TEST FOR DRUNKARDS.

Boston Alderman Would Have Them Spell or Walk a Chalk Line. Councilman Lane of Boston lately introduced in the city council a resolution instructing the committee on police to report a measure that will compel the officers in charge of the different police stations in the city to apply a test to men when arrested on a charge of drunkenness.

Remains of a Monster.

L. W. Stacy, who arrived at Yellowstone from Powder river the other day, told of the finding of the carcass of some extinct monster whose remains are as large, but unlike, the mastodon.

NO MAN'S LAND.

The Most Isolated Spot in New England, With Twelve Inhabitants. If the spirit of Bartholomew Gosnold could return to this world and would hover over No Man's Land, it would likely be greatly surprised at the little progress which has been made towards inhabiting that island since it was first espied by the English navigator in the year 1602.

A Jay at the Box Office.

A theater treasurer bumps up against many adverse forms of human nature. If some bright box-office man were to embody the many humorous incidents which happen at his window in book form it would be an interesting contribution to light literature.

Treasures of Archaeology.

The Museum of Archaeology of the University of Pennsylvania has just received from Mrs. S. Weir Mitchell two gourds set with silver and two silver tubes, which are used by the people of Paraguay for drinking maté.

War Should Not Affect the Price of Tea.

The wily merchant who begins to put up the price of tea on the strength of the China-Japan war should be forestalled by the wily housekeeper who stores her head with useful knowledge.

The street beggars in Barcelona have entered into a solemn covenant to withdraw from circulation all the two-centime pieces which they receive from the charitable public, so as to compel their benefactors to give them the coin next in value—viz., five centimes.

THE NEW-DAILY SCHEME.

The friends at Omaha are trying to raise sufficient capital to start an American daily. They already have a fair start, but desire the assistance of friends everywhere in the United States. Can you take one or more shares, on account of true Americanism? This is their plan:

We have consulted with our friends, and they have suggested this plan: Increase the capital stock of the American Publishing Co. to $150,000. Divide into 10,000 shares of $15 each.

Each stockholder must be a subscriber. Subscription price of the paper, first year will be $10; $8 the second, and whatever the directors decide thereafter.

The management of the company will be placed in the hands of a board of directors, who will be elected from among the stockholders by a majority of the stock represented at the regular annual meeting.

On demand, after $100,000 of the capital stock of the AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY has been subscribed, I agree to pay to the AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, or order, the sum of $100,000, Dollars, being the purchase price of 6,666 2/3 Shares of the capital stock of the AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, of Omaha, Neb. Dated at (town) this day of 1895.

Also, please fill out the following blank for our information, as we do not want to have a Romanist associated with us in business:

I hereby state and make this a part of my contract with the AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, that I am a Protestant; that I am not the agent of a Roman Catholic or of any person who sympathizes with the fight being made by the pope and the hierarchy against the free institutions of this country.

been spoken for in the scheme to get up a patriotic daily paper in Omaha:

Table listing names and share amounts: Omaha, Neb. 1,070 shares; Chicago, Ill. 500 shares; Brownville, Neb. 100 shares; Waver, Neb. 100 shares; Waver, Ia. 100 shares; Minneapolis, Minn. 100 shares; Florence, Neb. 100 shares; Kansas City, Mo. 100 shares; Laramie, Wyo. 100 shares; Marion, Ohio 100 shares; Des Moines, Ia. 100 shares.

There are to be 10,000 shares. Each share is $15, payable when $100,000 has been subscribed. The capital stock is to be $150,000. How many shares will you want? Let us have a daily.

Fifty Years — IN THE — Church of Rome

This is a standard work on Romanism and its secret workings, written by one who ought to know. The story of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln by the paid tools of the Roman Catholic Church is told in a clear and convincing manner. It also relates many facts regarding the practices of priests and nuns in the convents and monasteries. It has 842 pages, and is sent postpaid on receipt of $1.00, by AMERICAN PUBLISHING CO., 1615 Howard Street, Omaha, Neb. or, Cor Clark and Randolph, Chicago, Ill.

Convent Life Unveiled.

This little work relates the bitter experience of a young lady who was induced through the cunning of the Jesuits and the Sisters of Charity to enter a convent. Her story of the heartrending scenes enacted in those sinks of iniquity is told in a convincing style. Price in cloth, 25 cents, sent postpaid by AMERICAN PUBLISHING CO.,
