Minnesota's Grand Chancellor Answers His Attack on the Knights of Pythias. ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 31.—The following letter was mailed in this city today: ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 31.—BY REV. S. G. MESSMER, Green Bay, Wis.—

few crumbs of suffrage, while around the table sit ring politicians, rum-sellers, foreigners, who can neither read nor write, the scum and raffia of the old world. Why should we be kept as beggars at the threshold, and our American boys kept on probation twenty-one years, while the overgrown boy who comes to us from across the water is made a citizen as soon as the political machine can grind out the necessary papers?

Priest Praises Public Schools. LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 28.—The state cachers tonight closed what is generally considered the most profitable and successful session in the history of their association. At the morning session Chancellor Canfield announced that it had been found necessary to elect two members of the national educational council from the whole body of the association.

THE VAMPIRE BAT PEST. One of the Chief Drawbacks to Cattle-Raising in Central America. There are some drawbacks to the Isthmian cattle business that would rather astonish the American cowboy were he to go there. The chief of these is the vampire bat, says a sun-correspondent writing from Panama.

NOT ALWAYS FIT. Some Laughable Anecdotes of Lafayette's Welcome in 1824. When Lafayette, in 1824, made his memorable tour through the United States, many amusing incidents occurred. Lafayette spoke but little English, and understood less.

Our Lord Satolli. Let the American people constantly keep before their eyes the character of the supreme authority given to Satolli by the head of the papal power of the world and the command emanating from that same supreme power to the Catholics of America to strictly obey the papal authority as delegated to this American pope. It is in these words: 'We give to you, all and singular, the power necessary and expedient for the carrying on of such delegate. We command all whom it concerns, to recognize in you, as apostolic delegate, the supreme power of the delegating pontiff. We command that they give you aid, concurrence and obedience in all things; that they receive with reverence your admonitions and orders. Whatever sentence or penalty you shall declare or inflict against those who oppose your authority we will ratify, and with the authority given us by the Lord, will cause to be observed, until condign satisfaction is made, notwithstanding constitutions and apostolic ordinances or any other to the contrary.'

A GRAND DISCOVERY! WANTED—A live man or woman in every county where we have not already secured a representative. We will pay $1000 for each name secured.

THE BLACK POPE. A complete expose of this gigantic octopus. Invaluable to every liberty-loving man and woman. Contains 13 lectures on questions dealing with the vital principles of our country.

How Did This Get Out? An instance showing the extraordinary religious influence of the mass is brought out by the fact that Bishop McGolrick, of Duluth, last week decided not to have any more midnight masses said, giving as a reason that there was too much turbulence and carousing after the exercises were over.

Errors of Youth. SUFFERERS FROM Nervous Debility, Youthful Indiscretions, Lost Memory, BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN.

Horrible Cannibalism in India. The fact that there are cannibals by race, tradition and profession at the present day in India is established beyond doubt. It seems incredible that in a large community like that of Nasseik or Benares the presence would be tolerated of abandoned creatures, who hunt the burning grounds with the avowed purpose of snatching and eating the half-consumed flesh of the dead if they are refused the alms they impudently demand with threats of vengeance.

Disunion of Our Country. I call upon you, fathers, by the shades of your ancestors, by the dear ashes which repose in this precious soil, by all you are and all you hope to be—resist every object of disunion; resist every encroachment upon your liberties; resist every attempt to fetter your consciences, or smother your public schools, or extinguish your system of public instruction.

Too Cool to Be Honest. Victor Schœlerer, the eminent writer, politician, and republican philanthropist who died lately in France, after an honorable life of nearly ninety years, had a quick eye for dishonesty of character. As a deputy, he voted to permit the return of Louis Napoleon to France, believing that the time had come for universal forgiveness.

Given the Imperial Sanction. A press telegram from Buda Pesth upon the subject of the sanction by the Emperor Francis Joseph of certain bills bitterly fought by the priests, says: 'The ecclesiastical bills to which the royal sanction has been given include measures legalizing civil marriages, allowing the conversion of christians to Judaism, granting religious liberty to Hebrews and removing the restrictions with regard to the children of mixed marriages. In fact, the bills provide for complete religious freedom in Hungary. All the measures, with the exception of that in regard to the children of mixed marriages, were bitterly opposed by the clericals. Not only the Roman Catholics, but the Greek orthodox bishops fought against the adoption of the measures.'

