BEES AT ASCOT.

They Made Things Lively at the Race-Track for a While. A curious incident occurred at Ascot. While a large number of pleasant luncheon parties were enjoying the delights of an open-air repast in the gardens behind the grand stand a great swarm of bees settled down on the guests around a table in a corner.

HE SAW SNAKES.

They Were Real Ones, but He Signed the Pledge. A good story is told about Major Bartow of Georgia. This gentleman's exciting war reminiscences, together with his ability to absorb the product of the "still" without apparent injury to his constitution or impediment to his locomotion, earned him fame and great prestige among the convivial spirits in his native town.

To Suit the Times. "In view of the recent changes," said Mrs. Bloomer decidedly, "there should be some alterations in the old nursery rhymes before they are allowed in any modern house."

Fruit Soups. Fruit soups are more common abroad than here. They are served cold of course and are a pleasant and easily prepared novelty for the company summer luncheon.
