac-companied by Hugh Ross, entered Mag-istrate McMaster's office and surren-dered. Service of the warrant was accepted and in a few minutes both men were inside of the jail.
