Two Fires.
 Boston has two fires at the same time, one of which is the Masonic Temple. It seems to me that it would be a good idea if there were an association formed for the purpose of hunting down persons who are known as "fire-bugs." There are companies who have been very successful in this line, one of which is to protect the safes of the jeweler by hunting down the safe-blower. Now let one be started to hunt down the fire-bugs, and let them be brought to justice if it takes ten years to do it.
 This would be a good idea for the insurance companies to aid, and especially during these times when some men—bigots—think they are doing God service by destroying property of those who are not of the same belief that they are. It would be wise to include in this "dynamiters."

Note from Troy, N. Y.
 We had a Fourth of July celebration in Troy, and it was well sandwiched with A. O. H., C. B. L., scholars from St. Joseph's School, etc., and in the procession was the green flag with a big gilt cross on it. Wonder if that was inviting an attack from A. P. A.'s or Orangemen? And now Tom Keith, of the Troy Telegram, wonders why more citizens did not join the parade!
 The fact is, we don't wish to train with Romanism.—T. in Boston Citizen.

AMUSEMENTS.
 The following is the brilliant list of attractions that the Boyd will present to its patrons during the month of October: Charles Frohman's company with William Gillette in "Too Much Johnson," Fitzgerald Murphy's new drama, "The Silver Lining," with an excellent company under the management of Tom Miner, of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York; the lively farce-comedy "Rush City," with Matthews and Bulger, who made such an impression in the piece here last season at Boyd's; Charles W. Hoyt's new play, "A Contented Woman," for the first time here, with his beautiful wife, Caroline Miskol Hoyt, in a principal part; "On the Bowery," the modern New York melodrama, with Steve Brodie (the famous bridge jumper); the American Extravaganza Company in "All Baba;" Tim Murphy and a strong cast in "A Texas Steer;" De Wolf Hopper in a new comedy opera; a big "Black Crook" company; the month's festivities closing with Ed E. Rice's new specialty show, entitled "The Globe-Trotter," with "Old Hoss" Bill Hoy and Aubrey Boucault in the cast.
 Sam T. Jack's Extravaganza Company comes to Boyd's theater to-morrow (Sunday) evening and the two following evenings, in "The Bull-Fighter." Sam T. Jack has been very successful in like productions, and this latest is said to be the best of all. The company comes direct from Mexico and Cuba, where it is claimed great success attended the tour. The cast is said to contain many pretty and shapely young women, and the piece gives opportunity for music, comedy, dramatic work and clever specialties. Seats are now on sale at the usual prices.
 On Wednesday and Thursday evenings next, the most popular comedy that the east has known for a number of years will be presented for the first time in Omaha at Boyd's theater, namely, "Too Much Johnson." Mr. William Gillette, the famous author of the comedy and of a half-dozen other successful ones, will be in the cast. The company will be identically the same that has made the comedy famous in the eastern cities and includes Ralph Delmore and pretty Maud Haslam.

If it were not for the interest in politics we should like to write a review of the attractions which have appeared at both the Boyd and Creighton this week. They were far superior to what Omaha has been accustomed to witnessing. The attraction at the Boyd was Pauchon, with pretty little Gladys Wallis as the star. We doubt whether Maggie Mitchell in her most popular days ever delineated the character more artistically. Miss Wallis' every act seemed to be the act of Pauchon, it was so real. Besides, her support was excellent. So much for the Boyd. Now as to the Creighton. There Trilby has been. And such a Trilby! A most magnificent character, a paragon—but we haven't time—politics is too warm. But the ladies pronounced her beautiful as she appeared in Act III. Then there was Wilton Lackaye as Duengali, a most talented actor; and Little Billie, and Taffy and Sandy, whose friendship for and love of each other was not too much overdrawn to be real. In short Pauchon and Trilby were excellent.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
 by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is a thing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
 We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Ointment Cure. Send for circulars free.
