AWARE, AMERICANS.

You Have a Duly to Perman at the Ballot Des.

KANNAS CITY, Mo., Mar. 14, 1804. Milliop THE AMPUNIAN: Awain awake. ye Americani, do you not hear the pealing of fiomials thunder, from east to west and morth to month? Come. my felles constrymen, it is time yes were up and doing. Now, as more her fore in the history of our sensity, we need every true hive American. Our feredathers were every oppressed and tried by tyrannical rule and dicentions, but with the help of tiest were suchied to throw off the yoke of bendage, and hand down to their children the priceless gems, in the shape of our constitution, decisration of independence, public schools and our grand old flag. the stars and stripes, which in itself is sufficient to guarantic protection to those living under its folds. Without sor constitution and declarations of Independence where would we be today?

Without our public schools, free as the wind that blows, or the water that flows, open to all, rich, poor, black, white, native or foreign-born, non-seetarian and non-political, where would we be today? How many of my readers would be willing to do away with our present irce public school system today, and adopt a system such as the representative of Pope Leo XIII, Monsignor Satelli or any other of the Catholic cardinals would like to see, and if they had the power would establish in this free, blood-bought land?

Now, my fellow countrymen, it lies with you to say whether Americans shall govern America, or whether it shall be governed by ROME. If by Americans, the sooner you let your verdict in this case be known, the better for all concerned, because every day's delay gives our enemy that much more power. Do you not know that at the present time Rome holds two-thirds of the public offices, governmental, state and municipal, and yet SHE claims to have nothing to do with POLITICS.

You old veterans of the late war, either Union or Confederate, who our banner. The Protestant Holy Bible lought, for what each believed to be Tought, for what each believed to be right, for what each believed to be right, it is now time you buried the "bloody shirt" and unite upon this, the gravest subject this country has ever had to deal with. You, Junior Order United American Mechanics, Patriotic Sons of America, Sons of Veterans, Orangemen, Knights of Pythias and Masons, whose interests are identical with our interests, arouse youselves to the realization of the danger that surrounds us. Awake, and see to it that your neighbor is awakened and ready when the time for action comes.

Some few of you I am pleased to say, have allowed Rome to blind you with New York. her splendor of purple, scarlet and golden trimmings, or buy your silence with her hoarded gold. I pray God I am mistaken in my verdict. One thing is certain, you have not yet converted your own country from heathendom, and idol worship, and until such time as you are sure you have done so, you have no right to sustain a foreign mission. Why, in the name of God, send money to heathen countries; countries where the Catholics have held foll sway for centuries-- to convert their subjects, and at the same time allow the Catholics to come to our country and make heathens out of your people? Is it not apparent, upon its face, if you win your own people to God first that on carpenter work. you will have much more strength to win those people in heathen lands? Do not, I pray you, tear down the good work you have started here any more than you have, but concentrate your forces on one battle-field: win that to God first and He will wsist you to win the balance.

Install a love in the people for their native land. Liberty, freedom and the stars and stripes, free schools, free speech, and an assurance of protection and God will reward you for your labor. We need your assistance Protestant ministers, you can do more good in this cause then all of our patriotic papers put together. Won't you awake? Put on the armor and get in the front, or will we non-professed, yet God fearing men have to do your work for you, as has been done before. God forbid, be men, be God fearing men, but be country loving men, do your duty and do it now, if you wait it may be to late.

You fellow countrymen that live out in via other lines. the country and small towns and cities, you who read nothing but weekly newspapers which has a re-hash of stale news, or continued stories, some of you surely have heard of the grave questions of the day, and if so why don't you post yourselves.
