Oath of the Clan-na-Gael.

The following is the oath taken by the members of that famous Romish

Catholic society: "I (name in full) do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God, that I will labor while life is left in me to establish and de-fend a republican form of government in Ireland; that I will keep secret the names and everything connected with the Irish brotherhood from all not entitled to know such secrets; that I will obey and comply with the constitution and laws of the same. that I will preserve the funds of this order for the cause of Irish revolution alone as specified in the constitution; that I will promote and foster sen brotherly love, nationality, among all Irish. I take this obligation without any mental reservation, holding the same forever binding upon me, and that any violation thereof, or desertion of my duty to the brotherhood is Infamous, and merits the severest punishment, so help me God."

This outh the candidate is abjured to keep at the hazzard of his life. It was printe! in the Chicago Inter Ocean and was sworn to be correct at the Cronin trial. It was reported by said paper November 17, 1894. Priests and bishops act as chaplains for this holy (?) order.
