

ASTRANGESTORY.

A Denver Divorce Reveals the Haddock Murderer.

A WOMAN ACCUSES HER HUSBAND.

The Murderer of the Iowa Congressman is likely to be found through the revelations of Mrs. Drummond, whose husband is seeking his freedom.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 3.—The truth in regard to the foul murder of Rev. Mr. Haddock at Sioux City, Ia., some years ago has been revealed at last. Mrs. Emma Drummond in open court accused her husband as being one of the conspirators who, in the dead of night, slew the defenseless preacher.

The murder of Mr. Haddock is still fresh in the minds of everybody. He was an earnest prohibitionist and very popular in Iowa. His entire influence was thrown into the scales against the liquor traffic. All America was startled one morning when they read that the hand of an assassin had struck him down. The most experienced sleuths in the country were put on the trail of the murderers and several arrests followed, including some prominent citizens of Sioux City. After a long and tedious trial the defendants were acquitted, and the prospect of ever dragging to the halter the slayers of Haddock was abandoned. But if the statements made by Mrs. Drummond are true the guilty parties will soon be brought to the bar of justice.

One of the largest crowds that ever assembled in a court room was present to listen to the divorce case of Emma Drummond vs. John Drummond. Mrs. Drummond is a blonde, tall, and of a graceful figure and carriage. Her whole demeanor while delivering her testimony was extremely haughty and disdainful. She testified that her husband was anxious to procure a divorce for the purpose of going to Yankton, S. D., to marry a Miss Hattie Wren, who was formerly a mistress of his; that she had fallen heir to $50,000, and she was willing to put up money for his living and gambling.

Under the fire of cross-examination the witness became greatly excited and created a sensation by stating that her husband procured $2,000 from her mother to use as "hush money" to silence a notorious character called "Bull-dog Dick," who knew of the murder of Rev. Mr. Haddock in Sioux City, Ia., and that he also confessed to her that he was an all-round thief and had robbed a man on a Union Pacific train and was arrested at Omaha, and that afterward he told her in her mother's parlor of plans he had laid for the robbing of a Denver bank, but that she divulged the plot and prevented its execution. For doing this he beat her into insensibility and she was compelled to remain in bed for some weeks.

The attorney for Mrs. Drummond dropped the witness and no further questions were asked her. Few people realized the significance of her testimony at the moment, but the story of the murder of Rev. Mr. Haddock is on every lip.

At a Human Flesh.

HAMBURG, Feb. 3.—Three of the seamen of the Norwegian ship Thekla, from Philadelphia, who were rescued by the Danish bark Herman, after enduring terrible sufferings on the foundering vessel, have been arrested on a charge of murder, the charge being based on their own confession that they killed and ate a sailor of the ship in order to save themselves from death by starvation. The sailor was a dutchman, and the starving men drew lots as to which should die, the lot falling on the victim twice in succession. Then the others fell upon and strangled him and devoured the flesh. The three men arrested are Norwegians, and their names are Anderson, Jacobson and Johanson.

Democrats Surprised.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In spite of the protest made by Congressman Houk and some of the other Tennessee Republicans against the consideration of the name of Judge Howell E. Jackson in connection with the supreme court vacancy the president has nominated him to fill the place. The appointment was an agreeable surprise to the Democrats here who had expected President Harrison to name a Republican to succeed the late Justice Lamar. Nevertheless the appointment is generally commended and the senate will promptly confirm it. Judge Jackson having been formerly a member of that body and accordingly entitled to the senatorial courtesy which is always observed in such cases.

Oppose the Increase Whisky Tax.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 3.—About 200 men interested in the opposition to the whisky trust plan to increase the tax on whisky met here in answer to a call for a national convention of those holding this position. I. W. Bernheim, of Louisville, called the meeting to order and Charles B. Poyntz, of Maysville, Kentucky, was chosen permanent chairman, Charles G. Perrin, of Kansas City, vice-president and Marion Taylor, of Louisville, secretary. The only active business of the day's session was the adoption of the report of the committee on resolutions strongly protesting against the whisky trust and the tax increase.

The Claudine Returns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The Hawaiian steamer Claudine which arrived from Honolulu on Saturday morning, last with news of Queen Liliouokalani's overthrow, and also brought the five commissioners who are now on their way to Washington with a petition for annexation, sailed on her return trip at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Colonel Grover Buried.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—The remains of Colonel George F. Grover, representative of the British World's Fair commission, were buried at Rose Hill. Among those who attended his funeral service were Major General Nelson A. Miles, of the department of the Missouri and members of his staff, and nearly all the members of the World's Fair directory.

Blew His Head Off.

