

REV. CARR TALKS.

He Entertains a Crowd at the Court House.

Rev. J. Scott Carr, of St. Louis, lectured at the court house last night to a good sized audience. His subject was, "Our Country, Its Evils and Needs," and he handled it well and kept the audience attentive listeners.

Rev. Carr first stated before opening his lecture that it was a mistake about his going to start a paper here to be known as the American Monitor, and to be edited by himself. He has not, nor has he ever had any intention of such a thing. The thing arose over an item in an evening paper not long since, in which it said that the paper would be started in this city about September 22. Where the information came from is not known.

The reverend gentleman then began his lecture. His discourse related wholly to the American Protective association and the benefits to be derived from the order. He favors the Bible in our public schools, but does not favor religion being taught there. "That is a separate and distinct thing," said he, "kept up by the state in which religion has no right to interfere."

The gentleman painted a pretty picture of the American flag, and many of his hearers were moved. He outlined the flag as follows: White—purity and the forefathers of the revolution. Red—for the blood that flowed while they fought for their country's rights. Blue—representing the loyalty of each state, and that each would die for the other. The American Protective association is but a little over three years old, yet in that time its membership roll has reached to over 1,000,000 members, with 80,000 in Missouri alone. Its membership is increasing throughout the United States at the rate of over 1,000 a week.

Rev. Carr is the state organizer for Missouri, and has been with the order since its birth almost. His hearers were well pleased with the lecture; he is an eloquent and interesting speaker.

Rev. Carr was introduced by Mr. Logan C. Thomas, and was his guest while in the city. He left at midnight for St. Louis.—Sedalia, Mo., Gazette.

Figures That Speak.

From the report of the proceedings of the county board of Milwaukee, published in the Sentinel of the 29th of July, 1893, the following amounts were all owed against the county and will be paid out of the county treasury (when they get some money into it):

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Milwaukee Orphan Asylum $49,222. Milwaukee Infants' Home 110.00. Wisconsin Industrial School 1,306.71. Total $50,738.91.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. St. Vincent's Infant Asylum $2,078.77. Boys' Home Ind'l School $40. St. Francis 839.50. Good Shepherd Ind'l School 1,077.52. St. Rose Orphan Asylum 1,311.07. St. Milan's Orphan Asylum 1,265.00. Total $7,311.56.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. City, State and Protestant Institutions 89,077.20. Roman Catholic Institutions 20 per cent 1,306.71. 80 per cent 1,306.71. Total $91,690.62.

Comment is unnecessary. Either the Catholic Church turns out more county charges, 4 to 1, over all the Protestants, atheists, socialists, etc., or else there is a great lack of attention to the poor and needy by the authorities and the Protestant people. Which is it?

It is estimated that the Catholics compose about 40 per cent of our population in this city, yet they furnish apparently 80 per cent of all the objects of charity, or rather of the bounty of the county, to be paid for out of the money collected from the taxpayers.

If these estimates are not out of joint, something must be out of joint somewhere, must there not?

If they were paying their just share of the taxes apparently it would not look so bad, but when one sees blocks and acres of valuable buildings and grounds, the palatial residences and the insignia of wealth used and scattered over and around this city and county, paying nothing, producing nothing and running up to over $10,000,000 in value, is it not about time to inquire into this thing, and seek for the cause as well as the cure for it?—Wisconsin Patriot.

A Disgrace.

DULUTH, Minn., August 6.—[Editor AMERICAN, Omaha, Neb.]—Following is clipping from a Duluth weekly:

"Some time ago Mayor d'Autremont appointed Officer Robert Smollett sergeant, and we have been rather astonished to see that the city council has not acted upon this appointment. Officer Smollett's career has been such as to make him absolutely unfit, not only for promotion, but also for service on the police force.

"To begin with, he was discharged from the Stillwater, Minn., police force, and then came to Duluth. During this time he has distinguished himself by knocking down and beating unoffensive citizens.

"He is probably a 'good Catholic' and hates all others, Scandinavians in particular. * * * Once we saw him assault a man and call him all kinds of vile names, simply because he had a grudge against him. Another time he arrested a man on an alleged charge of drunkenness, pushed him down stairs to the lockup, thereby breaking his leg, and the city had to pay the hospital bill.

"Another time he arrested a man who didn't move quick enough out of his way. The man was, of course, immediately released and got judgment against Officer Smollett for false imprisonment; afterwards the city paid the money. * * * Last Saturday he jumped on the smallest officer on the force, and only the interference of another officer saved Mr. Smollett from getting a sound thrashing. By order of Mayor d'Autremont Sergeant Smollett and Officer Miller have been suspended ten days.

"We hope, however, that the police committee of the city council will take the matter up. This man Smollett is a disgrace to the police department and should be permitted to send in his resignation. Yours truly,

EXPECT SATOLLI'S RECOGNITION.

Belief at Rome That the United States Will Officially Receive the Ablegate.

ROME, Aug. 5.—The American government's official recognition of Mgr. Satolli is expected soon.

The nuncio at Paris reports to the vatican that there is little likelihood of any great number of republican Catholics being returned in the French elections. This is believed to be the reason why the pope abstained from sending a recommendation to the Catholic electors to vote for the republicans.

DALESBERG, S. D., August 16.—[FRIEND THOMPSON.]—As you are aware I am visiting in Dakota, and have formed a great many acquaintances since coming here. Among others, one is Charles Moore, the district school teacher, and let me tell you he is a patriot to the backbone. The first thing I saw when I came here was the stars and stripes floating over the little red school house, and I tell you it did my heart good.

