NATIONAL EDUCATORS.

Officers Elected-A Number of Interesting Papers and Addresses. SARATOGA, N. Y., July 15. - The National Educators elected the following officers: President-Albert G. Lane, Illinois. Secretary-R. W. Stevenson, Kaneas. Treasurer-J. M. Greenwood, Mis-

Vice President and directors were also elected.

The first paper of the morning was read by Mr. E. O. Vail of Chicago, who took for his subject "Teaching Current Events in Schools."

The paper was discussed by E. F. Presby of Washington, D. C. George E. Hardy of New York, read a paper upon "Literature for Children." Hamilton W. Mable of New York, ditor of The Christian Union, read a paper upon 'Literature for Teachers."

Superintendent Lane of Chicago spoke briefly upon the representation of educational systems at the world's fair, and the morning session closed with a paper upon the "Educational Advantages of the World's Congress," by the Hon. C.

C. Bonney of Chicago. The evening session was devoted to addresses by Andrew C. Draper of Albany and James Hughes of Toronto, Mr. Draper took for his subject "The Duty of the State in Relation to the Kindergarten." Mr. Hughes' subject was "Spontaniety and Control."

Alternate Nevin's Claim.

Washington, July 15.—Robert M. Nevin of Dayton, O., an alternate-atlarge to the national Republican convention, has raised a very novel issue in regard to the making up of the official record of the Republican national convention. It will be recalled that on the first ballot at Minneapolis the vote of Onio was appounced as 44 for McKinley and 2 for Harrison. At the time it was understood generally among the Ohio people that ex-Congressman Boothman, acting as Governor McKinley's alternate, cast one of the votes for the president. But Mr. Nevin disputes this claim. He has written to Mr. Charles W. Johnson, who was secretary of the convention, to have the record corrected so that it will show that he was Governor McKinley's alternate, and that he cast his vote for Mr. Harrison, But Mr. Nevin does not stop at this. He claims that when the vote was announced he got up in his seat and stated to the convention that he was one of those who voted for Harrison. He also insists that this be given a place in the records.

Secretary Jackson has been investigating the matter and finds that all the stenographers claim that Mr. Nevin did not make a speech, and that there was no such assertion as he de-

Minnesota People's Party.

Sr. Paul. July 15.—The People's Party state convention completed its ticket, but did not take up the matter of fusion with the Democrats. This was on the advice of Mr. Donnelly, and the subject will probably be considered later by the Democratic and People's committees. The state ticket is as follows: Governor-Ignatius Donnelly.

Lieutenant Governor-Kittle Halver-Secretary of State-H. B. Martin.

Treasurer—P. M. Ringdal. Attorney General—John L. McDonald. zee of Supreme Court-Canty, Damei 2. Euck and W. F.

It is ex pected the Democrats will endorse McDonald, Canty and Buck at their convention in August. During e noon recess, the delegates from the Third, Sixth and Seventh congressional districts met and decided upon a school house canvass to ascertain the strength of the party.

Democratic Committee Officers. WASHINGTON, July 15. - Sena tor Brice, chairman of the Democratic national committee, was seen by a representative of the United Press in regard to the report that he would continue as chairman of the committee. He said that he was in New York a week ago and it was pretty well understood that Mr. Harrity of Pennsylvania would be chairman of the national committee, and Josiah Quincy, Jr., of Massachusetts would be chairman of the campaign committee. The matter of the chair manship and the committees will be discussed further at the meeting which takes place in New York next week, but he is of the opinion that officers will be given as above.

Lawn Tennis Championship. CHICAGO, July 15.—Ryerson carried off the honors of the lawn tennis games for the western championship.

Ohio Bar Association.

Toledo, O., July 15 .- The second day's session of the Ohio Bar association at Put-in-Bay opened with an increased attendance. The principal address was made by Justice Brown of the United States supreme court. Hon. Edward H. Fitch of Jefferson spoke on the Australian system of registration of realty conveyances and Professor Baldwin of Yale college on American jurisprudence
