8 THE PEOPLE WHO HELP

Already Answered

The Appeal Made in Behalf of the Drouth Sufferers of Western Nebraska.

TO AMERICANS.

Have you ever been hungry? Have your children shivered and cried from cold and insufficient clothing? Have your provisions remained uncooked for want of fuel? If any of these things have happened to you then you know the suffering which thousknow the suffering which thous, ands of citizens in Nebraska are undergoing today. All over that state men, women and children are almost crazed by want, ren are almost crazed by want, while in some instances children have died of starvation. Many of these sufferers are members of the A. P. A.; all are a portion of this great human family. In thousands of homes starva-tion stares the inmates in the face, and the death rate from this cause will be simply apall-ing in the very near future, unless our friends lend a help-ing hand at once. For that ing hand at once. For that reason we call upon our liberal, patriotic, unselfish, humane, christian American citizens to extend whatever relief lies in their power.

HARRISONVILLE, Mo., Jan. 24, 1895 -John C. Thompson, Omaha.-Dear Sir and Friend: Aslam a regular subscriber for your valuable paper, The AMERICAN, I noticed in your issue of January 10 that you made an appeal to Americans in behalf of the suffering people of your state. I at once began to think, what am I to do, and at once concluded to eend them something to wear. (If I am not mistaken, I think you said the express companies would haui such donations free of charge.) I began to look over my stock, and picked out about $25 worth of goods, such as thought they could use to good advant age. I fixed up my package and asked the Pacific Express agent to haul them, but he would not take them under half rates, which I said I couldn't do, after bill the goods to you, and have you set to the distribution of them.) In the made up a car-load to send to your state, so I shipped my donation with scriber for your valuable paper, THE state, so I shipped my donation with the car-load lot, which was sent to Lincolp. Nebraska.

CAUHY, Ore., Jan. 22, 1895. - Mr. John C. Thompson, Omaha, Neb.-Dear Sir; In response to your call for aid for the starving people of western Nebraska, I send today a box of things which were collected among my neighbors and friends, to W. N. Nason, chairman of the relief committee. The box ontains donations from the following persons: Mrs. Carlton, bundle of clothing; Mrs. Slight, bundle of clothing; Mrs. Whipple, bundle of clothing : Mrs. Eckerson, dried fruit; Mrs. J. Roth, dried fruit; Mrs. Cummings, bundle of clothing and ten pounds of beans.

Interest in this question is just baginning to awaken in this vicinity, two councils of the A. P A. having been organized in this part of the county in the last months, and it is about time, I think. The people have been asleep here, but they are awake now.
