SOME JUNIOR NEWS.

On to Omaba. Let the session of 1895 be a representative one. Every representative should be present. It is his duty our energetic western brothers to This is their plan: spread the order. They are entitled to recognition, and have shown it by their work.

The Junior Order United American Mechanics will celebrate the Fourth of to do if people were to act as they talk. July, 1895, in Montana. All visiting Juniors will be cordially received by the officers and members of Washington Council, No. 1, of Butte City.

The work of renovating the order in the state of Washington is being pushed forward with energy. The state has now eight councils in excellent coudition, and good prospects for several more soon.

Dr. Senner, the immigrant commissioner at New York, stated that 4,000 immigrants arrived at New York Saturday, May 11th; 2,000 arrived May 13:h, and 15 000 were expected to arrive during the remaining days of the week. These heavy arrivals are almost unprecedented during the last several years.

The passage of the Farr compulsory educational bill by the legislature of Pennsylvania is a great step forward in the educational legislation of that state. It secures reforms of the first magnitude, and its passage and final approval by the governor reflects great credit on the work of the state legislative committee of the Junior Order United American Mechanics.-Ex.

Few cities in America are more thoroughly Romanized than Davenport, Iowa. Because of the adoption of a constitutional amendment in the State of Iowa thirteen years ago, forbidding the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in that commonwealth, the city of Davenport became intensely Democratic, the Republican party having favored the prohibitory amendment. A Romish mayor, who is also a Democrat, has frequently refused a permit to A. P. A. lecturers in that city, and it has been practically impossible to hire a hall there in which to expose the plots of the Romish hierarchy. Recently, Prof. Wm Clark, of Galesburg, Ill., who is a most eloquent lecturer on A. P. A. lines, sized up the ci y of Davenport as a mighty good field for missionary effort. He was un

Debs Greater than the President.

There was a time for a few weel last summer when the American Rai way Union thought it was a greate organization than the federal govern ment, and "President Debs" assume to be the ruler of the United State [and Altgeld and Hopkins thought s too, and knuckled down to Debs], but must be plain now to even the average "walking delegate" that it will neve pay to try that sort of nonsense again -New York Evening Post.
