

FOUND THE LEG.

Which He Lost Very Suddenly Twelve Years Ago.

Jim Reisinger found his lost leg...

The unexpected appearance of the bear frightened the horses and they ran away...

Fortunately for Jim some drillers heard the explosion, and hurried to the spot to see how little there was left of Jim and his outfit.

"Why," said he, "those are the lower bones of the human leg! A complete set of them, too!"

"There couldn't be any doubt about it. No one else had ever lost a leg in that locality and never found it, and so it was Jim's long-lost leg, and no mistake.

"John," said Mrs. Billus, "what is the salary of an alderman?"

A professor at the university of Texas was explaining some of the habits and customs of the ancient Greeks to his class.

"What did the ancient Greeks do when it rained?" asked Johnny Fizeletop.

"Well, Charles," said the proud father, "you are to be graduated soon. What are your ideas as to selecting your profession?"

"I think I'll be a lawyer, father. I am fond of ease."

"I am the only daughter of an old, childless father, and I support several younger brothers with my own hands."

"I am an orphan, too," replied the mayor, "and it is as much as I can do to take care of myself."

"I thought you were too afraid of fire."

"I overheard the landlord say that his insurance had run out."

"He—if you loved me you would marry me while I am poor. She—you do me injustice. I love you too much to have your precious health risked by my cooking. Wait until you can afford to have servants—Life."

A CAT ON ITS TRAVELS.

The High-Born Tabby Switched Off in Washington.

The other day there was much curiosity shown by the travelers assembled at the R and O depot over a lank, common, gray kitten.

The kitten bore an old family name—Tabby. As the female travelers gathered about Mrs. Shaughnessy, complimenting her on her pet's friskiness and its disposition to become friendly, one of them asked:

"Another answered: 'I have heard of cats born without tails, but this is the first I ever saw.'"

"That kitten will never play ring-around-rosy with its tail; it may always have a house and home, but it will have a hard job to make both ends meet."

"No whistler is interested by that cat, it will ever be interested in the retail trade," were some of the remarks made.

Finally Mrs. Shaughnessy, to attend to her duties, was obliged to hide the kitten during her temporary absence. The woman who owned the cat was en route from Asheville, N. C., to Boston, and brought the kitten here, arriving about 11:30 a. m.

"Why," said he, "those are the lower bones of the human leg! A complete set of them, too!"

"There couldn't be any doubt about it. No one else had ever lost a leg in that locality and never found it, and so it was Jim's long-lost leg, and no mistake. They boxed the bones up and sent them to Jim at Prospect, where he lives now, and when I had left Butler county he had just written back and said that while the leg wouldn't be of much use, he was glad to see it, and was much obliged."

THE ROMISH OATH.

The constitution of princes are not superior, but subordinate to ecclesiastical institutions.

The laws of the emperor cannot divide the ecclesiastical or canon laws.

It is not lawful for an emperor to exact anything against the apostolic rules.

It is not lawful for kings to usurp the things that belong to priests.

No custom of anyone can thwart the statute of the pope.

Let no resistance be offered to the papal crown, unless it be in the specific manner provided, but let there be steadfastly fulfilled.

The oath imposed by the holy see is to be sworn, though it appear intolerable and insupportable.

The pontiff can neither be lauded nor condemned by the secular power.

That the pontiff was called God by the sons of the Prince Constantine, and that as God he cannot be judged as man.

That as God he is far above the reach of human law and judgment.

That all laws contrary to the canon and decrees of the Roman prelates are of no force.

That all of the ordinances of the pope are unconditionally to be obeyed.

We ought not even to speak to one whom the pope has ex-communicated.

Priests are fathers and masters, even of princes.

The civil law is derived from man, but ecclesiastical or canon law is derived directly from God, by which the pontiff can, in connection with his prelates, make constitutions for the whole christian world.

Let heretics, holding or teaching false doctrine concerning the sacraments, be excommunicated and degraded, and handed over to the secular court.

Secular princes unwilling to swear to defend the church against heretics are excommunicated, and they are laid under an interdict.

The goods of heretics are to be confiscated and applied to the church.

Advocates or notaries, favoring heretics, or their defenders, or pleading for them, law suits, or writing documents for them, are infamous and suspended from office.

The Bible Cabala. N. A. LIST. Now Rediscovered. PRICE, $2.50.

Table of Contents. PLATE I.—TITLE PAGE. PLATE II.—INTRODUCTION.

PLATE III.—Song of the Revolution (Proverbs VIII, vs. 20-30) and its famous "Cabala"—the origin of the Law of the Universe.

PLATE IV.—The advantages of the "Cabala." It unlocks the mysterious stronghold of intelligence, enabling us to make a practical "Revolution" of the Bible.

PLATE V.—The Burden of Egypt (Isaiah Ch. XIX), the Plans of the Architect for the Building of the Great Pyramid—Illustrated by Diagrams, the passages and chambers of the same shown, how dimensions conform to the "Cabala," and the meaning of the "Cabala."

PLATE VI.—The Song of Job, after he commanded the Sun and Moon to "stand still." The time thereof and its meaning. Certain parts of "Psalms," "Enoch" and "asher" compared to determine their relative age, and their related origin.

PLATE VII.—The process of adapting and adapting Bible Literature, in Nation Building, from the Great Model—the Universe. The Jews did not write the Bible, and why. The dispersion of the Authors of the Bible, and the probable time, and why. Protestantism and Romanism, who and how defined, and when and where.

PLATE VIII.—The Abstract of the "Cabala," as shown in the "Psalms," "Proverbs," "Job," "Isaiah," "Ezekiel," and "Song of Solomon." Form of the "Cabala" and their meaning. The Bible "paraphrases" are "Cabala" divisions, "the Cabala" reveals the hidden truths of which it is the symbol. Example of the "Cabala" giving verses 1 to 5, Isaiah, Ch. XVI; also the number and lines showing "Cabala."

PLATE IX.—The meaning thereof. Positive evidence that the Bible was written in Britain. The Temples, "Abury and Stonehenge," built to determine the living laws of the "Universe"; the Heavens, and the Constellations thereof, exhibited on the plains at Stonehenge.

In calling your kindly attention to the contents of the "Bible Cabala" as constructed by the Bards of Britain, permit me the pleasure to say:

This is no wise conceals with the Word or Verse "Cabala" constructed by and as given in the "Wisdom of Solomon"; this "key" of Solomon seems to have been made for the purpose of preserving an Order of the Books of the Bible. This "Cabala" of Solomon, I suppose is the "Cabala" so often referred to in later Jewish and other literature down to the present time; it of itself presupposes the existence of a "Cabala" then existing in the literature, and its construction strongly intimates that the knowledge of the form of the previous or oldest "Cabala" had been then lost, so that these two "Cabala's" are the "Figures Cabala's."

and the "Word or Verse Cabala's," assist each other, the first showing the Science, Ethics and Religion of the Books of the Bible; the second showing an order and arrangement of the Books in the Bible. Send names to THE AMERICAN, 1615 Howard Street, for subscription, without money.

Now Ready American Charts, Vol. I. Photo Lith. $2.50; Morocco, $3.50. Invaluable to those who desire to become acquainted with the Science and Invention of the ancients as shown in the Bible.