But to come to the point. The people up here are afraid of an uprising of the Roman Catholics and want to arm themselves. Please send them any information you have as to the probability of an uprising and where they can procure arms. This would be a great field for an A. P. A. organizer. Hoping you will attend to this matter, I remain yours in F. P. and P.,

L. P. NORBERG.

The mayor of Montreal refused to extend official civilities to the officers of the Italian man of war Aetna on the score that, as a Catholic, he has espoused the cause of the temporal power of the pope. The mayor is superstitious and troubled with too much self-consciousness. So long as the pope maintains a modus vivendi with the government of King Humbert, a French Canadian need not hesitate to be civil to visiting sailors of Italy. The dignity and charm of civilization is largely inherent in its gracious obliteration of all other considerations and its recognition of personal kindness among people of different creeds, different parties and different races, as a common and universal privilege and obligation. Satolli himself accepted a banquet in Chicago from a society named in honor of the Queen of Italy. Belief in the necessity of temporal power is not obligatory upon Roman Catholics, the vast majority of whom are glad that politics and the church are divorced in Italy and would like to see them kept apart everywhere. Independence for the pontiff in his spiritual functions is what they desire.—Chicago Herald.

Shortly before each election the enemies of Americanism, in order to intimidate delegates and candidates, industriously spread reports that the Orange order and the A. P. A. are "falling to pieces" or "have seen their better days." For the last three elections has this rumor been spread broadcast only to meet with a most practical and vigorous refutation when the elections were over. This cry emanates as frequently from those Protestant soreheads, integral parts of one of other of the party machines, who finding they cannot use the order for party purposes are ready to make a treaty with Rome itself rather than the machine should lose its grip and they their chance of getting into some petty office where the maximum of salary with the minimum of work is to be had. Look out for such men; they need expect no mercy from members of patriotic organizations, which were never so strong or united as they are at present.—Morris Herald.

A very noteworthy item is found in the will of the late Lord Mowbray and Stourton, who was a Roman Catholic. The testator bequeaths to his wife £500, some furniture, and the use for her life of the family diamonds, which on her death are to be sold and the money divided amongst the testator's younger children, but exclusive of any one of them who may enter holy orders, or become a member of any religious establishment, order, or community. It is evident, therefore, that this Roman Catholic peer could not have been much in love with either the priesthood of his church, or its convents and monasteries.—Sentinel.

THE CITY.

There was an enjoyable soiree at the residence of Councilman Thomas Thursday evening.

There will be a degree meeting of American Loyal Orange Lodge on August 22d. All members requested to be present.

It seemed as though there was a great change last Friday evening at the police station. Everything was very quiet.

Councilman Prince is sorrowing because of the death of his father. The entire community will sympathize with him in his affliction.

The home of Policeman Burr was struck by lightning Monday evening, and damaged considerably. The family escaped without injury.

Say, Jerry O'Grady, what about that Irish-setter? What would you take for it? Do you not think it would be a good thing to return him?

F. W. Wessells, one of the directors of the Omaha Savings Bank was assaulted Thursday evening and seriously injured by unknown parties.

If the people who live on west Harny St., near the power house, will ask O'Grady about the young Irish-setter pup they lost, perhaps he may be able to give them some information.

"Wonder if we have heard all we will of the Seavey affair? What will the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners do?" are the questions being asked all over the city.

M. F. Martin says he only owns one of the "Martin's Plats," and that it is inhabited by respectable people. He states that the others belong to the Holman estate. He also stated that Barker and Estabrook owned houses in the burnt district which were being used for immoral purposes.

We understand that a drunk was found last Sunday on Leavenworth in the alley between Twenty-first and Twenty-second sts., at about 2:30 p. m. by an officer. It is said this man lay there for over an hour. The officer on said beat could not be found and another officer from the St. Mary's ave. beat had to be called to carry the man to his box and send him in. Where was Kelley?

We are all in a sense of wonderment as to why John Brady was not upon the "carpet" last meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, if it is a fact that said Brady did not report for over two hours on the night of Aug. 7th, and also missed one report on the night of Aug. 8th. We understand that Captain Cornick and Sergeant Whalen went out in the wagon to find him. Did they find him, and what was the cause of the delay?

MR. CLEVELAND TO THE POPE.

The President Addresses Pope Leo XIII. Through Cardinal Gibbons.

ROME, Aug. 12.—The pope has received the following letter from Cardinal Gibbons:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—To His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons.—Your Eminence: Permit me to transmit through you to his Holiness, Leo XIII., my sincere congratulations on the occasion of the golden jubilee of his episcopate. The pleasure attending this expression of my felicitations is much enhanced by the remembrance that his Holiness has always manifested a lively interest in the prosperity of the United States, and great admiration for our political institutions. I am glad to believe that these sentiments are the natural outgrowth of the Holy Father's solicitude for the welfare and happiness of the masses of humanity and his especial sympathy for every effort made to dignify simple manhood and to promote the moral and social elevation of those who toil. The kindness with which his Holiness lately accepted a copy of the constitution of the United States leads me to suggest that, if it does not seem presumption, it would please me exceedingly to place in his hand a book containing the official papers and documents written by me during my previous term of office. Yours, very sincerely, GROVER CLEVELAND.

OMAHA, Neb., August 14, 1893.—EDITOR THE AMERICAN: In your issue of last week you were kind enough to mention my name in connection with the nomination for councilman from the Sixth ward. I can assure you the compliment is appreciated, but as your information is erroneous, I hope you will kindly make a correction. I have not declared myself as a candidate, nor am I an aspirant (as was stated in the "Bee" some time ago) for this or any other office at the present time, simply for the reason that I do not propose to purchase an election, even were I in a position to do so.
