"The Three C's'

NEW YORK, NOV. 21. The subject of the Rev. Dr. M. Arthus's sermon in the entrary Byptist church last evening was " Shall Public Shoels Become Nurseries of Sectarianism of Patriot-Enges 7

There was a special fitness in discossing this question at the present time. he said, because in the past week a number of preinter had mot in relevan concluse in this city and devoted a great amount of time to the public school question, under the superintendence of a special emissary of the pope. He thought it a most humiliating thing that a man should be sent from Rome to teach Americans how to manage their public schools.

Every land under the heel of Rome is characterized by illiteracy and ignorance Italy is more ignorant than China, Spain is more ignorant than China. Every land where Romanism of princ is dominant stands conspicuous for its he ecclestastical or canon law is derived directly from God, by which the pontiff can, to send a man from ignorant Italy to instruct us in the management of our public schools.

The question before us is whether our schools shall become setarian. Rome has become supercillious the past few months, more than ever before. The great prominence given to the parochial schools in recent Columbian processions has made her supercillious. There is a determination to force this question upon us such as never before existed in the history of the country.

I shall not enter to-night upon the political aspects of the question in the light of the recent election. I shall only say now that the public schools met with a great reverse in the decision of the ballots cast in Illinois and Wisconsin. The public shools were on them

I may be charge with bigotry, and I expect to see the newspapers to-morrow so characterize my remarks, but if standing up for the American public school system is bigotry, I am willing to be called a bigot.

The Roman priests are constantly denouncing the public school, and no one rebukes them, but if a Protestant defends the schools he is called a bigot. It is a title of honor.

At a recent Catholic Conference in Philadelphia, presided over by archbishop Rau, Judge Edward E. Dunn, the orator of the occasion said the time thrown off all disguise. The public school question ere long will be an already.

I know why Rome is opposed to