KEOKUK, Ia., Feb. 3.—Andrew Nelson, a wealthy farmer living near Douds, killed himself. Placing the muzzle of a double-barreled shotgun under his chin, he pulled the trigger with a barrel stove and blew his head off.

WILL NOT INSULT THEM

A Cheyenne Mason Will not Insult Masonry by Defending It.

JOHN C. THOMPSON, EDITOR THE AMERICAN.—I write you the following, not prompted by religious inclination or fanaticism, but under a sincere belief that, after thorough investigation, I am convinced beyond a possibility of a doubt that the near future will make it necessary for every true American to carry a Winchester in defense of his freedom and to preserve the constitution of the United States. I have not arrived at this decision impetuously, nor have I been influenced by prejudice, for I number many Catholics among my closest friends, and, owing to our mutual friendship, this conclusion has been reached with the greater certainty and conviction. The information elicited from them I cannot help but consider very reliable. The encyclical letter of Pope Leo XIII, with its rebellious expressions and slightly veiled intentions of bloodshed, led to my asking of several of my closest Catholic friends this question: "In event of open trouble between the pope of Rome and the United States government, and the pope demanding your support, to which would you give your allegiance?" Three out of four told me candidly that as a matter of duty, they would obey the pope, and that he would receive their support. After closely questioning others, in spite of myself, I cannot longer doubt that in most all of my Catholic friends I shall encounter an armed enemy against our government in the event of such an issue arising—that in all faithful Roman Catholics the United States government can expect a rebel, and the more determined and deadly in comparison to his fanaticism and ignorant loyalty to his church.

The vicious hatred of the church of Rome, evinced and expressed so often by the pope against Freemasonry, if else were required, would the more surely convince me that one of the real objects of that church is to suppress education, freedom, free speech and every liberal thought.

I will not insult Freemasonry by defending it against so vile and corrupt a thing as history characterizes the Roman Catholic church of today. History does not record against the Masonic order persecution, confiscation of property, torturing of women and children, burning at the stake and murder. From my limited knowledge of Freemasonry, its teachings are to me and all honest men, the truest and most sure guide to become a Christian in all that the term implies.

A church that, through its official organs openly advocates its members to "keep thoroughly armed, and to resist the will of even the government; a church whose priests order its members to support a Roman—be he a rum seller, ignorant, or no matter what—because he is a Roman; a church that has produced the "Clan-na-gael," the "Molly Maguires," "Phoenix park murders," which sanctions and incites its ignorant members to mob public speakers, is, putting it mildly, a sanctified authority, surely, to damn Freemasonry. It is one of the highest tributes to the purity of Freemasonry to receive from a source of such ignorance and wickedness, a condemnation. When that day of conflict comes against this government, that has warmed this reptile against freedom, you will, Mr. Peckel, feel the weight of the just and mighty arm of Freemasonry, welded not as a rebel, but a loyal supporter of the constitution of our country, and you will then, I fancy, more thoroughly appreciate the power you have insulted by terming "agents of Satan," and this truest brotherhood on earth as a "criminal federation." Passing Events.

While there is a great interest manifested in the United States, in opposing the imposition of the Roman Catholic ecclesiastics and informing the followers that they should change their guides; there is also in Great Britain the same aggressive spirit. Roman Catholic priests, there as well as here, are leaving the Roman church, and the general inclination, after leaving, is to take others with them. If there are many men like Rev. Thomas Connellan to oppose the pope of Rome on those islands, it would be policy for him to have a consultation with the black pope, and see if he could not make some arrangement whereby some of the Jesuits, who are now in the United States might be transferred to those islands—especially to Ireland, and save the land which was bequeathed (?) to them by St. Patrick—from the "infidel dogs." The following extract from a Scottish paper will interest especially the sons of Scotland:

The Rev. Thomas Connellan's visit to Oban has proved a most successful one. Dense crowds flocked to hear him at all his meetings, and even Roman Catholics swelled the throng, anxious, no doubt, to hear what the converted priest would have to say for himself. Mr. Connellan created a most favorable impression upon all by his modesty of manner, and earnestness and sincerity of style, even those opposed to his views being favorably influenced by the cogency of his reasoning and the absence of all virulence from his remarks.

Mr. Connellan has never before been in Scotland, and he travelled especially from Ireland to Oban in order to give his addresses. He is stated to have been charmed with the magnificence of the Highland scenery through which he passed, and on Monday he greatly enjoyed a sail to Stags and Iona, by the steamer Grenadier. Mr. Connellan, who was accommodated at the Windsor private hotel, left on Tuesday by train on his way back to Ireland, but it is probable that Oban may receive another visit from him on a future occasion.—Oban Telegraph.
