A RIPPER CRIME.

Scotland Startled by a Gardener's Diabolical Deed.

THE ROMESTEAD INDICTMENTS.

True Bills Against the Strikers for Treason and Against Carnegie Officials and Pinkerton Men for Murder—The Toledo Boondoggies—Other Criminal News.

GLASGOW, Oct. 12.—The most horrible murder in the criminal history of this city was committed at West Lodge, a villa on the Albert road, on the outskirts of Glasgow. A woman, still unidentified, was mutilated after the method of "Jack the Ripper," diambled, and the pieces of her body were buried in the villa garden. McEwan the gardener, who doubtless is guilty of the crime, has disappeared.

West Lodge, one of the finest suburbs of Glasgow, is surrounded by a garden some 125 feet deep on every side. McEwan, with the assistant gardener, Mc Dougall, lived in a separate house. At 6 a. m. McDougall knocked at McEwan's door to wake him. McEwan responded "All right, Tom, I won't get up yet; I am tired." McDougall went away and worked in the garden until 9 o'clock when he returned. His knuckles were not answered and he forced open the door. He found the walls, ceiling, furniture and floor spattered with blood.

The clothes from the two beds were scattered over the floor and sprinkled with blood. Red finger marks streaked the side of the bed and there was not a piece of furniture or an article of clothing which was not blood stained. McDougall ran coatless, hatless and crying in his terror to the police station and told the story. After fortifying him with brandy the police took him to West Lodge with them. From the room they followed a bloody track to four fresh made mounds in the garden. In a flower bed from which the plants had been removed, they found about two feet under ground the mutilated head and unjointed arm of a woman. In another similar bed they uncovered the trunk. It was absolutely devoid of all internal organs. Beside the trunk was the woman's left arm, also unjointed. In another flower bed they found the missing organs and the legs, unjointed. The trail led from this last bed to a tool house. There under a pile of rubbish and tools was a biscuit box containing a fragment of a large saw, the teeth still clogged with flesh and blood and several smaller pieces of the woman's body.

A search of McEwan's room revealed several razors, apparently unused for some time, and an ax, recently washed, but still showing slight blood stains. As far as can be judged from the mutilated remains of the body McEwan's victim was robust of medium height, and about 30 or 35 years old. Her clothing was well made and of good material.

Kansas Bank Failure. SPRINGFIELD, Kan., Oct. 12.—The State bank at Arkalon, this county, suspended payment Saturday and the assets are reported to be only nominal. County Treasurer E. R. Ragland has over $10,000 belonging to the county deposited in this bank and made a demand for the money Saturday but was refused. His term of office expired Monday and an attachment suit was begun on his behalf to protect as far as possible the interests of the county. It is more than probable that criminal suits will be instituted.

Emmet Dalton Jailed. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Oct. 12.—Emmet Dalton was taken to Independence to jail by Sheriff Callahan without any objection by the citizens. William went along. Now that he is gone the citizens feel relieved, as his presence here kept the town full of undesirable visitors, who were apt to cause trouble. He was better and it is now thought that he will recover. The special officers investigating the raid claim to have found a relay of horses left by the Daltons with friends at Double Creek to aid in their escape.

A Desperado's Deed. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 12.—In Marango county, Paul Horn, a notorious desperado, had a row with Mr. William Rosenberg about the price of a suit of clothes. Horn assaulted Rosenberg's wife with a buggy whip, beating her unmercifully, while she had a baby in her arms. When Rosenberg interfered Horn shot and killed him. The woman was in a delicate condition and will die. Horn fled, pursued by dogs. He was captured and put in jail at Funsdale, but afterward taken to Linden to prevent lynching.

Story of Shocking Brutality. PITTSBURG, Oct. 12.—John B. Spence and John Weaver were arrested on charges by Humane Agent O'Brien. Spence, he alleged, rented a house from Weaver in Elliot borough, and not being able to pay the rent he gave Weaver his three daughters, ranging in age from 10 to 16 years. Weaver took the girls home with him and the four of them have been living together for almost a week. The girls tell a story of shocking brutality. The accused gave bail for a hearing.

A Missing Captain. CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Captain Simpson, of the schooner Bruce, has been missing since the 4th inst. and his relatives attribute his disappearance to machinations of the seamen's union. The Bruce came into Chicago Oct. 4 with a non-union crew and after being up at her docks Captain Simpson left the boat to go down town and has not been seen since.

Killed by an Overdose. GARDEN CITY, Kan., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Abigail Gregory, mother of the editor of The Sentinel of this city, and of Frank Gregory, of The Democrat of Springfield, Mo., died from the effects of an overdose of corrosive sublimate given her by a practicing female physician of this place.
