TO PRESIDENT HARRISON.-We know that we voice the sentiment of Your sorrow is shared by all. The tears that you shed are but the fountain which surrounds your home is but the AT ONCE. evening twilight that is engulfed in the darker shades of advancing night hamlet to hamlet, and from farmhouse to farmhouse that the wife of our president is dead. In this dark hour we remember only that she was the wife of our chief magistrate. With you we sympathize.

THIS Issue of THE AMERICAN goes into 6000 homes. If every man contributed $1.00 to the Miller Fund, the murderers would not long escape the gallows. What will you give?

THE Woman's A. P. A. gave an oyster supper in Ramge block Thursday evening. From the time the doors were thrown open at 6 o'clock until late in the evening a constant stream of humanity was surging into the dining room, where an elegant repast was spread. The meal was, to put it mild and at the same time tell the truth, the best we have ever partaken of upon a like occasion. The oyster soup was evidently made by an expert, and the cake and pastries by epicures. Taken all in all, the supper was a complete success, and netted the ladies about

WE have received a letter from Dr. Duryea in which he says: "I am in the habit of telling the truth and have yet, in my long public life, to be convicted of intentional mis-statement. In this instance, I have absolutely no motine to misrepresent the facts. For the reasons, first, that I do not seek an election to the School Board; and second, that in no case would I accept an election, if I could not be sustained in doing in similar circumstances what I did in Boston, namely endeavor to keep the schools free from the charge of sectarianism of every sort, in order that there may be no reasonable objections to their teaching on the part of parents, and if possible to discourage the founding of parochial schools by making the public schools just and fair to all citizens," He even asserts that the reports published in the Boston Citizen as to his action were unfair. How is this friend Citizen. Did you get your report from the secretary of the school board?

REV. J. D. FULTON, the celebrated anti-Roman lecturer has been in the city this week in attendance upon the Baptist convention. Before returning to Boston and the east he will deliver several lectures. His first one was given in the First Baptist church Wednesday night and was heartily applauded. He took as his subject Wednesday evening "Spurgeon and Manning." Of this lecture the Bee said: "His anti-catholic utterances were tumultously applauded, showing that the speaker had the sympathy of a part of the audience at least." His lecture Sunday morning and evening will be in the first Baptist church at the invitation of Rev. Dr. Hallings. Subject at 10:30 a. m., "Christ, Not Mary, the Helper," at 7:30 p. m. WE WILL TELL YOU WHY.

We were asked why we did not say something last week about Mayor Miller's death. Well, we knew nothing to We believed him to have been murdered and still believe it, and yet we do not know why he should have been murdered. We notice that THE AMERICAN lays the murder to Catholics. Some have charged it on the gamblers, while now and then some say nothing by it, as such a thing, certainly known, would only serve to unite the Rev. An Unanswered Question. To Messrs, J. D. Keat, John Mayne or A. P. Leach.-Gentlemen: As the editors of the Republican have deserted to answer a plain, straight-forward question, as members of the A. An early answer will oblige.-Harian Tribune.

We presume the editor of the Tribune does not care who answers this question, so long as it is answered truthfully. A Roman Catholic who is loyal to ALL the teachings, laws and dogmas of that church, is a traitor to the government under which he claims protection. It is not a part of the motto. The motto of the order is: "Fidelity, Purity and Protection." It is not in the ritual. We know this is so because we are president of council No. 9, of Omaha, and are fully capable of understanding the English language. We know more than this, we know, unless the editor of the Tribune is a Roman, that even he, clinging tenaclously to his own political party, does not believe a man is a loyal American citizen who will lay claim to being a Roman Catholic first and a citizen of the United States afterward. He does not and trothfully answered.

Dr. Duryea in Boston.

TO THE AMERICAN:

The announcement that Rev. Dr. Duryea, recently of the Boston school board, is seeking election to the school board of Omaha, occasions much surprise in this city, where his peculiar position and influence in our conflict with Roman Catholic intolerance is so

Dr. Duryea stood almost alone among the Protestant clergy of this city as a defender of the Romish position. On the Protestant side of the controversy were such representative clergymen as Rev. David Gregg, D. D., of the Park street Congregational church; Rev. Edward Everett Hale, Unitarian; Rev. A. A. Miner, Universalist; Rev. A. J. Gordon, Baptist; Rev. J. W. Hamilton, and, in fact, every other Methodist elergyman); Rev. Dr. A. H. Plumb, Congregationalist: Rev. Dr. Jas. B. you in your hour of trial, and declined Dunn, Presbyterian: President W. F. L. T. Townsend, and scores of other sistency! be a matter of general interest, your well-known men, all of whom made construction of the phrase "mental public arraignment of the Romish position. The position of the representative clergy and business men is well illustrated by the lecture which I enclose, delivered at the time by Rev. Episcopal church, this city.

The most significant "straw" was this: That when the matter went to the polls, not one Roman Catholic member was elected to the Boston school board-although Boston is (in politics) a democratic and Roman Catholic city. Thus was the position of Dr. Duryea's opponents vindicated.

The World-Herald, of your city, in an interview with Dr. Duryea, does not state facts. Dr. Duryea was not sustained in driving Swinton's history from the schools. It was dropped from our schools after Swinton stultified himself by changing the first note and Romanized his history. J. G. HOLROYD,