Decided. Once, when Judge Williams was presiding in the supreme court in Burlington, says the Green Bag, Jacob Maecik was making an argument, when he was told by the presiding judge to omit discussing the question, as it had been decided. Mr. Maecik inquired, 'It has?' 'Yes,' said Judge Williams, 'in the 10th Vermont.' 'Where?' said Mr. Maecik, putting his hand to his ear. 'In the 10th Vermont,' repeated the judge. Mr. Maecik, very gravely bowing replied: 'I will buy the book, your honor.'

A Hint to Lovers. Gus De Smith—Why do you and your girl go so much to the Grand Central depot? I see you there every day. Charlie Knickerbocker—I'll let you into a secret, but please don't give it away. In the depot we can kiss each other as much as we please, because people standing around suppose one of us is going off on the train. If we were to kiss each other anywhere else we would be arrested. Great scheme, isn't it?

Not Much on Distance. 'Friend,' said the candidate to the fellow at the gate, 'how far is it to the next settlement?' 'About half a acre.' 'And how far is that?' 'Well, hit's a right smart ways.' 'I mean how many yards?' 'Well, thar ain't any yards 'tall tell you get thar, an' then you'll strike Bill Spurlin's yard an' six yard dogs, all loose an' a-hungry!'

No Discount for Backsliding. Hicks—Mr. X. Herter, the evangelist, is doing a good work. They say he has made a hundred converts in his two meetings. Wicks—And how many of them will stick? Hicks—Oh, that doesn't make any difference. Herter, you know, gets $50 a night and there's no discount for backsliding.

Another Plank. Please allow me to suggest the following as one plank in the platform of the coming political party: We insist and demand that every person, male or female, before exercising the elective franchise, or becoming a legal citizen, shall register a sacred pledge or solemn oath, that he or she has lived in the United States at least five or seven consecutive years, and present proofs of the same if born in a foreign country; that he or she is of lawful age, 21 years old; that he or she has and does, now and for all time, fore-swear and forever renounce and disown all allegiance or promise of obedience or fealty whatsoever, to any and every foreign despotism, deminion or government, monarch, emperor, pope, czar, potentate, king, queen, prince, princess or governing power, religious or secular, ecclesiastical or temporal, or to any representative of any of the alien powers already named; and that he or she does now, and will henceforth and forever, yield a full and complete allegiance and a willing and prompt obedience to the constitution and laws of the nation and the state, and the legally elected officers of the same; and we insist on still another voting test, which can easily be applied at the registry booth or at the polls on election day, namely, that every person, before voting, shall be able to read, in the legal language of the nation and the state, a copy of the declaration of American independence, the constitution of the republic, or this political platform, or some equivalent printed book or pamphlet.

And please allow me to suggest another plank, to follow immediately after the foregoing one: We firmly believe it to be impolitic, cruel and unjust, and a disgrace to the American people, whether native or foreign-born, to allow any person whomsoever, to hold any public office, under the flag of the republic, elective or appointive, in the city, the state or the nation, in the army, the navy, the treasury or elsewhere, who has not complied with the requirements of the preceding section, without any concealed equivocations or mental reservations whatsoever; and that any and every official violation of the sacred pledge or solemn oath therein contained, should be a sufficient cause for removal from office, and for further and more severe punishment. All clerks and employees, under the age of 21, should register the sacred pledge or solemn oath, the same as if they were legal citizens and voters.

That's It. Two Roman Catholic 'Sisters of Charity,' who looked really more like the great grand aunts of charity, visited The Standard office the other day asking for money with which to build some Catholic 'infirmary.' It would be a very infirm infirmary that could be built with the money they got from this office. We would rather contribute to a rattle-snaky or a mad-dog-gery, than to give money to build a Roman Catholic convent.—Texas Baptist Standard.

She Talks Straight Truth. At a recent session of the national council, W. A. P. A., Mrs. Carrie C. Oostdyk, of Detroit, Mich., supreme president, made a most eloquent speech. Among other good things and true things, this clear-eyed, clear-headed, patriotic lady said, we note the following: 'The woman of this day and age is making rapid progress. Her hand is knocking at the door of every legislative hall in our land, begging for a
